Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, to assent to or dissent from the said assignces compounding with Thomas Vaux and Sir Windsor Bayntun Sandys, debtors to the said bankrupi's estate, and taking any reasonable part of the debt in discharge of the whole, giving time or taking security for the payment of such debts; and submitting any dispute between such assignees and the said Thomas Vaux and Sir Windsor Bayntun Sandys, or either of them, or concerning any matter relating to such bankrupt's estate, to the determi-nation of arhitrators, to be chosen by such assignees and the major part, in value, of such creditors, and the said Thom is Vaux or Sir Windsor Baynun Sandys; the award of such arbitrator to be bixding on all the creditors of the said bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a First in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against George East and George Phillips Vincent, cf the parish of Aston, near Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Glass-Makers, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the assignee of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on Friday assignee of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on Friday the 23d day of June instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of Mr. Wills, Solicitor, Waterloo-street, in Birmingham aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, as to the said assignee shall seen meet, of the leasehold glass house, in Alcester street, in the said parish of Aston, wherein the said bankrupts have carried on their business, and all other their leasehold estates, and also of the steam engine, machinery, tools, and stock in trade. household furniture, and other the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, as well joint as separate; and 10 the said assignee accepting such security or securities for the payment thereof as he may think proper; and also to his working up the stock in hand, and to the selling of all and every the several articles and goods as and when they shall be severally manufactured and to intrusting such goods, or any of the same, upon credit, or upon such security as the said assignee shall think proper; and to the said assignee employing such workmen and other persons, in and about the same, as he may think fit ; and also to the said assignee commencing a suit in equity against a per-son or persons, to be named at the suid meeting, for the purpose of laving the same declared to be void, or of compelling him or them to deliver up the same to be cancelled, or such other relief as may be advised, a certain agreement alleged to have been signed by the bankrupts, or one of them, and affecting to create a lien on the leasehold estates of the said bankrupts, or some part thereof; and also to the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any other suit or suits, action or actions, for the receiving or protection of all or any part of the said bankrupts' estate and effects; and to his compounding for or submitting to arbitration any matter or thing relating to the said bankrupts' estates; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fian in Baukruptcy awarded and issued forth against Richard Cuming, of Plymouth, in the county of Devon, Ship-Owner, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignces of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 28th day of June instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the Exchange, in Woollster-street. in Plymouth aforesaid, in order to assent to or disent from the said assignces permitting the said bankrupt to retain his household furniture, goods, and chattels at the sum of ninety pounds, in which sum the same have been railed and appraised by Mr. James Skardon and Mr. John Paddon, Appraisers ; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignces selling and disposing of all or any part of the freehold and heasehold dwelling houses, heredinaments and premises, ships, or vessels, parts of ships or vessels, stock in trade, household furniture, goods and chattels and all other the real and personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt, either "by public auction or private contract, or pattly by public auction and partly by private contract, or by valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, for the best price or prices that can be reasonably obtained for the same, to any person or persons whomsever; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignces giving such credit. and with or without securities, for the respective purchase moneys or appraised values respectively, as they shall think proper or be advised; and also to assent to or dissent from instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the Court of have been or may be made by the said assignees previously to Bankruptey, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, such meeting; and to assent to or dissent from ratifying and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding confirming the credit or credits given at the time of such safe or sales ; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignce: paying the bankrupt's clerk and the masters, mates, and marmers of any ships or vessel: of which he the bankrupt was the reputed owner or ship's husband, or part owner, and the bankrupt's workmen or servants, or any of them, their wages wages as may have accrued to such clerk, masters, mates, and mariners, workmen and servants subsequent to the date of the said fiat, for services performed by them for the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from ratifying and confirming all or any payments already made by the said assignces to such clerk, masters, mates, and mariners, workmen and servants for services, as well previously as subsequent to the date of the said flat ; and also to assent to or dissent from ratifying and confirming all or any of the acts done by the said assignces in carrying on the trades and business of the said bankrupt after the bankruptcy, and in performing work and labour, and providing materials for divers persons with the view of benefiting the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignces paying and dis-charging all or any part of the expences already incurred, or hereafter to be incurred, in the investigation and elucidation of the books, accounts, and papers of the said bankrupt, by agents, accountants, or otherwise; and in winding up the affairs of the said estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignces paying and discharging all or any part of the expences already incurred. or hereafter to be incurred, for collecting the debts due to the said bankrupt's estate, and insuring, or causing to be insured, the interest or property clauned by the said bankrupt in any ships or vessels, or shares in ships or vessels, or other property whatsoever; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, or other proceedings, against a certain person or persons, to be named at the meeting, for the recovery of certain mining shares in the Walkingspiror Consols Mine, in the county of Devon, alleged to have been transferred by the said bank upt shortly before the date of the said fait; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying to the treasurer or agent of the said mine any sum or sums of money for costs or calls thereon, in respect of the said shares; and to assent to or dissent from ratifying and confirming any payment or payments already made in respect thereof by the said assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignes defending in the Courts of Review or Bankruptcy, or any court of equity, any petition by, or other proceedings of, David Derry, Esq. the manager and public officer of the Deron and Cornwall Banking Company, seeking to become equitable mortgagee of certain freehold messuages or dwelling-houses and other property in Plymouth afore-aid and elsewhere, on certain title deeds and other papers or writings alleged to have been deposited by the said bankrupt with the said Banking Company, before the date of the said fat, for securing to the said Banking Lompany the balance of the account alleged to be due and owing from the said bankrupt to the said Banking Company; and also to assent to or dissent from ratifying and confirming all or any of the acts or things done, or to be done, by the said assignces, respecting such petition or other proceeding, previous to such meeting of creditors taking place; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignces commencing an action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, against a certain person or persons, to be named at the meeting, for enforcing the contract entered into by him or them for the purchase of a freehold dwelling house and premises, situate at the angle of Buckwell-street and Whimple street, in Plymouth a oresaid, and solid at public auction by the said assigners, on the 12th and soft at prove auction by the said assigners, on the 12th day of May last, for eight hundred and sixty pounds; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assigners investigating the title, and, if they think proper or should be advised so to do, commencing an action at law, or suit in equity, for the redov ry of a certain freehold estate, called Wells, situate in the parish of Christow, in the said county of D. von, alleged to be the property of the said bankrupt ; and also to assent to or dissent from the said as gnees consenting that the holders of certain oills of exchange, whereon the said bankropt's estate is hade, may receive from other parties to the said bills of exchange, any sum or sums of money by way of composition and full discharge of such other parties, without pr judice to the ratifying and confirming any such sale or sales as aforesaid, rights of such holders to receive their dividence on such bills sither by public auction or by private contract, which may from the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or