

powers of Government in or over any foreign country, either as an officer or soldier, or in any other military capacity, or as an officer or sailor or marine in any such ship or vessel as aforesaid, although no enlisting money or pay or reward should have been, or should be in any of the cases aforesaid, actually paid to or received by him, or by any person to or for his use or benefit, in any or either of such cases every person so offending should be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and should be punishable by fine and imprisonment, as in the said Act is mentioned :

And that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, being desirous of enabling all persons to engage in the military and naval service of Her Majesty Isabella the second, Queen of Spain, His Majesty was pleased to order, and it was thereby ordered, that from and after the said tenth day of June, it should be lawful for every person whomsoever to enter into the military or naval service of Her said Majesty as a commissioned or non-commissioned officer, or as a private soldier, sailor, or marine, and to serve Her said Majesty in any military, warlike, or other operations either by land or by sea, and for that purpose to go to any place or places beyond the seas, and to accept any commission, warrant, or other appointment from or under Her said Majesty, and to enlist and enter himself in such service, and to accept any money, pay, or reward for the same :

Provided always, that the licence and permission thereby given should be in force only for the term of two years from the said tenth day of June, unless by Order in Council, made in manner aforesaid, such period should be further extended.

And His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, being desirous of extending such period for one year from the tenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said term of two years shall be further extended for one year from the said tenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.
