

with the like powers and authorities as before mentioned; and to assent to, or dissent from the said assignees paying and keeping down out of the said bankrupts' estate the interest upon all or any of the mortgages of the said bankrupts' real estates until sold; and to the said assignees exercising a general and discretionary power and authority in managing, conducting, and winding up of the said bankrupts' estates and effects in such way as they the said assignees may be advised and think beneficial for the interests of the creditors thereof; and also to sanction and approve of all such acts, matters, and things as the said assignees shall or may have already done, prior to the said meeting, in and about or concerning the business or affairs of the said bankrupts; and also to assent to, or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of or concerning any part of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, and to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or in anywise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the benefit of the said bankrupts' estate, and in such manner as the said assignees may think proper; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Newey, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Brass Founder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; on the 18th day of July next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon precisely, at the office of Mr. William Marshall, Union-street, Birmingham aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits at law or in equity against certain parties, to be then named, for recovering of certain goods, wares, and merchandizes belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, and now withheld from them, or to their entering into any arrangement with such parties respecting the same as they may deem conducive to the interest and for the advantage of the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the assignees having full power and authority at their discretion to apply any portion of the monies of the said bankrupt's estate in the redemption of the said goods, wares, and merchandizes, or any part thereof, either by paying any lien or liens now existing, or by entering into any other arrangement with such parties respecting the same as they may deem most proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing, or to their employing or paying any person to sell and dispose of, all or any of the said goods, wares, and merchandizes, household furniture and effects, good will, stock in trade, or any other personal property belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction, or partly by private contract, and at such time and place, and times and places, and upon such terms and conditions as the said assignees may deem most advantageous and proper, and either for ready money or credit, and if the latter, upon such security for payment as the said assignees may think proper, and without their being answerable for any loss or damage that may be incurred or sustained thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging certain law expenses which were incurred, previous to the docket being struck against the bankrupt, in endeavouring to arrange and settle a composition on the debts of the said bankrupt, and to obtain an assignment of the whole of the said bankrupt's estate and effects to two of his creditors, as trustees, for the general benefit of all his creditors, but which could not be effected; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Henry Teye and Samuel Lightfoot, late of Great Saint Helens, in the city of London, Merchants and Copartners, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on Wednesday the 19th day of July next, at two of the clock precisely in the afternoon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, to take into consideration an arrangement proposed between the said assignees and certain persons, who will be named at the said meeting, in respect of certain claims of the said assignees against the said persons, for moneys received by, or payments made to, them shortly before the issuing of the said fiat; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or discontinuing any suit or suits at law or in equity, concerning the said bankrupts' estate and effects; and to their compounding or submitting to arbitration any dispute or difference, or agreeing to any matter or thing relating to the said bankrupts' estate and effects; and as to the best mode of disposing of the private property of the said bankrupts, or either of them, or any part thereof respectively, and the time, mode, and terms of offering the same for sale; and especially as to the sale of such private property, or any part thereof, whether consisting of reversionary interests or otherwise, to the said bankrupts respectively, by private contract, on the terms to be arranged between them and the said assignees; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under the several Commissions of Bankrupt or Fiats in Bankruptcy, in the nature of renewed Commissions of Bankrupt, awarded and issued forth against Richard Hewlett, Builder, also against William Townsend, Silversmith and Builder, also against Thomas Townsend and John Townsend, Silversmiths, Builders and Copartners, all of the city of Bath, or parish of Walcot, in the county of Somerset, are requested to meet the assignee of the estates and effects of the said bankrupts respectively, on Wednesday the 19th day of July next, at one o'clock in the afternoon precisely, at the office of Messrs. Clarke and King, Solicitors, situate and being No. 13, in Queen-square, in the city of Bath, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee allowing the sum of £200 to the Rev. Daniel Race Godfrey, out of the consideration money contracted to be paid by him for the purchase of all the estate and interest of the said assignee of and in two dwelling-houses, situate Nos 23 and 24, in Grosvenor-place, Bath, and of and in certain pieces or parcels of land, or shares of and in certain pieces or parcels of land, near adjoining thereto, in consideration of the said Daniel Race Godfrey waiving all objections whatever to the title to the same hereditaments respectively, and agreeing to take such title as the said assignee has therein; and in case the creditors at such meeting shall refuse to consent to such allowance being made, then to authorise the said assignee to commence any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the purpose of a decree for the specific performance of the said contract, or damages for the non-performance thereof; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Parker, formerly of Fleet-street, in the city of London, afterwards of Berner's-street, Oxford-street, in the county of Middlesex, and late of Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury-square, in the same county, Gold and Silversmith, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 19th day of July next, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the real and personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, in such lot or lots, at such price or prices, and at such times and places, with liberty to buy in and resell the same by either of the modes aforesaid, at the risk and expence of the bankrupt's estate as to the said assignees may seem most advantageous; and to assent to or dissent from the assignees making and entering into all necessary contracts, agreements, and arrangements for any or either of the purposes aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the assignees if they shall think fit for the more convenient sale or recovery of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, paying off any legal or equitable mortgage or mortgages, or other liens or incumbrances upon the real or leasehold estates of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof, with and out of the monies belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, and their taking transfers of such legal or equitable mortgages, liens, or incumbrances accordingly, or their borrowing and taking up money at interest for such purpose at the risk and expence of the bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compromising or compounding a large debt due to the said bankrupt's estate, from a person to be then named, upon the terms agreed upon between such person and the said bankrupt, and which terms will be submitted to the said meeting, or their taking such proceedings at law or in equity for the recovery of the whole or any part of such debt, as the said assignees may be advised and think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting one or more suit or suits in equity, for the purpose of setting aside certain settlements and charges alleged to have been made by the said bankrupt of his property, or taking such other proceedings in that behalf as they may be