

St. James's-Palace, July 19, 1837.

THIS day the following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty, at the Levee, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address; which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

No. 4.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the borough of Manchester, in Public Meeting assembled, beg leave to approach your Throne, on an occasion of such deep interest to your Majesty and ourselves, with the mingled expression of our condolence and congratulations.

We deeply sympathize with the bereavement which your Majesty, in common with your loyal subjects, has recently sustained in the lamented death of your Majesty's late revered Uncle, and our most gracious Monarch, King William the Fourth; but we feel convinced that your Majesty will derive consolation from the assurance that his kind-hearted and generous conduct as a man, his constant regard for the rights and liberties of his subjects, and his desire to promote the amelioration of the laws and institutions of the country, will long be remembered by his people with feelings of the deepest gratitude and affection.

To these our expressions of sincere and heartfelt sympathy we beg to add our most cordial and lively congratulations on your Majesty's happy and most auspicious accession to the Throne of these realms. Educated, as your Majesty has condescended to remind your loyal subjects, in England, under the tender and enlightened care of a most affectionate Mother, your Majesty has learned from infancy to respect and love the constitution of your native country; and we feel unspeakable joy in the gracious assurance, which we doubt not it will be the object of your Majesty's life to realize, that you will protect the rights and promote to the utmost of your power the happiness and welfare of all classes of your subjects. From these liberal and encouraging expressions with regard to your Majesty's beneficent designs towards your people, we deduce a confident assurance that your Majesty will be ever mindful of those great principles which originally placed the House of Brunswick on the Throne of these realms.

That it may please Almighty God to strengthen and assist your Majesty in the fulfilment of these most gracious designs. That all your subjects may co-operate, as in duty bound, with your Majesty's zealous endeavours to secure these ends, in which all are so intimately concerned; and that your Majesty's reign may be long, prosperous, and happy; glorious to your name, and beneficial to your people, is our sincere wish and most fervent prayer.

Signed, in pursuance of a Resolution of the Inhabitants of Manchester, in Public Meeting assembled, at the Town-hall, on Wednesday the 28th day of June 1837.

John Hyde, Boroughreeve.

[Presented by the Boroughreeve, and a Deputation.]

No. 19525.

B

No. 5.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of the county of Cambridge and of the Isle of Ely.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, beg leave to approach your Majesty, and, with expressions of the deepest sorrow, to offer our sincere condolence at the loss which your Majesty has sustained by the death of our late revered Sovereign, King William the Fourth.

Impelled by strong feelings of loyalty and affection, we hasten to tender our allegiance, and to congratulate your Majesty upon your accession to the Crown of these realms, confident, from your Majesty's most gracious declaration, that, under Divine Providence, the high authority of your Majesty will be exercised in the firm and constant maintenance of the reformed religion, as by law established, securing at the same time to all the full enjoyment of religious liberty. And that, while you endeavour to emulate the example of the brightest of your race, you will never swerve from those principles which seated the House of Brunswick upon the British Throne.

In conclusion, we most fervently pray that Almighty God will guide you by His counsel, support you by His strength, and graht unto you a long, a happy, and a peaceful reign.

Signed by order and on behalf of this meeting, duly convened and held on the 10th day of July 1837, at the Shire-hall, in the town of Cambridge, in the county of Cambridge.

John Dobelle, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Hon. Eliot York, and a Deputation.]

No. 6.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ, Canterbury, beg most humbly to offer to your Majesty our most sincere congratulation on the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Allegiance to the Throne is inseparable from the attachment which we bear to the Established Church, of which your Majesty is the acknowledged head, and the dignities, immunities, and privileges which we have derived from the favour of your royal predecessors, and in which we have been for many centuries secured through their continued protection, have strengthened the tie of loyalty and gratitude which connects us with the Crown.

And we feel deeply grateful to your Majesty for the gracious declaration, that it will be your Majesty's unceasing study to maintain the reformed religion of the land as by law established; a declaration that recognized the only sound principle on which good government can be based, or the favour of the Almighty expected to attend your Majesty's councils.

It will be our fervent prayer that God may give to your Majesty the support of his most powerful