

(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to Her Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, August 1, 1837.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty the QUEEN.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Chairman and Justices of the Peace of the County of Carmarthen, in Quarter Sessions assembled, at the town of Llandilofawr, in the said county, this 28th day of June 1837, humbly beg permission to offer our unfeigned congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms, sincerely wishing you a long continuance of health and happiness to reign over an united people.

And we fervently pray, that He, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree justice, may over-rule the councils, and sanctify the endeavours, of your Majesty to secure to yourself the loyalty and affection of a grateful nation.

By order of the Court,
Jones, Clerk of the Peace.

[Transmitted by the Clerk of the Peace.]

No. 2.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Wallingford, in the county of Berks, approach your Throne with our sympathetic condolence on the demise of your august Relative, his late Majesty William the Fourth. But we desire, at the same time, to express our humble gratitude to the Almighty Disposer of human Events, for vouchsafing to place the Crown on your Majesty's head, and for giving us a Queen lineally descended from a long line of Royal and truly Protestant Ancestors.

We assure ourselves that the boasted Constitution of these realms, as by law established, will receive your Majesty's fostering care; and we tender our most dutiful acknowledgments for your declaration, that you have learned, from your infancy, to respect and love the constitution of your Majesty's native-country.

We humbly and most cordially commend your Majesty to the guardian care of Him by whom Kings reign, and Princes decree justice.

Given under our common seal, at a Court of Common Council, the 11th day of July, in the first year of your Majesty's reign.

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

No. 3.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Magistrates, Town Council, and Community of Stonehaven, Head Burgh of the county of Kincardine, in Public Meeting assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty on your accession to the Throne, and, with profound respect and willing hearts, to declare our loyalty, duty, and attachment.

We participate in the national lamentation for the death of a King, whose beneficent reign secured to him that truest solace for the cares of monarchy—the affections of his people.

But we are thankful that the Great Disposer of Events, who willed the termination of the earthly career of our late revered Sovereign, has placed the sceptre of the empire in the hand of a British Princess so eminently fitted, by her virtues and anxiously cultivated endowments, to preserve the liberties and advance the happiness of her subjects.

Under this gratifying assurance we would offer our humble but ardent wish and prayer, that, throughout a long and glorious reign, your Majesty may be blessed with the fullest measure of felicity.

Signed at Stonehaven, the 12th of July 1837, in our name and presence, by Peter Christian, Chief Magistrate.

[Transmitted by the Chief Magistrate.]

No. 4.

The humble Address of the undersigned Welsh Congregational Ministers, assembled at an Association held at Tredeger, in the County of Monmouth, July 5, 1837, to Her Most Excellent Majesty, VICTORIA the First.

May it please your Majesty,

WHILE sympathizing with your Majesty in the regrets and anxieties you so naturally feel on the demise of your illustrious Relative, our late beloved Sovereign, William the Fourth, we humbly beg to offer our warmest congratulations to your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of these realms. We regard the station you now occupy as the highest on earth; and the time in which, by an All-wise Providence, you have been elevated to it, as likely to prove a most important period in the history of the world: and, from the sentiments and feelings so nobly expressed by your Majesty, when entering upon its sacred responsibilities, as well as from the manifold virtues that have been so happily cherished in your Majesty's bosom, by a most illustrious Mother, whose character and conduct are deservedly revered by the nation, we feel confident that such an "amelioration of the laws and institutions of your native country" will be effected, under your reign, as will, by promoting the happiness of your people, greatly add to the power and dignity of the British empire.

The principles of loyalty transmitted to us by our fathers have, upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne, taken deeper root than ever, and have now gained a full and firm possession of our hearts. In affectionate devotion to your Royal Person, we can yield to no class of our fellow subjects; and we feel most happy in having the privilege of publicly uniting, from sabbath to sabbath, with tens of
