

grace of God, we shall make it our study to cherish and to exemplify that genuine loyalty which our church has ever displayed towards the House of Brunswick, and to inculcate on the people committed to our spiritual superintendence those principles of true religion, that fidelity to their Sovereign, that attachment to our national institutions, sacred and civil, and that love of our unrivalled constitution on whose maintenance depend the security of the Throne and the freedom of the people.

That it may please Almighty God to bestow on your Majesty abundantly his grace, to give wisdom to your councils to direct all your measures to the glory of his name, to the advancement of the interests of Christ's Kingdom among this people, and to the support of our national institutions, both religious and civil; to bless your Government with success, and to grant your Majesty a long and happy reign over a free, a loyal, and a truly Christian people, is the fervent prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Aberdeen.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Presbytery, at Aberdeen, this 27th day of June 1837. James Bryce, Moderator.

No. 9.

To Her Majesty Queen VICTORIA.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Grimsby, in the county of Lincoln, in Council assembled, humbly condole with your Majesty on the death of our late revered Sovereign King William the Fourth.

We also beg to approach your Majesty to express our congratulations on your Majesty's ascending the Throne of your ancestors, and our attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, and to the laws and constitution of the realm.

We humbly hope that the Almighty may grant your Majesty a long and prosperous reign, and thus enable your Majesty to see effected those necessary, judicious, and efficient reforms in progress that will give increasing stability to the protestant religion, and to the laws and constitution of the country, and greatly tend to promote the comfort and well being of all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

Given under the common seal of the said borough of Grimsby, at a meeting of the Council of the said borough, held in the Council Chamber, in the Town-hall of the said borough, on the 15th day of July, in the year 1837.

No. 10.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the inhabitants of Uxbridge and its vicinity, beg leave to approach your Majesty with our hearty congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the British Throne. Deeply as we deplore the loss which the nation has sustained by the death of our late most gracious Sovereign, whose many virtues endeared him to all classes of his people, still we look up with perfect confidence to your Majesty, as the guardian of our constitution and the upholder of our civil and religious liberty. Educated under the watchful eye of a most affectionate Mother, we feel assured that your Majesty has imbibed the principles which become a British Sovereign, and we venture to anticipate that your Majesty's reign will form a bright and glorious æra in our country's history.

We sincerely hope and earnestly pray, that the same Almighty power which has called your Majesty to your present exalted station, will bless your Majesty with health and length of days to reign in peace and glory over a free, loyal, and happy people.

THE following Addresses have also been very graciously received :

No. 11.

To the QUEEN'S Most Gracious Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councilors of the borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness, approach your Majesty with the purest sentiments of devotion and attachment.

We offer our sincere sympathy with your Majesty for the loss we have mutually sustained in the decease of our late beloved Monarch, your Royal Uncle William the Fourth, during whose short but glorious reign peace has been preserved, and the true rights and liberties of his subjects have been promoted, and for which he has entailed on his memory the gratitude of an affectionate people.

Educated on English soil, under the fostering care of your most excellent and illustrious Mother, we hail with delight the auspicious accession of your gracious Majesty, and look forward with confident hope to the judicious application of reform in all those institutions of our country which have either by the lapse of time lost their original beneficial purpose, or become inapplicable to the present enlightened age; and in this cheering hope we are assured by your Majesty's first gracious and patriotic declaration to your Privy Council, and by your wise choice of advisers in the present liberal administration.

We, therefore, most earnestly pray that Providence may grant to your Majesty a long, prosperous, and happy life, crowned by the blessings of a free, brave, and generous nation.

Dated Guildhall, this 15th day of July 1837.
