TUESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1837.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 26th day of July 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased to declare the Right Honourable Constantine Henry Earl of Mulgrave, Lieutenant-General and General-Governor of that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of July 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Royal Predecessors were pleased, from time to time, by their respective Orders made in Council, to declare and signify their-pleasure, that their servants should have and enjoy all ancient liberties, rights, and privileges; and that none of their servants in ordinary with fee should be enforced or obliged to bear any public office, serve on juries or inquests, or be subjected to any mulct or fine for not submitting thereunto: Her Majesty, this day taking the same into consideration, and thinking it reasonable that all Her servants in ordinary with fee, should, in regard to their constant attendance upon Her Majesty's Person, enjoy the like privileges with those of Her Predecessors, doth therefore hereby order; with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, in relation to such of Her Majesty's servants who are under his Lordship's command above stairs; and the Lord Steward of Her Majesty's Household, or, in his absence, Her Majesty's Officers of the Green Cloth, as to such as are accounted Officers below stairs; and the Master of the Horse, for the servants belonging to the stables, do respectively signify unto the Lord Mayor of London, and to Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, within the city of Westminster, counties of Middlesex and Surrey, and the Mayors, Sheriffs, and Bailiffs, of any corporation, or county, and to all such as may be therein concerned, whensoever there shall be cause for asserting the said privilege, that Her Majesty has thought proper, conformably to the example of Her Predecessors in this behalf, to order and require, that Her servants should have, hold, and enjoy all the said liberties, rights, and privileges; and that henceforward none of Her servants in ordinary with fee, be enforced or any ways obliged to bear any public offices, serve on juries or inquests, watch or ward, in any place where they dwell, or elsewhere; nor subjected to any mulct or fine for not submitting thereunto: And the Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household for those servants above stairs, the Lord Steward of Her Majesty's Household, and; in his
