The loyal and dutiful Address of the parish of Kilmore, county Meath.

May it please your Majesty,

WHILE mourning the loss of the departed Father of his people, we feel the consoling Providence of our Almighty Sovereign in providing a Royal successor, whose birth, habits, and education give promise of a reign which, we trust, in securing the happiness and prosperity of the nation, the peace and welfare of the community, the dominion of truth and justice, religion and piety, bids fair to rival the glories of those illustrious Queens, Elizabeth and Anne.

May it please your Majesty to receive our humble and dutiful congratulations on your Majesty's accession, and our sincere and heartfelt prayers.

Signed, on behalf of the parishioners,
G. Tighe Gregory, LL.D., Rector and Vicar.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Great Yarmouth, in the county of Norfolk, in Council assembled, beg to approach your Majesty with unfeigned sentiments of loyalty and affection, and to offer you our most heartfelt congratulations on your accession to the Throne of these realms.

In thus addressing your Majesty, we cannot but express our sincere condolence on the great loss your Majesty and the nation have sustained, in the death of our late illustrious and lamented Sovereign King William the Fourth, under whose enlightened and beneficent Government the laws were ameliorated, the civil and religious rights of the people were extended, and commerce and the arts and sciences carried to an unexampled extent; and we fervently pray that the same principles which have led to such glorious results, principles in which, from your earliest youth, your Majesty has been nurtured and educated, may ever influence your Royal mind, and that, under the blessing of Almighty God, you may long be preserved in health and happiness to sway the sceptre of these dominions, to the contentment of a free, loyal, and united people.

Given under the seal of the Council, at the Tolhouse Hall, this 30th day of June 1837.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Parishioners of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the undersigned Inhabitants of the parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields (in which your Majesty's Royal Palaces, St. James's and Buckingham, are situate), beg leave to approach your Majesty, and to offer our most humble but sincere congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, with heartfelt prayer that your Majesty may long live to reign over a happy and loyal people, supporting the true principles of the British constitution, and maintaining with impartiality the laws, which, with such amelioration as the increased intelligence of the times shall require, may, under Divine Providence, promote the happiness, sustain the character, and secure the lasting welfare of all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

No. 18.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Bailie, Council, and others, Inhabitants of the burgh of Laurencekirke, in General Meeting assembled, beg leave humbly to approach the Throne, with the strongest feelings of loyalty and attachment to your Royal Person, and to offer our heartfelt condolence on the loss which your Majesty and the nation at large have sustained, by the demise of our late lamented Sovereign William the Fourth.

Your Majesty's subjects will long cherish a grateful remembrance of the many noble and amiable qualities which belonged to His late Majesty, as a Prince, and the many blessings which, under his reign, they, as a people, so abundantly enjoyed.

While we thus lament the cause, it becomes us, as we most heartily do, to congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of these realms, and to express our happiness that, under Divine Providence, the sceptre has been placed in the hands of a Princess, whose many early developed and excellent virtues render your Majesty so eminently qualified to rule over a free, a loyal, and a religious people.

That Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty to reign in peace, comfort, and in happiness, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, affectionate, and devoted subjects.

Signed, this 22d day of July 1837, within the Town Hall of Laurencekirke, in name, in presence, and by appointment of the Meeting,

Jas. Fettes, Bailie.
