

(An alphabetical and numbered List of the Addresses presented to Her Majesty, is printed at the end of the Addresses.)

Whitehall, August 11, 1837.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

No. 1.

To Her Majesty Queen VICTORIA.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, Council, and Members of the Caledonian Horticultural Society, incorporated by Royal Charter, beg leave to approach the Throne with every sentiment of loyalty and attachment to your Royal Person, humbly to offer our tribute of condolence on the great loss which has been sustained by the country and your Majesty, in the death of our lamented and revered Sovereign, your Majesty's beloved Uncle.

Devoted in our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Royal House, under whose mild, firm, and paternal Government the United Kingdoms have, for more than a century, enjoyed a course of unexampled happiness, prosperity, and glory, we have hailed the accession of your Majesty to the Imperial Crown of Great Britain and Ireland as an auspicious event, promising a long continuance of those blessings to us and others, your Majesty's loyal and faithful people.

Witnessing, as we have done, with admiration and gratitude, the maternal solicitude unremittingly displayed by Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent, in the education of your Majesty, and satisfied that, by the care of Her Royal Highness, no means have been omitted by which your Majesty should be fully prepared for the discharge of those high and important duties to which, under Divine Providence, your Majesty has been destined, we confidently trust that the reign which has now commenced will be no less signalized in the annals of Great Britain than those of your Majesty's Royal Ancestors, under whom this country attained to a height of grandeur unexampled in the history of other nations.

That your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a free, happy, and united people, is the sincere and earnest prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, Council, and Members of the Caledonian Horticultural Society.

Signed in name of the Society, at an Extraordinary Meeting held in the Council Room of the Horticultural Garden, at Edinburgh, on the 12th day of July 1837.

John Hope, Bart. Vice-President.

[Transmitted by the Duke of Buccleuch.]

No. 19531.

B

No. 2.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the town of Kincardine, in the county of Perth, assembled in Public Meeting, humbly approach the Throne, for the purpose of condoling with your Majesty upon the death of our much lamented Sovereign, William the Fourth, the friend of the rights and liberties of the people.

We also congratulate your Majesty upon your accession to the Throne of the United Kingdoms. Your Majesty may rely upon our attachment to your Royal Person, and the Constitution of the country; and we confidently trust, that your Majesty will pursue, in a cautious, steady, and successful manner, the great measures of reform commenced by your Royal predecessor, which, in our opinion, are necessary to secure the stability of the Throne, and the prosperity and happiness of your Majesty's loyal subjects.

We pray that Almighty God may bless your Majesty with a long and happy reign over a free and a loyal people.

Signed, in our name, and in our presence, by Andrew Anderson, Chairman.

[Transmitted by Charles Adam, Esq.]

No. 3.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculties, Principal, and Professors of the University of Glasgow, met in Senate, humbly beg leave to present to your Majesty the assurance of our dutiful allegiance and unfeigned attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

While we unite in those feelings of regret and expressions of condolence, which are drawn forth from the subjects of the British empire, by the death of our late revered Sovereign, of whose many virtues, as well as of the peace and security which our country enjoyed under his paternal Government, we entertain an affectionate remembrance, we feel grateful to the providence of Almighty God for your Majesty's auspicious accession, through the wise provisions of our unrivalled constitution, to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors.

Satisfied, as we are, that your Majesty has been trained up in the sacred truths of our Protestant faith, in attachment to the principles of constitutional liberty, in a solemn consciousness of your high and important duties, and in those mental accomplishments which can best adorn your exalted station; we look forward with undoubting confidence to the fulfilment of that high promise of talent and virtue which your Majesty has already given, and of these assurances of encouragement to piety, morality, and public order with which you have been graciously pleased to favour your people.

Deeply sensible of the importance of the objects, for the promotion of which our ancient institution was founded, and of the encouragement and protection which have been extended to us by former Sovereigns, we rely on the continuance of those advantages under a reign in which we trust that every