And in which Bill provision is also intended to be made for increasing or altering the tolls, rates, or duties at present collected upon the said roads.—Dated this 9th day of October 1837.

Natn. Atherton, Clerk to the Trustees of the said turnpike roads.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the several open fields, commonable lands, meadow and lammass lands, and all other the uninclosed lands and waste grounds within the parish of Witcham, in the isle of Ely and county of Cambridge.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act, for enlarging the term, and altering and amending the powers, of three several Acts of Parliament, one passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending, widening, and keeping in repair the road leading from Towcester to the turnpike road in Cotton End, in the parish of Hardingstone, in the county of Northampton;" another passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for repairing the road leading from Towcester to the turnpike road in Cotton End, in the parish of Hardingstone, in the county of Northampton;" another passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for enlarging the term and powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for repairing the road leading from Towcester to the turnpike road in Cotton End, in the parish of Hardingstone, in the county of Northampton;" and for continuing the present tolls taken upon the said road; and it is also intended to apply for power, on borrowing any further sum or sums of money, to give a priority and preference to the person or persons advancing the same, to the mortgage debts owing to the Most Noble his Grace the Duke of Grafton, the late Right Honourable George Earl of Pomfret, the late Right Honourable Earl Spencer, William Grant, Esq. Edward Bouverie, Esq. Humbo Rigby, Esq. for the parish of Blisworth, the late William Harris, Esq. the late Reverend Francis Montgomery, Clerk, and the late Reverend John Thomas Flesher, Clerk; which said road lies in or passes through the several parishes and places of Towcester, Easton Neston with Hulcott, Tiffield, Blisworth, Milton otherwise Middleton Malsor, Wootton, and Hardingstone, in the county of Northampton.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for the erection of a new church in the parish of Lee, in the county of Kent; and for providing a burying ground and vaults; and for taking down the present church, and transferring its rites, dues, emoluments, and offices to the new church, after its consecration.

In which Act powers will be contained for raising money for the purposes aforesaid, by the letting or sale of pews, and by the levying of rates, and by such other ways and means as may be thought expedient: also for the sale or disposal, in aid of the said fund, of a certain close, called Lamp-mead, situate in the same parish; and for other purposes.—Dated this 4th day of October 1837.

White and Borrett, Solicitors, Frederick's-place, Old Jewry.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, for dividing and enclosing the commons and waste lands, and grounds, within the manor of Great Warley, in the several parishes of Great Warley and Shenfield, in the county of Essex; and it is intended that the said Bill to be brought in, and Act to be obtained, shall contain all necessary powers for enabling the commissioners, to be appointed in and by the said Act, to raise moneys, for the purpose of defraying the expences of soliciting and obtaining the said Act, and carrying its provisions into effect, by sale of a competent part of the said commons and waste lands, and grounds, and by making and levying rates, or by either of those means, or by any other means that shall be deemed expedient.—Dated the 9th day of October 1837.

Bell, Brodrick, and Bell, Bow Church-yard, London.

Rocester Bridge.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application to Parliament is intended to be made in the next ensuing session, for an Act to erect and maintain a bridge over the River Dove, at or near to Rocester, in the parish of Rocester, in the county of Stafford, together with such roads, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith as may be necessary, within the before-mentioned parish of Rocester; and the parish of Marston Montgomery, in the county of Derby; and also to authorise the stopping up of the present ford, situate near the site of the said proposed bridge; and the levying of such tolls, rates, and duties for the use of the said intended bridge and approaches, as to Parliament shall seem meet.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections of the said intended bridge and approaches, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November in this present year, at the offices of the clerks of the peace for the counties of Stafford and Derby respectively; and also, on or before the 31st day of December in this present year, in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons; and so much of such plans, sections, and books of reference, as relate to each of the said parishes of Rocester; and Marston Montgomery, will be deposited, on or before the said 31st day of December, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively.—Dated, at Uxotexeter, this 11th day of October 1837.

William Arnold, Solicitor.
