London, October, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the several open fields, commons, and commonable lands, meadow, and lammas lands, certain lands called respectively Middlemoor Parts, Medlands, and the Common Wash, and all other the uninclosed land, and waste land, within the parish of Sutton, in the Isle of Ely, and county of Cambridge.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for dividing, allotting, and enclosing the open fields, commonable, or waste lands and grounds, called or known by the name of Ogle, otherwise Oggeley Hay, being extra parochial, and situate within the forest or chase of Cannock, in the county of Stafford; and that it is intended to apply for power in such Bill to make or levy rates or assessments for the purpose of defraying the costs, charges, and expences incident to and attending the obtaining and passing such Bill, and of carrying the same into execution.—Walsall, October 1, 1837.

Harvey and Cotterill, Solicitors for the Bill.

Bratton Down Inclosure.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, for dividing, allotting, and inclosing all that common, or tract of commonable land and pasture, called Bratton Down, otherwise Bratton Fleming Down, within the parish of Bratton Fleming, in the county of Devon.—Dated the 5th day of October 1837.*

Thomas Hooper-Law, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, for extending the term, and altering and enlarging the powers of an Act, passed in the 12th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for embanking, draining, and preserving certain fen lands and low grounds, in the parish of Ramsey, in the county of Huntingdon, and in the parishes of Doddington, March, Benwick, Wimblington, and Chatteris, within the isle of Ely, in the county of Cambridge; and for amending the road from a certain bridge, in the parish of Chatteris aforesaid, called Carter's Bridge, by a drain called Vermuyden's, or the Forty-feet Drain, to a bridge called the Forty-feet Bridge, in the said parish of Ramsey;" and also of two other Acts, the one passed in the 34th, and the other in the 56th year of the reign of His said late Majesty, for enlarging the term and powers of the said first-mentioned Act, so far as the same relate to amending the road from Carter's Bridge, in the parish of Chatteris, within the isle of Ely, in the county of Cambridge, to the Forty feet Bridge, in the parish of Ramsey, in the county of Huntingdon, or for repealing the said several Acts, so far as they relate to the said road, and for granting other powers and provisions in lieu thereof; and in which Bill an increase or alteration of the existing tolls authorised by the said Acts to be taken on the said road is intended to be proposed.—Dated this 3d day of October 1837.

John Serjeant, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the several open fields, commonable lands, meadow and lammas lands, and all other the uninclosed lands and waste grounds within the parish of Witcham, in the isle of Ely and county of Cambridge.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal an Act, passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing the road from Cherrill, through Calne, to Studley-bridge, and from Cherrill to the Three-mile Burrough at the top of Cherrill-hill, in the county of Wilts;" also an Act, passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing the term and enlarging the powers of an Act, made in the seventeenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, for repairing the road from Cherrill, through Calne, to Studley-bridge, and from Cherrill to the Three-mile Burrough at the top of Cherrill-hill, in the county of Wilts;" also another Act, passed in the thirty-second year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing the term, and altering and enlarging the powers, of an Act of the thirteenth year of His present Majesty, for repairing the road from Cherrill, through Calne, to Studley-bridge, and from Cherrill to the Three-mile Burrough at the top of Cherrill-hill, in the county of Wilts, and for more effectually amending the turnpike road from Chittoe-heath to the town of Calne;" and also another Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers of two Acts of His present Majesty, for repairing the road from Cherrill, through Calne, to Studley-bridge, and other roads therein mentioned, in the county of Wilts;" and for granting further and more effectual powers for maintaining, repairing, and otherwise improving the said roads: which said roads pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and places of Studley, the borough tithing of Calne,

Stock, Quemerford, Stockley, Whetham, Chittoe, Calne, Cherrill, Heddington, Bishops Cannings, and Bromham, in the county of Wilts.

And in which Bill provision is also intended to be made for increasing or altering the tolls, rates, or duties at present collected upon the said roads.—Dated this 9th day of October 1837.

Rocester Bridge.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application to Parliament is intended to be made in the next ensuing session, for an Act to erect and maintain a bridge over the River Dove, at or near to Rocester, in the parish of Rocester, in the county of Stafford, together with such roads, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith as may be necessary, within the before-mentioned parish of Rocester, and the parish of Marston Montgomery, in the county of Derby; and also to authorise the stopping up of the present ford, situate near the site of the said proposed bridge; and the levying of such tolls, rates, and duties for the use of the said intended bridge and approaches, as to Parliament shall seem meet.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections of the said intended bridge and approaches, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November in this present year, at the offices of the clerks of the peace for the counties of Stafford and Derby respectively; and also, on or before the 31st day of December in this present year, in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons; and so much of such plans, sections, and books of reference, as relate to each of the said parishes of Rocester and Marston Montgomery, will be deposited, on or before the said 31st day of December, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively.—Dated, at Uttoxeter, this 11th day of October 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act, for enlarging the term, and altering and amending the powers, of three several Acts of Parliament, one passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending, widening, and keeping in repair the road leading from Towcester to the turnpike road in Cotton End, in the parish of Hardingstone, in the county of Northampton;" another passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for repairing the road leading from Towcester to the turnpike road in Cotton End, in the parish of Hardingstone, in the county of Northampton;" another passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for enlarging the term and powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for repairing the road leading from Towcester to the turnpike road in Cotton End, in the parish of Hardingstone, in the county of Northampton; and for continuing the present tolls taken upon the said road; and it is also intended to apply for power, on borrowing any further sum or sums of money, to give a priority and preference to the person or persons advancing the same, to the mortgage debts owing to the Most Noble his Grace the Duke of Grafton, the late Right Honourable George Earl of Pomfret, the late Right Honourable Earl Spencer, William Grant, Esq. Edward Bouverie, Esq. Humbo Rigby, Esq. for the parish of Blisworth, the late William Harris, Esq. the late Reverend Francis Montgomery, Clerk, and the late Reverend John Thomas Flesher, Clerk; which said road lies in or passes through the several parishes and places of Towcester, Easton Neston with Hulcott, Tiffeld, Blisworth, Milton otherwise Middleton Malsor, Wootton, and Hardingstone, in the county of Northampton.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, for dividing and enclosing the commons and waste lands, and grounds, within the manor of Great Warley, in the several parishes of Great Warley and Shenfield, in the county of Essex; and it is intended that the said Bill to be brought in, and Act to be obtained, shall contain all necessary powers for enabling the commissioners, to be appointed in and by the said Act, to raise moneys, for the purpose of defraying the expences of soliciting and obtaining the said Act, and carrying its provisions into effect, by sale of a competent part of the said commons and waste lands, and grounds, and by making and levying rates, or by either of those means, or by any other means that shall be deemed expedient.—Dated the 9th day of October 1837.
