

and Maltster, an insolvent debtor, whose petition is numbered 43,505, hath caused an account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the creditors of the said insolvent are requested to meet the assignee at the office of Mr. John Norris, Solicitor, No. 3, Marsden-street, in Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, on the 4th day of January next, at ten in the forenoon precisely, when and where the assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the said insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said insolvent, the said assignee, or any creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of William Holliday, late of Farnsfield, in the county of Nottingham, Miller, Flour-Dealer, and Retail Beer Seller, an insolvent debtor, will be held at the office of Messrs. Parsons and Benn, Solicitors, New-road, Mansfield, on the 18th day of December 1837, at the hour of eleven in the forenoon, in order to assent to or dissent from the assignee of the said insolvent selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, and at such price or prices, and either for ready money or upon credit, or upon such other terms, and with or without, and upon such security as they may think proper, of all or any part of the real and personal estate and effects of the said insolvent; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding with all or any debtor or debtors to the said insolvent's estate, and to his allowing time for payment as the said assignee shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from his selling the debts due to the said insolvent's estate, or any part thereof, either by public auction or private sale, or to his employing a person to collect and get in the debts due to the said insolvent's estate; and to his paying such person such compensation for his trouble, as to the said assignee shall seem reasonable and proper; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits at law or in equity, or any other proceedings, for the protection, recovery, or defence of the said insolvent's estate; and to his receiving a part of any debt in discharge of the whole, or taking security for payment thereof, and submitting to arbitration, compounding, or compromising, or settling any suits, actions, accounts, debts, demands, differences, or disputes relative to the estate and effects of the said insolvent, or any part thereof; and also to empower the said assignee to act for the general benefit of the creditors as he may think fit; and on other special affairs.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of Joseph West, late of Leeming-street, Mansfield, in the county of Nottingham, Tailor, Woollen-Draper, and Dealer in Hats, an insolvent debtor, will be held at the office of Messrs. Parsons and Benn, Solicitors, New-road, Mansfield, on the 18th day of December 1837, at the hour of eleven in the forenoon, in order to assent to or dissent from the assignees of the said insolvent selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, and at such price or prices, and either for ready money or upon credit, or upon such other terms, and with or without, and upon such security as they may think proper, of all or any part of the real and personal estate and effects of the said insolvent; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with all or any debtor or debtors to the said insolvent's estate, and to their allowing time for payment, as the said assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from their selling the debts due to the said insolvent's estate, or any part thereof, either by public auction or private sale, or to their employing a person to collect and get in the debts due to the said insolvent's estate, and to their paying such person such compensation for his trouble, as to the said assignees shall seem reasonable and proper; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits at law or in equity, or any other proceedings, for the protection, recovery, or defence of the said insolvent's estate; and to their receiving a part of any debt in discharge of the whole, or taking security for payment thereof; and submitting to arbitration, compounding, or compromising, or settling any suits, actions, accounts, debts, demands, differences or disputes relative to the estate and effects of the said insolvent, or any part thereof; and also to empower the said assignees to act for the general benefit of the creditors as they may think fit; and on other special affairs.
