TUESDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1837.

Buckingham-Palace, December 23, 1837.

THIS day Her Majesty proceeded in state from Buckingham-Palace to the House of Peers, where she arrived about one o'clock; and was received, on alighting from her state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord Privy Seal, the Lord Great Chamberlain, the Earl Marshal, the Lord Steward of the Household, the Lord Viscount Melbourne, Clarenceux King at Arms, in the absence of Garter, and the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the robing-room in the customary manner.

Her Majesty was there robed, and the procession moved into the House in the usual order;—the imperial crown was borne by the Duke of Somerset, K. G. the sword of state by the Lord Viscount Melbourne, and the cap of maintenance by the Earl of Shaftesbury, in the absence of the Marquess of Winchester.

Her Majesty being seated on the Throne, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, Sir Augustus Clifford, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to the following Bills:

An Act for the support of Her Majesty's Household, and of the honour and dignity of the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

An Act to carry into further execution the provisions of an Act for completing the full payment of compensation to owners of slaves, upon the abolition of slavery.

An Act for the relief of Quakers, Moravians, and Separatists elected to municipal offices.

An Act to remove doubts as to summoning juries at adjourned quarter sessions of the peace.

An Act to enable the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, to purchase ground and tenements required to complete the site for the new Houses of Parliament.

An Act to regulate the expences of conveying prisoners in Ireland.

And five private Acts.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of December 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend an Act for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that if the inhabitant householders of any town or borough in England or Wales shall petition His Majesty to grant to them a charter of incorporation, it shall be lawful for His Majesty by any such charter, if he shall think fit, by the advice of His Privy Council, to grant the same, to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough within the district to be set forth in such charter, all the powers and provisions of the Act of the fifth and sixth of William the Fourth, cap. 76, for regulating corporations, whether such town or borough be or be not a corporate town or borough, or be or be not named in either of the schedules to the said Act; provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by His Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, one month at least before such petition shall be so considered:

And whereas the inhabitant householders of the borough of Birmingham have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, praying a charter of incorporation for the said borough:

Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said petition be taken into consideration, by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on Wednesday the thirty-first day of January next, at twelve of the clock at noon.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of December 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in-Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding parts or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace assembled at the general quarter sessions of the peace, holden at Derby, in and for the county of Derby, on the eighteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the northern division of the said county are insufficient, and therefore praying, that the town of Eckington may be a polling place for the said division:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the town of Eckington shall be a polling place for the said division; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said west division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

CONTRACT FOR ELM TIMBER.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, December 14, 1837.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 18th January next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying 1397 Loads of English Elm Timber, and 27 Elm Trees for Pumps.

Felled between the middle of November last and the end of February next, and to be delivered, at prices (including all carriage and other expenses), by the 31st December 1838, in the following proportions, at Her Majesty's Dock-yards hereunder mentioned:

Woolwich	-	32 Loads.
Chatham	-	250 Loads.
Sheerness	-	155 Loads.
Portsmouth	-	500 Loads.
Plymouth	-	220 Loads.
Pembroke	-	240 Loads.

Tenders may be made for the supply of any one or more of the Yards, or for the whole of them.

A form of the tender may be obtained at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Elm Timber," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1 per load, for the due performance of the contract.

STEAM VESSELS FOR PERFORMING THE MAIL SERVICE BETWEEN LIVERPOOL AND KINGSTOWN, WANTED.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, December 16, 1837.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 1st of February next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to receive tenders, under conditions which may be seen at the above Office, or upon application to Commander Chappell, of the Royal Navy, Agent for Her Majesty's Packets at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Glasgow or Bristol, or to Lieutenant Wentworth, R. N., at Leith,

For the Conveyance of Mails between Liverpool and Kingstown, in Steam Vessels of not less than 240 horse power each.

All tenders are to be made upon the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be had upon application as above, and they are to be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, with the words "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails," and "Comptroller of Victualling," in the left hand corner of the envelope.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and, if by an agent, be accompanied by the written authority of the parties tendering; and it must also express when the vessels will be ready for survey, and when they will be ready to commence the performance of the service required, and also state the address of the party tendering.
