

the clock in the forenoon, at the Company's Arms Inn, in Chalford aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, and adjusting a certain debt due to the said bankrupts from the administratrix of William Ireland, late of Aldermanbury, London, deceased; or to assent to or dissent from the said assignees submitting all matters in difference between the said bankrupts and the administratrix of the said William Ireland to arbitration; or to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting a suit in equity, or otherwise reviving and carrying on a suit already commenced by the said bankrupts against the said administratrix of the said William Ireland, or otherwise obtain payment of the moneys claimed to be due by the said bankrupts from the said administratrix of the said William Ireland; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees disposing of the real estate of the said bankrupts, or either of them, or any parts thereof respectively; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of the bankrupts' estate or effects; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees taking or receiving any part of any debt or debts due from the said bankrupts' estate in discharge of the whole, or giving time for or taking security for payment of the same, or any part thereof; and for submitting to arbitration, compounding, compromising or settling any accounts, debts, demands, differences, or disputes relating to the estate of the said bankrupts, or either of them, or any part thereof respectively; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees disbursing, out of the said bankrupts' estate, all reasonable costs, charges, and expences which they have or may incur and be put unto, or which the said bankrupts have incurred or been put unto, in investigating and arranging the books of the said bankrupts, and the accounts between the said bankrupts and the said William Ireland, deceased; and generally to authorise the said assignees to adopt such measures for the management of the said bankrupts' estate as shall then be proposed; and on other special matters and affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Walsh, of the city of Bath, in the county of Somerset, Linen-Draper, Dealer and Chapman (trading under the firm of Walsh and Company, otherwise Thomas Walsh and Company), are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Saturday the 23d day of June instant, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the York House Hotel, in the city of Bath, in the county of Somerset, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, either alone or in concurrence with the assignees of the estate and effects of Hugh Mossy, of the said city of Bath, a bankrupt, a trustee named and appointed with the said Thomas Walsh in certain indentures of lease and release, bearing date respectively the 17th and 18th days of August 1835, or any other persons whatsoever, making an application to the High Court of Chancery for the purpose of substituting new trustees, in the place of the said Thomas Walsh and Hugh Massy, and to authorise all necessary proceedings in relation to the said appointment of new trustees, with the view to their wholly or in part executing such of the trusts of the said indentures of the 17th and 18th days of August 1835, as the said assignees may deem beneficial to the estate and effects of the said Thomas Walsh; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees consenting to any offer received by or on the behalf of the said assignees, for the purchase of any part of the trust premises comprised in and conveyed by the said indentures of 17th and 18th days of August 1835; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compromising or otherwise adjusting a suit in the High Court of Chancery commenced against them by certain persons, to be named at the said meeting; and to submitting the matters in dispute between the parties, or any them, if necessary, to the determination of arbitrators to be chosen by such assignees; and likewise to ratify or annul a certain agreement provisionally made between the said assignees and one of the creditors of the said bankrupt, to be also named at the said meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Francis Fitzgerald Powell Bryant and Henry James Peake, of Cefencribburr, in the parishes of Tythegston and Llaleston, in the county of Glamorgan, Iron-Masters, Brick-Makers, Dealers and Chapman (trading under the name of the Pyle Iron Company), are requested to meet the assignees of their estate and effects, on the 23d day of June instant, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees ratifying and confirming a certain agreement, bearing date the 8th day of September last, and made between the said bankrupt, William Francis Fitzgerald Powell Bryant of the one part, and one William Andrews of the other part, whereby the said bankrupt agreed to sell to the said William Andrews; one third part or share of and in certain copyhold estates of inheritance, in the county of Glamorgan, held under the manor of Newcastle; and also to take into consideration a claim likely to be set up by the said William Andrews, to certain property upon the premises of the said bankrupts, at Cefencribburr aforesaid; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees allowing the said claim, and, in the event of it being determined to resist the same, then to authorise and empower the said assignees so to do in any way they may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees recognising a certain claim of one Thomas Williams, as the equitable mortgagee of the said copyhold property, lately belonging to the said William Francis Fitzgerald Powell Bryant, for the purpose of securing unto the said Thomas Williams payment of the sum of five thousand pounds and interest; and, in the event of it being determined to resist the said claim of the said Thomas Williams as such equitable mortgagee, then to authorise and empower the said assignees to defend any suit in equity, or other proceeding, that may be instituted for establishing such equitable mortgage; and also to take into consideration the rights of the lessors of the premises lately occupied by the said bankrupts; to certain rails, trams, blast-furnaces, and other property on the said premises; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees abandoning any claim thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees converting the whole or any part of the clay used for making bricks, and now on the premises lately occupied by the said bankrupts, into bricks, and selling the same when so converted, for the use and benefit of the said bankrupts' estate; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Marsh, Josias Henry Stracey, George Edward Graham, and Henry Fauntleroy, late of Berners-street, Bankers and Partners, are desired to meet the assignees of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on Friday the 22d day of June instant, at one of the clock in the afternoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees entering into an arrangement for compounding a certain debt due from a person, whose name will be mentioned at the said meeting, to the estate of the said bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting a suit in equity against a person or persons, whose names will be submitted to the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the assignees compromising or otherwise arranging the claim made against them on behalf of the son of Henry Fauntleroy, one of the said bankrupts, deceased, or to pay or allow to him such sum in respect thereof, out of the joint estate of the said bankrupts, or out of the separate estate of the said Henry Fauntleroy, as they shall think proper; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration