

may appear in evening dress, without feathers; and Gentlemen may appear either in Court dress, uniform, or evening dress; but no person present at the solemnity is to appear in mourning.

No person will be permitted to pass into Westminster Abbey on the day of the Coronation, except on production of a ticket issued by me and under my seal; or to walk in the procession, unless his name or office be mentioned in the Ceremonial.

The Gentlemen at Arms, who will guard Her Majesty, are to remain at the foot of the steps ascending to the theatre, and are especially ordered not to advance any farther. The Officers of the Yeomen of the Guard and the Exons are to stand within and near to the choir door, and the Yeomen of the Guard in the nave on the outside of the entrance to the choir.

The instructions framed by Her Majesty's Secretary of State for securing the commodious access and return of carriages to and from the Abbey must, to prevent confusion, be followed in every particular.

NORFOLK, Earl Marshal.

Whitehall, June 20, 1838.

IN pursuance of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, the following instructions have been framed for securing the commodious access and return of carriages conveying persons to and from Westminster Abbey, on the occasion of Her Majesty's Coronation.

In conformity with these instructions the necessary directions have been given to all Her Majesty's officers and servants concerned, and the commissioners of police, for carrying them into execution.

The entrances of Westminster Abbey will be opened at five o'clock in the morning.

At the same hour all the gates of Hyde-park will be opened for carriages.

The gates of St. James's-park (except Storey's-gate) will be closed against all carriages but those belonging to Her Majesty and the Royal Family, until after the return of Her Majesty to the Palace.

Her Majesty will proceed in state from the New Palace up Constitution-hill, through Piccadilly, down St. James's-street, along Pall-mall, Cockspur-street, Charing-cross, Whitehall, Parliament-street, the Broad Sanctuary, to the west entrance of Westminster Abbey, and will return by the same line.

The procession will leave the New Palace at ten o'clock precisely.

This route will be kept exclusively for the free passage of Her Majesty and the Royal procession, from the hour of half past nine in the morning till after Her Majesty's return to the Palace.

The carriages of Ambassadors and Foreign Ministers, proceeding to join the Royal procession at the New Palace, will be permitted to pass all the barriers; they will enter St. James's-park, through the Horse Guards, and proceed along the centre mall, facing the Triumphal Arch in front of the Palace, and will there receive instructions from persons especially appointed for the purpose.

J. RUSSELL,

ROUTE, No. 1.

To the West Entrance of Westminster Abbey.

The carriages of persons who have tickets for the west entrance will proceed by Grosvenor-place, keeping along the western side (taking care to avoid all interference with the Royal carriages), along Grosvenor-place, Arabella-row, Ward's-row, down James-street, York-street, Broadway, Tothill-street, and set down at the west entrance of the Abbey, with the horses' heads towards the Westminster-Hospital, then draw off through Princes-street and Storey's-gate into the Bird-cage walk, and remain there. They will take up with their horses' heads towards Dean's-yard, and return by the same route by which they came.

Persons with tickets for the orchestra, to be admitted at the Cloister entrance from Dean's-yard, will proceed by this route, set down at the entrance into Dean's-yard, then draw off and wait, with the other carriages coming by that route, in St. James's-park.

Persons with tickets for the galleries in the south aisle of the nave, to be admitted at the south nave entrance in the Cloisters by Dean's-yard, will also proceed by this route, and set down at the entrance into Dean's-yard, then draw off and wait, with the other carriages coming by that route, in St. James's-park.

Persons going by this route (with the exception of Peers and Peereses) cannot be admitted into the Abbey after nine o'clock in the morning, and the
