

quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling-districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace acting in and for the parts of Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln, assembled at a general quarter sessions of the peace held at Louth, in and for the said parts, on the tenth of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the said parts is insufficient, and therefore praying, that the town of Alford in the said parts of Lindsey, may be a polling place for the said parts :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His said late Majesty's reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the town of Alford shall be a polling place for the said parts ; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said parts into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

CORONATION OF HER MAJESTY.

EARL MARSHAL'S ORDERS.

ALL persons having tickets of admission to the choir of Westminster Abbey on the day of the Coronation, not being Peers, are to appear in the full Court dress, uniform, or regimentals, usually worn at Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms. The Knights of the respective Orders are to wear their Collars.

The Ladies, who have Peers' tickets for admission into the transepts of Westminster Abbey on the day of the Coronation, will appear in Court dresses, without feathers, lappets, or trains; the Gentlemen in uniform or full dress.

• Those Ladies holding tickets for the galleries over the choir, or other seats not within the choir, may appear in dress, without evening feathers; and Gentlemen may appear either in Court dress, uniform, or evening dress; but no person present at the solemnity is to appear in mourning.

No person will be permitted to pass into Westminster Abbey on the day of the Coronation, except on production of a ticket issued by me and under my seal; or to walk in the procession, unless his name or office be mentioned in the Ceremonial.

The Gentlemen at Arms, who will guard Her Majesty, are to remain at the foot of the steps ascending to the theatre, and are especially ordered not to advance any farther. The Officers of the Yeomen of the Guard and the Exons are to stand within and near to the choir door, and the Yeomen of the Guard in the nave on the outside of the entrance to the choir.

The instructions framed by Her Majesty's Secretary of State for securing the commodious access and return of carriages to and from the Abbey must, to prevent confusion, be followed in every particular.

NORFOLK, Earl Marshal.

Whitehall, June 20, 1833.

IN pursuance of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, the following instructions have been framed for securing the commodious access and return of carriages conveying persons to and from Westminster Abbey, on the occasion of Her Majesty's Coronation.

In conformity with these instructions the necessary directions have been given to all Her Majesty's officers and servants concerned, and the commissioners of police, for carrying them into execution.

The entrances of Westminster Abbey will be opened at five o'clock in the morning.

At the same hour all the gates of Hyde-park will be opened for carriages.

The gates of St. James's-park (except Storey's-gate) will be closed against all carriages but those belonging to Her Majesty and the Royal Family, until after the return of Her Majesty to the Palace.
