NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Independent Chapel, situated at Sutton St. Mary, in the parish of Long Sutton, in the county of Lincoln, in the district of Holbeach Union, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 27th day of June 1838, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 28th day of June 1838,

E. Key, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application hath been made to Her Majesty in Council, by petition, on the behalf of the Anderton Carrying Company, carrying on business as carriers of goods by water in the several counties of Lancaster, Chester and Stafford, and places adjacent thereto (the principal places of business of the said company being at Anderton, in the county of Chester, and Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster), that Her Majesty will be pleased to grant letters patent, or a charter of incorporation to the said company, in pursuance of the provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for better enabling Her Majesty to confer certain powers and immunities on trading and other companies."

Maddougall and Upton, No. 44, Parliament-street.

WHEREAS Her present Most Excellent Majesty, Queen Victoria, did grant unto Edward Davy, of Fordon, near Crediton, in the county of Devon, Merchant, Her Royal letters patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date at Westminster the 13th day of January now last past, for his invention of "certain improvements in saddles and harness for horses, and in seats for carriages;"

notice is hereby given, that the said Edward Davy has applied (under the Act of fifth and sixth William Fourth, cap. 83, sec. 1), to Her Majesty's Solicitor General for leave to enter with the clerk of the patents of England, a disclaimer and memorandum of alteration of part of the title of the above-mentioned patent, as far as regards the application of his said invention to seats for carriages; and the said Edward Davy therefore intends to disclaim and leave out the following words in the title and specification of his patent, viz., "and in seats for carriages," in order that the title of his said patent, when so altered and amended, may read as follows, "certain improvements in saddles and harness for horses." As witness our hands this 4th day of July 1838.

Newton and Berry, Office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane, London, Agents for the said Edward Davy.

NOTICE is hereby given, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for better enabling Her Majesty to confer certain powers and immunities on trading and other companies," that an application has been made to Her Majesty, and now stands referred to the Board of Trade, on behalf of the Joint Stock Company, called the Insurance Company of Scotland, to grant to the said Company a charter of incorporation, by the name and style of "The Insurance Company of Scotland," whereby it is proposed to confer on the said Company a perpetual endurance and succession, power to sue and be sued in the name of the Company, to hold heritable property, to use a common seal, and such other powers and privileges as are usually granted to other bodies corporate and politic of a similar nature; but without limiting the legal responsibility of the individual partners of the said Company.
