

ondon

Bublished by Authority.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11,

Whitehall, September 11, 1838.

HE following Addresses were brought over by R. C. M'Donald, Esq. of Castle Tioram, Prince Edward Island, North America, and were very graciously received by Her Majesty on presentation by Lord John Russell:

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, QUEEN.

Most Gracious Queen,

WE, the undersigned Inhabitants of the county of Sydney, in the province of Nova Scotia, most humbly beg leave to offer your Majesty our un-feigned and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's Coronation; and, in thus approaching your Majesty, we feel that we are actuated, not only by a sense of duty and personal affection for your Majesty, but also by a grateful recollection of the benefits conferred by your Majesty's late illustrious Father on the people of this province.

We sincerely regret the attempts lately made in Canada to excite a revolution; and it shall ever be our desire, our earnest determination, to preserve that Constitution which has raised the British empire to the highest pinnacle of glory, and best secured the happiness of your Majesty's subjects. And we sincerely and fervently pray, that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the hearts, as well as over the destinies, of your faithful people.

Antigonish, County Sydney, June 28, 1838.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To Her Most Gracious Majesty VICTORIA, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, QUEEN.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

North America, most humbly approach your Majesty to offer our unfeigned and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's Coronation.

We hail the auspicious event which gives to Great Britain and her colonies a home-born Queen; upon that Throne may God long preserve your Majesty to reign over us.

Though we may never be blessed with beholding your Majesty, we will, nevertheless, give proof of our love by our allegiance, and by laying down our lives, if necessary, in your Majesty's defence.

We will continue to regret, with disdain and the severest disapprobation, the bad example and highly unconstitutional and disloyal proceedings of a part of your Majesty's subjects in the Canadas.

We will cling to that Constitution and those laws and institutions handed down to us under your Majesty's illustrious Ancestors.

We anxiously and ardently pray, that your Majesty may long and happily continue to reign over your faithful subjects.

Cape Briton, June 28, 1838.

[Here follow the signatures.]

Foreign-Office, September 8, 1838.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to approve of Mr. James Christian Clement Bell, as Consul General in London for the Grand Duke of Tuscany.

[This article is substituted for the one which appeared in last Friday's Gazette.]

Whitehall, September 6, 1838.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto WE, the undersigned Inhabitants of Cape Briton, I Isaac Preston, of Stanfield hall, in the county of