THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Anthony Birch, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Grocer and Tea-Dealer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Monday the 8th day of October next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the office of Messrs. Tyndall and Rawlins, Solicitors, in Birmingham aforesaid, in order to adopt, ratify, and confirm a certain agreement or instrument, in writing, to be then and there produced, and made between the said assignees of the one part, and a person therein, and to be named at such meeting, of the other part, being an agreement for adjusting and settling the claims of such third person upon the said bankrupt's for effecting a composition with the creditors of the said bankrupt, and for the general management and final winding up of the said bankrupt's affairs, under the direction of the said assignees, in manner therein mentioned, and also to invest the said assignees with full power to conduct and complete such arrangement in such manner as to them shall seem most advisable for the benefit of the said creditors; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and allowing, from and out of the said bankrupt's estate, the costs, charges, and expences incurred by the creditors of the said bankrupt, or on their behalf, in and about the investigation, management, and arrangement of the said bankrupt's affairs, prior to the opening of the said fiat, and also in, about, concerning, and attending the choice of assignees; and also to sanction and confirm the carrying on the trade and business of the said bankrupt by certain of his creditors, for the general benefit of the said bankrupt's estate, previous to the opening of the said fiat, and subsequently by the provisional assignee of his estate and effects, and by the said assignees from the time of their appointment up to the time of such meeting, and to confirm, allow, and adopt all sales, purchases, receipts, payments, and other dealings and transactions made and effected by the said creditors, provisional assignee, and the said assignees, in and about the business, estate, and effects of the said bankrupt; and also to sanction the said assignees putting up for sale, by public auction, on the 4th day of October next, as already advertised, the good will of the trade, fixtures, and the lease or beneficial interest of the said bankrupt of and in the house and premises in his occupation, in High-street, in Birmingham aforesaid, and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the same, and also the stock in trade, household goods, furniture, and all other the goods, chattels, estate, and effects of the said bankrupt, or of any part or parts thereof, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and together or in such lots, at such times and places, and either at a valuation or otherwise, and in such manner as the said assignees shall think fit, or to any person or persons whomsoever willing to purchase the same, and for such price or prices, and upon such terms, and subject to such conditions, as the said assignees may deem most advantageous, and either for ready money or upon credit, and, if the latter, with such security for payment as the said assignees may think proper, without their being answerable for any loss or damage which may be sustained thereby, and also to sell and dispose of all or any part of the real and personal estate or estates of the said bankrupt, or in which he hath an interest, or of any of them, either with or without the concurrence of the mortgagee or mortgagees thereof, or in such lots, and by public auction or private contract, and for such price or prices in money, and at such times and places, as the said assignees may think proper, and, from time to time, at any auction, to buy in and afterwards to resell the same, or any part or parts thereof, without being answerable for any loss or expence to arise or be occasioned thereby, and also to pay to the mortgagee or mortgagees of the real and personal estate of the said bankrupt, or of any part thereof, the debts or claims due to such mortgagee or mortgagees, or any part thereof, or to concur with him, her, or them, in effecting any sale or sales, or to contest and dispute the validity and extent of any mortgage, lien, or other incumbrance on or affecting the real or personal estate of the said bankrupt; or of any part or parts thereof, or to make any terms of arrangement or compromise with respect to any such mortgage, lien, or incumbrance, as the said assignees may think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees carrying on the trade or business of the said bankrupt until sale thereof, at the risk and expence of the said bankrupt's estate, and, for that purpose, to employ the said bankrupt, or any other person or persons they may think proper therein, and to pay him and them such salary or remuneration as the said assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying the accountant employed on behalf of the creditors of the said bankrupt to investigate his affairs, books, and accounts, prior to the choice of assignees, such remuneration as the said assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing to employ the said accountant, or employing any other accountant, collector, or other person or persons, to investigate, settle, and adjust the accounts of the said bankrupt, and to collect the outstanding debts due to his
