

then of Darlington-place, Creek-road, Deptford, in the county of Kent, afterwards of No. 113, Bishopsgate-street, in the city of London, and then of No. 33, New Bond-street, in the county of Middlesex, an insolvent debtor, who was lately discharged from the Marshalsea Prison, in the county of Surrey, under and by virtue of the several Acts of Parliament, made and passed in the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, or either of them, for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, will, on Tuesday the 13th day of November next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon of the same day precisely, attend at the house of Mr. William Whitelock, one of the assignees, situate at No. 46, Northampton street, Clerkenwell; in the said county of Middlesex, in order to make a Dividend out of the money belonging to the estate of the insolvent amongst the creditors of the said insolvent, whose debts are expressed in the schedule delivered by the insolvent and admitted; when and where the said creditors of the said insolvent, are to come prepared to prove their respective debts: and if the said insolvent, or any of his creditors, intend to object to any debt stated to be admitted in the said schedule, such objections are at the same time and place to be made.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of John Davis, formerly of Haverfordwest, in the county of Pembroke, afterwards of St. Paul's Church yard, in the city of London, afterwards of Haverfordwest aforesaid, since of the village of Conwill, in the county of Carmarthen, and since of Pictou terrace, in the county of the borough of Carmarthen, Gent. who was lately discharged from Her Majesty's Gaol of the said county of the borough of Carmarthen, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," will be held on Friday the 26th day of October instant, at twelve at noon precisely, at the White Lion Hotel, in the said county of the borough of Car-marthen, to consider the propriety of selling, by public auction, the real estate of the said insolvent, or of borrowing, on mortgage of the said real estate, a sufficient sum of money to pay off and discharge the present mortgage or mortgages, annuities, and other specialty debts and incumbrances (if any) affecting the same, as also the simple contract debts of the said insolvent; and, if it shall be determined at such meeting to proceed to a sale by auction of the said real estate, then to approve and direct in what manner, and at what place or places, the same shall be so sold; also to consider the propriety of selling by auction the timber now standing and growing upon the said real estate of the said insolvent; also to approve and direct of the steps to be taken in order to affect a sale or sales of the reversionary or contingent, or other uncertain interests of the said insolvent, under the will of his late father, Henry Davis, of Mullock, in the county of Pembroke, Esq. deceased; or, in case it shall be judged expedient, forthwith to proceed to a sale of all or any of the said reversionary, contingent, or uncertain interests of the said insolvent, then to approve and direct of the other steps to be taken in order to render such interests available for the payment of the debts of the said insolvent; and further to consider and determine the propriety of an application being made to the Court of Chancery in order to procure the judgment of that court as to the nature and extent of the interest of the said insolvent in a proportional part of the residue of the personal estate of his said late father, and in the accumulations of such residue under the clauses of his said late father's will, in order that such last mentioned interest or interests, when so settled and determined, may be likewise sold by public auction, or otherwise rendered available for the payment of the debts of the said insolvent; and lastly to approve and direct whether any and what proceedings should or should not be taken in order to try the validity of the settlement executed by the said insolvent in favour of his wife; and for such other purposes as may be necessary to realise sufficient funds to pay off the debts of the said insolvent; and for other general purposes.
