

shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapel shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, by any grant or bounty under the provisions of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, stating that when the last census was taken, the parish of Chigwell, in the county of Essex, and diocese of London, contained a population of 1,815 persons:

That, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to 500 persons, there is one chapel recently erected, in the said parish, called Saint John's Chapel, which affords accommodation to 400 persons, including 200 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; that the said chapel has been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein.

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to Her Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said chapel, called St. John's chapel, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named the district of St. John, Buckhurst-hill, with boundaries as follows:

The district to comprise the whole of that part of the parish of Chigwell lying to the north of the River Roding, and bounded on or towards the west by the parish of Woodford, on or towards the north by the parish of Chingford, on or towards the east by the parish of Loughton, and on or towards the south by the River Roding, which river divides it from the remaining part of the parish of Chigwell, as the same is more particularly delineated in the plan annexed to the said representation, and therein coloured pink.

That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel, and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the minister of the said chapel.

That the consent of the Lord Bishop of London has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, in testimony of which, the said Lord Bishop has signed, and sealed the said representation, and humbly praying, that Her Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Her royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to Her Majesty shall seem meet.

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
