

said Fiat, pursuant to an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to bankrupts;" and the said Commissioners also intend to meet on the same day, at twelve o'clock at noon, and at the same place, in order to make a Final Dividend of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; when and where the creditors, who have not already proved their debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Dividend. And all claims not then proved will be disallowed.

In the Matter of Joseph Cowgill, Henry Sandiford, and John Barlow, bankrupts, against whom a Commission of Bankrupt under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date the 26th day of February 1810, was awarded and issued, and which was renewed by virtue of a Fiat in Bankruptcy against the same parties, bearing date the 31st day of December 1836.

WHEREAS by an order of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, made on the 3d day of November now last past, after reciting, amongst other things, that Richard Jackson had preferred his petition to the said Court, praying that he might be at liberty to divide the balance of certain moneys therein mentioned among such of the separate creditors of the said Joseph Cowgill (if any), as should come in and prove their debts on oath before the Commissioners named in the said Fiat, and to pay over the balance thereof (if any), after paying in full the debts of such separate creditors to the joint estate of the said bankrupts, and that the petitioner might be at liberty to divide the funds belonging to the joint estate therein mentioned among such of the creditors of the joint concern as should come in and prove their debts, on oath, before the said Commissioners, the Court did order that it should be referred to the Commissioners named in the said Fiat to have been awarded and issued against the above named bankrupts, to look into the several matters set forth in the said petition, and as to the amount of debts proved and claimed under the Commission mentioned in the said petition, and by whom respectively; and the said Commissioners were to be at liberty to receive such secondary evidence as to them should seem fit and proper in proof thereof, and to direct such advertisement or advertisements to be inserted in the London Gazette, and in such other public papers as they should think fit, as well for establishing or otherwise with respect to such debts as had been already proved and claimed under the said Commission as those debts (if any), which should remain to be proved or claimed thereunder, and they were to fix a peremptory day for that purpose; and, for the better making the said inquiries, all necessary and proper parties were severally to be examined before the said Commissioners, upon interrogatories, or otherwise, touching the matters in question, as the said Commissioners should think fit, and were severally to produce before them, upon oath, all books, papers, and writings in their, or either of their, custody or power relating thereto, as the Commissioners should direct; and it was further ordered, that the said Commissioners should be then at liberty, if they should think fit so to do, to proceed to a dividend, as well of the separate estate of the said bankrupt Joseph Cowgill, as of the joint estate of the said bankrupts, among such of the creditors upon the said separate and joint estates, who should come and prove their respective debts before the said Commissioners, first paying the said petitioner his costs and charges as therein mentioned. The Commissioners in the said fiat, or renewed commission of bankrupt, do hereby give notice, that they intend to meet on Thursday the 17th day of January, at eleven o'clock precisely in the forenoon, at the Commissioners' rooms, in St. James's-square, in Manchester, in order to receive proof of debts against the joint estate of the said Joseph Cowgill, Henry Sandiford, and John Barlow, and also against the separate estate of the said Joseph Cowgill, one of the said bankrupts, preparatory to the declaration of a final dividend of the separate estate and effects of the said Joseph Cowgill, and also of the joint estate and effects of the said Joseph Cowgill, Henry Sandiford, and John Barlow, under the said fiat, or renewed commission; at which meeting all the creditors of the said Joseph Cowgill, Henry Sandiford, and John Barlow, and the separate creditors of the said Joseph Cowgill, as well those who may have already proved their debts under the said original commission but who have not again proved them under the said fiat, as those who have not proved their debts under the said commission or the said fiat, are to appear personally before the said Commissioners and prove the same upon their respective oaths, and also then and there submit themselves respectively to be examined, upon interrogatories or otherwise, touching the amount and nature of their respective debts, and to produce to the said Commissioners, upon oath, all books, papers, and writings in their or either of their custody or power relating thereto as the said Commissioners shall direct, or such creditors will be excluded the benefit of the said dividend, and all claims not then proved will be disallowed. And the said Commissioners also intend to meet on the following day, at the same hour and place, to audit the accounts of the assignee of the separate estate and effects of the said Joseph Cowgill, pursuant to an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to bankrupts;" and to make a final dividend of the separate estate and effects of the said Joseph Cowgill. And the said Commissioners also intend to meet on the said last-mentioned day, at the same place, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, to audit the accounts of the assignee of the joint estate and effects of the said Joseph Cowgill, Henry Sandiford, and John Barlow, pursuant to the same Act of Parliament, and to make a final dividend of the joint estate and effects of the said bankrupts.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date the 8th day of April 1828, awarded and issued forth against Richard Senior, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and William Senior, of the city of Glasgow, Manufacturers, Dealers, Chapman, and Copartners (carrying on trade at Manchester, under the firm of William Senior and Company), intend to meet on the 17th day of January next, at ten in the forenoon, at the Commissioners' rooms, St. James's-square, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, to make a Final Dividend of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; when and where the creditors, who have not already proved their debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Dividend. And all claims not then proved will be disallowed.

THE Commissioners in a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date the 30th day of January 1838, awarded and issued forth against Evan Jones, of Swansea, in the county of Glamorgan, Linen and Woollen Draper, Dealer and Chapman, intend to meet on the 18th day of January next, at one in the afternoon, at the Mackworth Arms Inn, Swansea, to make a Further Dividend of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; when and where the creditors, who have not already proved their debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded from the benefit of the said Dividend. And all claims not then proved will be disallowed.

WHEREAS the Commissioners acting in the prosecution of a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Banastre Falkner, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Share-Broker, Dealer and Chapman, have certified to the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and to the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, that the said John Banastre Falkner hath in all things conformed himself according to the directions of the Acts of Parliament, made and now in force concerning bankrupts; this is to give notice, that, by virtue of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to bankrupts;" and also of an Act, passed in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to establish a Court in Bankruptcy," the Certificate of the said John Banastre Falkner will be allowed and countenanced by the Court of Review, established by the said last-mentioned Act, unless cause be shewn to the said Court to the contrary on or before 11th day of January 1839.

WHEREAS the Commissioners acting in the prosecution of a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Edwin Walker, William John Walker, Frederick Walker, and Parker Newton Walker, of Thurstonland, in the parish of Kirkburton, in the county of York, Clothiers, Dealers and Chapman, Copartners in trade (and trading under the firm of John Walker and Sons), have certified to the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and to the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, that the said William John Walker hath in all things conformed him-
