Sutton Cheney Corn Rent.

NOTICE is hereby given, that pursuant to the directions and provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open common fields, meadows, pastures, woodlands, commons, and waste grounds, within the township, precincts, or territories of Sutton Cheney alias Sutton Chanell, in the parish of Market Bosworth, in the county of Leicester;" I, William Stuart, Esq., sole proprietor of the allotment, or several allotments, of land, situate in the township or hamlet of Sutton Cheney aforesaid, charged with the payment of the sum of one hundred and ninety pounds to the rector of the said township or hamlet, as in the said Act mentioned, shall apply by writing, under my hand, to the next general quarter sessions of the peace, which shall be legally holden in and for the said county of Leicester, after the date of this notice, in lieu of the quarter sessions of the peace which would formerly have been holden in the week after the close of Easter next, to have two persons named or appointed by the justices then and there assembled, to be together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees, for inquiring into, and ascertaining by, or from, or by means of, the London Gazette, or by such other ways and means as shall be more equitable and just; or in case of no due publication of the return of the average price of corn in the said Gazette, as in the said Act mentioned, then by such ways and means as they, the said arbitrators or referees, shall think equitable and proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Leicester for the ten years then last past; which three arbitrators or referees, or the major part of them, shall, by their report to be made and delivered to such subsequent court of quarter sessions, as required by the said Act, set forth such average; and the yearly corn rent, or sum payable to the rector for the time being of the township of Sutton Cheney aforesaid, from the said allotment or allotments of land as awarded by the Commissioners acting under and by the directions of the said Act, and charged therewith, will be increased or diminished in proportion, and the exact amount of the yearly rent or sum to which the same shall be so increased or diminished, will be declared by the order of the said last-mentioned court, and will become and remain, and continue issuing, and payable from the half yearly day of payment preceding such order, for and during the period of ten years then next ensuing as fixed by the said Act: As witness my hand the thirty-first day of December 1838.

William Stuart.

WE, the undersigned, William Brooks, Thomas Borton, and Frederick John Field, all of Sherington, in the county of Buckingham, owners and proprietors of lands in the said parish of Sherington, subject to and chargeable with the payment of a corn rent to the Rector, for the time being, of the rectory of Sherington, in lieu of tythes, do hereby give notice, conformably to the provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the 36th year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open and common fields, meadows, lands, commons, and commonable places, in the parish of Sherington, in the county of Buckingham," that we do intend to apply to the Justices at the next Midsummer Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be holden in and for the said county of Buckingham, to have two persons named and appointed by the said Justices then and there assembled, to be together with a third person, to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees, for the purpose of ascertaining and reporting the average price of a Winchester bushel of wheat in the said county of Buckingham, in order that the annual rent or sum of money by the said Act, made payable to the Rector for the time being of the said rectory of Sherington, in lieu of tythes, may be declared and fixed for the further term of twenty-one years, from the time and in the manner directed by the said Act of Parliament.—Dated this 22d day of December 1838.
