

noted on the said plans that the power of deviation is not intended to be applied for.

And it is further proposed to apply for powers in the said Act, to levy tolls, rates, or duties for or in respect of all persons, animals, carriages, goods, articles, matters, and things, carried and conveyed upon and along, or using the said intended railway and works; and also to alter the existing tolls, rates, or duties granted by or referred to in the said recited Acts, or some of them.

And it is further proposed to apply for power in the said intended Act, to stop up such streets, roads, or highways, crossing the line of the said extension or enlargement of the Liverpool and Manchester Railway (in such manner, and to such extent, as will be shewn upon the said plans so to be deposited as hereinbefore mentioned); and also power to divert and carry along or near to the side of the same railway, to some convenient place of crossing the same, such streets, roads, or highways, as in the same plans shall be shewn as intended to be so diverted.—
Dated the sixteenth day of February 1839.
