

To the Next of Kin of SARAH SPENCER.

WHEREAS Samuel Spencer, late of Spad Thames, Surrey, Sail Maker and Ship Chandler, by his last will and testament, bearing date on or about the 8th day of April 1826, gave unto his executors therein named, the sum of £500, to be invested in the public funds, and the interest thereof to be applied as therein mentioned, with full power to the said Sarah Spencer, his wife, to dispose of the same by deed or will, as she might think proper, and in default thereof the same was to pass to her next of kin; and whereas the said Sarah Spencer, lately departed this life intestate, and without having exercised the power so given to her as aforesaid: now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that all persons who are or claim to be the next of kin of the said Sarah Spencer, are, within twenty-eight days from the date hereof, required to give notice to me the undersigned Robert Slee, or in default thereof such sum of £500 will be distributed, and they will be wholly excluded any benefit therefrom.—Dated this 18th day of April 1839.

ROB. SLEE, Solicitor to the Executors, Parish-street, Saint John's, Southwark.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Hopkinson versus Bagster, with the approbation of Henry Martin, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-room of the said Court, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, in three lots;

The leasehold estates of John Prosser, deceased, consisting of two leasehold houses, one situate No. 10, Charing-cross, and the other No. 1, Trinity-place, Charing-cross.

Also of all right and interest in and to £220, Three per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities, being the reversion thereto payable on the death of the Reverend Charles Ashburnham, Clerk.

The day of sale will shortly be advertised, when printed particulars and conditions of sale may be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings aforesaid; of Messrs. Richardson and Pike, Solicitors, 28, Golden-square; and of Mr. Bagster, Solicitor, Size-lane, Bucklersbury.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Walker v. Cuninghame, it was (amongst other things), referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court whether William Cuninghame, formerly an Ensign in Her Majesty's 26th Regiment of Foot, who was supposed to be drowned at sea in the transport ship Maria, in the month of December 1805, the residuary legatee named in the will of William Cuninghame, late of Weston-place, in the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. deceased (who died in the month of August 1805), the testator in the said Decree named, was living at the time of the said testator's death, and whether he was since dead, and if dead, who was or were his personal representative or representatives. Any person or persons claiming to be the personal representative or representatives of the said William Cuninghame are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 15th day of May 1839, to come in and make out his, her, or their claim or claims, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Messenger versus Cooper, it was ordered that it should be referred to the Master of the said Court in rotation, to inquire whether the children of the brother and sister of John Adams, late of Chandos-street, Covent-garden, in the county of Middlesex, Wine and Brandy Merchant, or any and which of them, have made or created any and what assignments or incumbrances of or upon their respective shares or interests of or in the sum of £1500. Bank Annuities, mentioned in the will of the said John Adams, and who are now entitled to the benefit thereof respectively; and whereas the said brother and sister of the said John Adams, in the said Decree referred to, are, in the will of the said John Adams, called, his brother James Adams, and his sister Catherine, but it appears that he had not a sister of the name of Catherine, but had a sister of the name of Christian, who became the wife of John Garioch: now, therefore, all and every persons or person having, or claiming to have, any assignment or incumbrance of or upon the aforesaid shares or interests, are hereby required forthwith to come in and establish their claims before Samuel Duckworth, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Pettingal against Pettingal, it is ordered it should be referred to the Master of the said Court in rotation, to inquire, among other things, who were the persons intended by the Reverend George Hanbury Pettingal, the testator in the pleadings of the said cause named, by the following description contained in his will; that is to say, those grandchildren of the late Hanbury Pettingal, of Bath; who are females, and still alive: now, therefore, all persons claiming to be those described, or meant and intended by the said will, or the personal representatives of such of them as may be dead, are hereby required forthwith to come in and make out their claims before Samuel Duckworth, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Pettingal against Pettingal, such of the next of kin of the Reverend George Hanbury Pettingal, late of the parish of Saint Chad, Shrewsbury, in the county of Salop, Clerk, deceased, as were living at the time of his death (which happened on or about the 18th day of February 1838), and are still living, and the personal representatives of such of the said next of kin as have since died, are forthwith to come in and make out their claims as such next of kin and personal representatives before Samuel Duckworth, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Bliss versus Putnam, the creditors of James Putnam, formerly of Halifax, Nova Scotia, in British North America, but at the time of his death residing at No. 9, John street, Portland-place, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. are forthwith, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Bliss versus Putnam, the heir at law of James Putnam, formerly of Halifax, Nova Scotia, in British North America, but at the time of his death residing at No. 9, John-street, Portland-place, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. is forthwith, by his Solicitor, to come in and prove his heirship before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Bain versus Lescher, the creditors of the Reverend John Devereux, formerly resident in Moorfields, in the city of London, and afterwards of the Avenue de Neuilly, near the city of Paris (who died the 11th day of April 1838), are forthwith, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before Andrew Henry Lynch, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Bain versus Lescher, any person or persons claiming to be next of kin of the Reverend John Devereux, formerly resident in Moorfields, in the city of London, and afterwards in the Avenue de Neuilly, near the city of Paris (who died the 11th day of April 1838), living, at the time of his decease, or claiming to be the personal representative or personal representatives of any such next of kin as have since died, are forthwith, by their Solicitors, to come in and establish their claim before Andrew Henry Lynch, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.