

Duke of Croy, who was lately wounded in this Siege, would not recover. There are Letters from Hungary which say, that an Ingeni. r who had been in Buda from the beginning of the Siege, and had got now lately out of the place, had offered his Service to the Elector of Bavaria, promising in three days time to make a Mine which should do more execution than all those they had hitherto sprung; and that his Electoral Highness had accordingly employed him, and had assured him of a great reward if he made good what he had undertaken.

Brussels, October 23. The Council of Brabant have published a Placast; declaring, That after the Country have paid their Quota of the Contributions resting due to the French, they shall be freed for two years from paying any Subsidies; upon which the other Provinces have sent Deputies hither to desire the like exemption. We are assured that the Marquis de Grana has desired leave to quit this Government; but we do not yet hear that his Successor is named. We have an account from Lille and other places, that the French have made a great reform in their Troops. Our Letters from Vienna tell us, that an Express was arrived there from the Army before Buda, to inform the Emperor, That the Bavarian Troops were lodged upon the Breach; that they had three Mines ready to spring and that it was resolved to make a great Assault upon the Castle on the 12th Instant with 6000 Men, 2000 Imperialists, 2000 Bavarians, and 2000 Men of the Troops of Suabia. And that the Duke of Lorraine had been assured by several Parties he had sent out, that the Seraskier Bassa had repassed the Bridge of Esbeck.

Amsterdam, October 21. This morning Prince Casimir of Nassaw, Stadtholder of Friesland and Groningen arrived here with the Princess his Wife; Being come to the Heeren Logement, where they are lodged, they were Complimented by the Burghermasters and the Pensionary of this City The Baron Fuelt, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, who hath been here several days, is returned to the Hague. The Actions of the East-India Company, are risen upon the arrival of the five Ships, whereof we gave you an account in our last, to 474; The damage the Company hath sustained by the return of one of their Ships, and the loss of the other, which was so leaky that they were forced to burn her after taking out the best Goods, is computed at about 10000 l. Sterling. The Master of a Vessel arrived from the Streights confirms the account we had the last week of the departure of the Spanish Gallions from Cadiz.

Hague, October 24. The Ratifications of the Treaty of Commerce between the Crown of Denmark and this State were exchanged here the last week; and we are told that in pursuance of this Treaty the East India Company of these Countries have caused 50000 Gilders to be paid to the Consul of Denmark, to satisfy the Pretensions which several Subjects of that Crown had against the Company on account of the Ship Cornelia which was taken on the Coast of Guinea and confiscated by their Order. The Commissioners for the Disbanding the Recruits, have executed their Commission in several places; These Recruits were raised in the year 1682, and amount to about 12000 Men; They write from Over Yssel that some Officers were come thither to receive such of the reformed Cavalry, as are willing to go into the Emperor's Service, they giving each Horseman 40 Crowns. The Baron de Witzendorf, Envoy Extraordinary from the Dukes of Lunenbourg, parted from hence some days ago in order to his return home. Our German Letters tell us that a general Assault was intended to be made upon Buda the 12th of this Month, of which they were with great impatience expecting the success.

Paris, October 25. A great many Disbanded Officers and Soldiers come daily hither; we are told that 14000 Horse and 20000 Foot have been reformed; but out of these the Bodies that are kept on foot will be completed. The French Fleet, as well Men of War as Gallies, are returned into Port. It's said the Pope has ordered his Nuncio at this Court to interpose in the affair of Genova. Our German Letters tell us that the Christians intended to make a General Assault upon Buda on the 12th of this month.

The Commissioners executing a Commission of Bankrupt against John and Thomas Temple of London, Goldsmiths, sitting at the Three Tuns in Lombard-street, London, have appointed to make a Dividend upon the 20th of November next, of all such of the said Temples Estate as already is, or before that time shall come to their hands; And do give this early Notice to the end that none of the said Creditors may pretend Ignorance thereof, but timely come in to seek Relief by the said Statute, otherwise they will be excluded from the said Dividend.
