TUESDAY, JUNE 18, 1839.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, June 14, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee, at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 26th instant, at two o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 22, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday, June 20th, at two o'clock.

N. B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars, at Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, on Thursday the 20th of June, being a Collar-day.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS.

The Ladies, who purpose attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty. And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, that it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, two clear days before the Drawing-Room, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place, unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered, as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace

June 14, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all carriages coming to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 20th of June, are to fall into the line at the top of St. James's-street, come down the left hand side of the street, round the corner of Pall-mall, and enter at the iron gate nearest to the Palace, set down at the Arcade, return by the iron gate nearest to Marlborough-house, and pass through Pall-mall into St. James's-square, by George-street. In taking up, they are to pass from St. James's-square, by Charles-street, into Regent-street, Jermyn-street, and to come down St. James's-street in like manner, pass through the same gates, and go away through Pall-mall.

No hackney coaches will be permitted to come within the iron gates, they must set down at the outside thereof, and go away through Pall-mall.

The gate at the top of Constitution-hill will be open only for the carriages of persons having the privilege of the entrée, which are to proceed down the Park, and enter the Palace at Stable-yard-gate, turn into the Ambassadors'-court, set down at the Arcade, and go out into Cleveland-row. The carriages of the Cabinet Ministers and Great Officers of State may afterwards wait in the King's-court. Those of the Ambassadors and Foreign Ministers in the Ambassadors'-court, and those of all other persons having the entrée may wait in Stable-yard or St. James's-park till called for; they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, pass away into Cleveland-row, and up the left hand side of St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket, to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and at Stable-yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshalmen in attendance; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entrée by any other approach to the Palace than the gates above mentioned.

Tickets for carriages belonging to persons having the entrée will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace, on Tuesday next, between the hours of eleven and three o'clock.

ARGYLL, Lord Steward.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th day of June 1839.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS under and by virtue of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of assizes in England and Wales," Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is empowered, from time to time, to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business shall be holden:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the fourth day of February last, to direct that the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business in and for the county of Montgomery, should henceforth be holden at Welchpool in the Spring, and at Newtown in the Summer, in every year;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Order in Council of the fourth day of February last, be, and the same is, hereby revoked.

And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th day of June 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient; and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition might be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situated, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition should be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An “Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament,” should, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Northumberland, in quarter sessions assembled, on the eleventh day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the southern division of the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying, that Allendale Town may be a polling place for the said division :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His said late Majesty's reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that Allendale Town shall be a polling place for the said division; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His said late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said division of the said county into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 3d day of June 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “An Act for the general regulation of the Customs,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, that goods, of places within the limits of the East India Company's charter, shall be imported into such ports of the United Kingdom as shall be approved of by the Lords of the Treasury, and declared by an Order in Council, to be fit and proper for such importation; and whereas the port of Dundee has been approved of by the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury for that purpose;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Dundee is a port fit and proper for the importation of goods from places within the limits of the East India Company's charter :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d day of May 1839,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections,” it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition should be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled “An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament,” should, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace of the county of Bedford, in quarter sessions assembled, on the ninth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying that the town of Dunstable may be a polling place for the said county :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said town of Dunstable shall be a polling place for the said county; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions, or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said county into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d day of May 1839,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places, for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition should be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," should, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

And whereas the justices of the peace of the county of Suffolk, at the general quarter session holden, by adjournment, at Bury Saint Edmunds, on the sixteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the western division of the said county is insufficient; and therefore praying, that the town of Clare may be a polling place for the said western division :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said town of Clare shall be a polling place for the said western division; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled in quarter sessions, or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of the reign of His late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said western division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place in the said division.

mother, under and by virtue of the will of one Matthew Topham, formerly of Verulam-buildings, Gray's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. deceased, bearing date the 30th day of June 1818; and to assent to or dissent from the said official assignee referring the question of such settlement, and the amount thereof, to the adjudication of the Commissioners by or before whom the said Commission is now prosecuted, or to the arbitration of some barrister or other competent person; or to his compounding, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing in relation to the said settlement and suit:

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Coombe, formerly of Great Torrington, in the county of Devon, since of Liskeard, in the county of Cornwall, but now of Lauceston, in the county of Cornwall, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 9th day of July next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the Royal Hotel, in the borough of Plymouth, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees submitting to the arbitration of P. N. Rogers, Esq. Barrister at Law, an action at law commenced by the said assignees against Joseph Thomas Austen Trefry, Esq. Sheriff of the county of Cornwall, and now pending; and also a certain action at law commenced by the said assignees against John Squire, Gentleman, and now pending; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying or allowing the sum of £115s. for expences of keeping possession of the effects of the said bankrupt; prior to the appointment of assignees; and also on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Edmund Taylor, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Drysalter, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 10th day of July next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the office of Messrs. Holden and Clarke, Solicitors, High-street, Exchange, Liverpool, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee employing and paying an accountant to wind up and balance the bankrupt's books, settle the accounts, and collect the assets; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling the stock in trade, book debts, and all other the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, either to the bankrupt, or any other person or persons, by public auction or private sale, or partly by either means, for ready money or on credit, and with or without any security, at discretion; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee buying in at any auction and reselling by auction or private sale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, and defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of all or any of the estate of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating to the said bankrupt's estate; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignee to act in the conduct and management of the estate and affairs of the said bankrupt as he may think advisable; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Smith Wright, of Watton, in the county of Norfolk, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Thursday the 11th day of July next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Norfolk Hotel, in the city of Norwich, in order to ratify, confirm, and allow the several proceedings of the said assignees, during the time they, or either of them, acted as trustees under a certain deed of assignment executed by the said bankrupt to them of all his personal estate and effects, and bearing date the 7th day of November last, with reference to the disposal of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, and the performance of the trusts contained in such deed; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees further defending a certain suit in equity brought against two of them, as such trustees as aforesaid, and the said bankrupt; and other parties, by William Lincoln and others; or to their settling, arranging, or compromising with the said plaintiffs in respect of the subject matter of the said suit, or submitting to arbitration or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging, out of the said bankrupt's estate, the costs and expences of and attending the preparing and executing the aforesaid deed of assignment, and certain acts and charges for professional business transacted, and disbursements made and incurred by the said trustees under the aforesaid assignment, prior to the opening of the said Fiat, with reference to the said suit in equity; and other proceedings taken by them for the benefit and protection of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, the particulars of which expences and disbursements will be there and there produced; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving up and allowing the said bankrupt certain articles of household furniture for his own use, an inventory and valuation whereof will also be there and there produced; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding for or taking less than the whole of any debt or debts due to the said bankrupt's estate which they may think best or doubtful, in full satisfaction and discharge of the amount of such debts; and releasing any debtor or debtors therefrom, and giving time to any such debtor or debtors for payment thereof, without taking security for the same; and also to the said assignees employing any agent or assistant to investigate the books and accounts of the said bankrupt, and to make up, adjust, collect, and get in the debts due and owing to the said bankrupt's estate; and to their making the person or persons to be so employed, such remuneration and allowance, for his or their time and trouble therein, as they shall think fit, and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or any other proceeding, for the protection, recovery, or defence of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof; or to their submitting to arbitration or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relative thereto; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the said bankrupt's creditors, in such manner as shall seem to the said assignees most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 15th day of June 1839, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by JOSEPH VAUGHAN, of No. 4, Pratt-street, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, Oil and Colourman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date on or about the 5th day of March 1839, was awarded and issued forth against William Fisher, of the city of Lincoln, and George Fisher, of Newark-upon-Trent, in the county of Nottingham, Wharfingers and Carriers by Water, Coal-Dealers, and Plaster-Merchants, Dealers and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Fiat is, by an order of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, bearing date the 11th day of June 1839, and confirmed by the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, annulled.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date on or about the 21st day of March 1839, was awarded and issued forth against William Hickman, of Rutland-place, Upper Thames-street, in the city of London, Rag-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Fiat is, by an order of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, bearing date the 24th day of May 1839, and duly confirmed by the Lord Chancellor, annulled.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against John Grist, of New Brentford, in the county of Middlesex, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to Robert George Cecil Fane, Esq. one of Her Majesty's Commissioners of the Court of Bankruptcy, on the 2d day of July next, at half past twelve in the afternoon precisely, and on the 30th day of the same month, at half past eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose assignees, and at the last sitting the said bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same, but to Mr. Wm. Whitmore, No. 2, Basinghall-street, the Official Assignee, whom the Commissioner has appointed, and give notice to Mr. Hooker, Solicitor, No. 8, Bartlett's-buildings, Holborn.
