

table in the said Act contained ; and it was thereby further enacted, that if any goods should be imported into any port or place in any of the said possessions, contrary to the said Act, such goods should be forfeited ; and it was thereby provided, that, if His Majesty should deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports ; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations and restrictions thereafter provided, should extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act :

And it was thereby also enacted, that the several ports therein in that behalf mentioned, should be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act ; and that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for all or any of the purposes of the said Act ; and that every port so appointed should be, for all the purposes expressed in such Order, a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same :

And whereas Her Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned provisions of the said Act, respecting such free ports, to the port of George Town, Demerara, in the colony of British Guiana :

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers in Her Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that, from and after the twenty-sixth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports respectively therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the port of George Town, Demerara, in the colony of British Guiana ; and that, from and after the said twenty-sixth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein-mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said port of George Town as fully and effectually as if such port had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act :

And in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities in Her Majesty by the said Act in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the port of George Town, Demerara, in the colony of British Guiana, herein appointed a free port as aforesaid, shall also, from and after the twenty-sixth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, be a free warehousing port for all the purposes of the said Act :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

India Board, August 29, 1839.

A DISPATCH has been received at the East India-house, from the Governor in Council of Bombay, of which the following is an extract :

WE avail ourselves of the departure of the East India Company's steamer Berenice, for the Persian Gulf, to transmit to the Honourable the Secret Committee our latest intelligence up to this date.

Private letters have been received from Candahar up to the 20th of May, and the intelligence they communicate is satisfactory.

His Majesty, Shah Shooja-ool-Moolk, was crowned on the 8th of May, and we have the honour to enclose, in this dispatch, copies of three General Orders, issued on the occasion, by his Excellency Lieutenant General Sir John Keane. We have not obtained these officially, but we have no doubt of their authenticity.

A force, under command of Brigadier Sale, having been detached against Gerishk, that place was occupied, without opposition, on the 15th of May, the Sirdars of Candahar having decamped before the Brigadier's arrival.

The troops were generally healthy, and provisions, though still scarce, were becoming more plentiful. It was anticipated that the army would be able to commence its march on Cabool about the 10th of June, its movement before the above date being delayed on account of a large convoy of treasure and supplies expected from Shikarpore.

It was generally believed, in camp, that the native portion of the Bombay division of the Army of the Indus would remain at Candahar ; and that the
