NOTICE TO MARINERS.

PROPOSED LIGHT ON THE LEMAN AND OWER SANDS.

Trinity-House, London, November 26, 1839.

THIS Corporation having, in compliance with the request of the owners and masters of vessels, and other persons using or interested in the navigation of the North Sea, caused a light-vessel to be prepared, for the purpose of exhibiting a floating light near to the Leman and Ower Sands, notice is hereby given, that the said vessel will be placed thereat, previously to Wednesday the 1st day of January next, and the lights exhibited therein on the evening of that day, and thenceforth continued every night, from sun-set to sun-rise.

This light-vessel will be placed in 16 fathoms, at low water spring tides, about two miles to the westward of the shoal part of the Ower, and in latitude 53° 9' N., and longitude 2° East, of Greenwich.

The lights will be exhibited from two lanterns, placed on separate masts; the foremost of which will revolve, and burn at an elevation of 38 feet above the water's edge; while the aftermost will be a fixed light, and burn at an elevation of 27 feet above the same level.

Mariners are to observe, that the light at the Leman and Ower is to be used only as a warning light, to indicate the position of those dangerous shoals, and the vessel must not be approached, in any direction, either by night or by day.

Note.—From this light-vessel the shoalest part of the Ower will bear N. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W., distant about two miles; and the shoalest part of the Leman W. by N., distant about four miles.

By order,

J. Herbert, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to make application to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act of Parliament, to make, form, and maintain, a new street, commencing at or near to the corner of Rose-street and west end of King-street, and east end of New-street, Covent-garden, and proceeding in a direct line to the south-west corner of St. Martin's-lane, and west end of Long-acre; which said new street is proposed to be made, or pass from, through, or into, the several parishes of St. Paul, Covent-garden, and St. Martins-in-the-fields, in the city of Westminster, and county of Middlesex; and also to make, form, and maintain, a new street to extend Hart-street, commencing at or near the west end of Hart-street, at or near the corner of Conduit-court, and proceeding in a straight line to a point in the former proposed line of new street, intersected by such continued line of Hart-street; and which said new street is proposed to be made, or pass from, through, or into, the several parishes of St. Paul, Covent garden, and St. Martins-in-the-fields, in the city of Westminster, and county of Middlesex; and in the said Bill, powers will be contained for taking, purchasing, letting, leasing, and making use of, all such houses, buildings or lands, and hereditaments, as may be necessary for carrying the several purposes aforesaid, into execution.—Dated this fourteenth day of November 1839.

Moseley & Channell, Solicitors, 13 Bedford-street, Covent-garden.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act for making, constructing, and maintaining one or more pier or piers, breakwater or breakwaters, jetty or jetties, landing place, or landing places, with all necessary wharfs, depôts, warehouses, works and conveniences thereto, at or near Portishead-bay, in the parishes of Portishead, otherwise Possett and Portbury, or one of them, in the county of Somerset, and alleged to be within the limits of the county of the city of Bristol, and for otherwise improving the said Bay, and for making and maintaining good and sufficient approaches to the same; and that powers will be taken, in and by the said Act, to raise, collect, levy, and receive certain rates, tolls, dues, duties, or sums of money to be therein enumerated, and for purchasing, taking, and holding lands, tenements, and hereditaments within the said parishes, or one of them, for the purposes aforesaid.

And notice is hereby given, that a duplicate map, or plan, and section of the said pier or piers, breakwater, or breakwaters, jetty or jetties, landing place or places, and works, with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, on or before the thirtieth day of November now next ensuing, at the respective offices of the Clerks of the Peace for the said county of Somerset, and the said county of the city of Bristol; and a copy of so much of the said map, or plan, and section as relates to each parish, and of the book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the respective parish clerks of the said parishes, on or before the thirty-first day of December now next ensuing.

Dated the fifteenth day of October, 1839.

William Henry Buckerfield, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, to make and maintain a turnpike road, to commence at or near the sea-shore, on the south-west side of Portishead Bay, in the parish of Portishead, (otherwise Possett) in the county of Somerset, and to pass from thence along, across, through, or into a portion of the said parish of Portishead, otherwise Possett, and the townships or parishes of Portbury, Saint George's, and Abbotsleigh, and to terminate at or near a guide-post, at the junction of the lane leading to Portbury by Markham-Bottom, with the turnpike road from Pill to the city of Bristol; and also to make and maintain a branch road, from and out of the said turnpike road, at or near the commencement thereof, in the said parish of Portishead, otherwise Possett, to pass from, along, across, through, or into another portion of the said last mentioned parish, and the townships or parishes of Weston in Gordano, Walton and Clevedon, and to terminate at or near the York hotel, in the said parish of Clevedon; and also a certain other branch, from and out of the said intended turnpike road, near the east side of Portishead Pill, in the said parish of Portbury, and from thence across, through, and over a portion of the said last mentioned parish, and of the said parish.

of Portishead; otherwise Possétt, to the parish road near the Old mill, in the same parish of Portishead, otherwise Possett; all which said townships and parishes are situate in the said county of Somerset.

And notice is also given, that powers will be taken, in and by the said Act, to raise, collect, levy and receive certain rates, tolls or duties, to be therein enumerated, for the purposes aforesaid.

And notice is likewise given, that a duplicate map or plan, and section of the said intended turnpike road and branches, with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace of the said county of Somerset, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and a copy of so much of the said map or plan, and section, as relates to each parish respectively, and of the book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the respective parish clerks of the said several parishes, on or before the thirty-first day of December now next ensuing.

And notice is also given, that it is intended to take powers to widen, divert or alter, all such road and roads; and such rivers, streams or running waters, as may require to be widened, altered or diverted; for the formation and maintenance of such road and branches as aforesaid; and that it is intended to relinquish so much of such roads, rivers, streams, or running waters, as shall or may be rendered unnecessary or useless, by reason of such diversion or diversions as aforesaid.—Dated the fifth day of November 1839.

W. H. Buckerfield, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act to continue the term and alter and enlarge the powers of a certain Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing and enlarging the powers of three Acts of the reign of His late and present Majesty, for amending several roads therein mentioned, as far as relate to the road from Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh, to Pentre-bridge, in the county of Flint; and for making a new branch of road from the said road, at a place called Abermorddu, to Mold, in the said county of Flint;" and also for granting further, better, and more effectual powers for repairing and improving the same district of road, in which Bill provision is intended to be made for altering or increasing the tolls authorised to be taken on the said road; and also for making turnpike, widening, and improving the highway leading from the present turnpike gate, on the aforesaid road, situate in the township of Broughton, in the parish of Wrexham, and county of Denbigh, called Plas Coch Gate, westward through the same township of Broughton, towards and unto a certain public house called the Ship Tavern, at a place, in the same township, called South Sea; and also for making turnpike, widening, and improving a certain other highway or highways leading from a certain side gate, situate in the township of Stansty, near the house of Thomas Forgham, and continuing eastward from thence through the township of Stansty, to a certain place called Rhosddu, in the same township, and from thence through the township of Stansty aforesaid, and Wrexham Regis, in the parish of Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh, unto and into the Wrexham and Chester turnpike road, at or near the southern extremity of Acton Park wall, being in the said township of Wrexham Regis; and also for making turnpike, widening, and improving a certain other highway or highways leading from the aforesaid turnpike gate, in the aforesaid township of Broughton, called Plas Coch Gate, eastward through part of the said township of Broughton, in the said parish of Wrexham, and through the said township of Stansty, in the parish of Wrexham aforesaid, and of Gwersyllt, in the parish of Gresford, in the said county of Denbigh, unto and into the Wrexham and Chester turnpike road, at or near to the end of a lane nearly opposite to a certain blacksmith's shop, situate in the said township of Gwersyllt, in the said parish of Gresford, called Acton Smithy; and for levying tolls on the said last mentioned roads, to be applied in the maintenance and support of the said roads.

And notice is hereby given, that, on or before the thirtieth day of November next, a map or plan describing the line or situation of the said intended turnpike roads, and the lands in, through, or over which the same roads, or some of them, are intended to be widened, together with a book of reference, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, and a copy of so much of the Standing Orders of the House of Lords as is required, will be deposited at the offices of the Clerks of the Peace of the said counties of Denbigh and Flint; and that, on or before the thirty-first of December next, a copy of so much of the said map or plan as relates to each of the aforesaid parishes where lands will be taken for widening the same roads, together with a book of reference thereto, and a copy of so much of the Standing Orders of the House of Lords as aforesaid, will be deposited with the parish clerks of the said several parishes.

And notice is hereby further given, that, on or before the said thirty-first day of December next, duplicates of the said map or plan, and book of reference thereto, will be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and in the Private Bill-office of the House of Commons.—Dated this eighteenth day of October 1839.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76, or 1 and 2 Vict. c. 110, sec. 105, as the case may be.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.
