WILLIAM ALEXANDER, Solicitor,
Peterhead, Witness.
W. MACKIE, Writer, in Peterhead,
Witness.

WHEREAS under and by virtue of Her Majesty's writ of Fieri Facias, at the suit of William Johnson, and under and by virtue of Her Majesty's other writ of Fieri Facias, at the suit of the said William Johnson, and also Mary Axon and Harriet Axon, Executrix and Executrixes of the last will and testament of Edward Axon the elder, deceased, Thomas Hibbert, Esq., the Sheriff of the county of Chester, lately seized the goods and chattels of William Axon, of Stockport, in the county of Chester, Cotton-Manufacturer, and which said goods and chattels, on a valuation thereof, were insufficient to satisfy the debts and sums of money ordered by the said writs to be levied; and by deed poll, dated the 23d day of December instant, the said Sheriff did bargain, sell, and deliver to the said William Johnson, his executors, administrators, and assigns, the said goods and chattels, comprising all the machinery, and certain stock in trade, goods, chattels, and effects, being in certain rooms or apartments, part of certain cotton mills, called the Park Mills, situate in Stockport aforesaid, and which rooms or apartments are in the occupation of the said William Axon, as his and their own goods and chattels for ever, in part satisfaction of the debts and sums of money by the said writs directed to be levied as aforesaid; and whereas the said William Johnson hath agreed to allow the said William Axon to use, occupy, and enjoy the said machinery, stock in trade, goods, chattels, and effects so seized by the said Sheriff, and by him sold to the said William Johnson as aforesaid, and such machinery, stock in trade, goods, chattels, and effects as may be substituted in the place of any part thereof, upon certain terms and conditions; notice is, therefore, hereby given, that all the said machinery, stock in trade, goods, chattels, and effects in the rooms or apartments in the said mills, called the Park Mills in Stockport aforesaid, and mentioned and comprised in the said deed poll, or which may be substituted in the place of any part thereof, are the property of the said William Johnson, and that the said William Axon has no interest therein further than the use thereof.—Dated this 24th day of December 1839.
