

On arriving at the entrance of the Chapel, the drums and trumpets filed off. The Gentlemen at Arms remained in the Ante Chapel, during the Ceremony. The Yeomen of the Guard remained at the foot of the staircase in the Ante Chapel during the Ceremony. Her Majesty's Gentlemen Ushers conducted the respective persons composing the Procession to the places provided for them; the Princes and Princesses of the Blood Royal to the seats prepared for them on the Haut-pas; and the several ladies attendant upon the Queen to the seats provided near Her Majesty's Person.

Her Majesty, on reaching the Haut-pas, took Her seat in the Chair of State provided for the occasion on the right of the Altar, attended by the Ladies bearing Her Majesty's Train.

Her Majesty the Queen Dowager was present during the Solemnity, on the left of the Altar, attended by the Countess of Mayo and Lady Clinton, Ladies in Waiting; the Earl Howe, G.C.H. Lord Chamberlain; the Earl of Denbigh, G.C.H. Master of the Horse; the Honourable William Ashley, Vice-Chamberlain and Treasurer; Colonel Sir Horace Seymour, K.C.H. Equerry; and J. G. C. Desbrowe and J. G. T. Sinclair, Esqs. Pages of Honour.

The Service was then commenced by His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, having on his right His Grace the Lord Archbishop of York, and on his left the Lord Bishop of London, who assisted as Dean of the Chapel Royal. At that part of the Service, where the Archbishop of Canterbury, read the words, "I pronounce that they be man and wife together," the Park and Tower guns fired. At the conclusion of the Service, the Procession returned, that of the Bridegroom preceding as before, excepting that His Royal Highness Prince Albert conducted Her Majesty from the Chapel Royal to the Throne-room, where the Registry of the Marriage was attested with the usual formalities.

The Queen Dowager, the Princes and Princesses of the Blood Royal, the Ministers of State, and other persons of distinction, then paid their compliments on the occasion, after which Her Majesty the Queen and His Royal Highness Prince Albert, with the rest of the Royal Family, retired to the Royal Closet.

In the evening there were very splendid illuminations, and other public demonstrations of joy, in celebration of this most auspicious event, throughout the metropolis.

N. B.—The Knights of the several Orders present at the Solemnity wore their respective Collars.
