TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1840.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 14; 1840.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levée at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday next the 19th instant, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them (not that of the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 14, 1840.

BY COMMAND OF HER MAJESTY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levees, are to write on two cards, with their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and of the persons from whom they come; one card to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord in Waiting, who will read its contents, at the time of presentation, to Her Majesty; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

Foreign-Office, February 18, 1840.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint James Baker, Esq. (some time Her Majesty's Consul at Mobile), to be Her Majesty's Consul for the province of Livonia, to reside at Riga.

The Queen has also been graciously pleased to appoint Marcus Wright, Esq. to be Her Majesty's Consul at Wiborg.

The Queen has also been graciously pleased to appoint Charles Lionel FitzGerald, Esq. (some time Her Majesty's Consul at Mahon), to be Her Majesty's Consul for the province of Murcia, to reside at Carthagena.

Whitehall, February 17, 1840.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Samuel Edward Cook, of Carlton-hall, in the parish of St. John, Stanwick, in the north riding of the county of York, Esq. a Commander in the Royal Navy, and Knight of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, Her royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of John Widdrington, late of the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Esq. deceased, take and henceforth use the surname of Widdrington only, in lieu of that of Cook :

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

London and Salisbury Junction Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining one or more line or lines of railway, commencing by a junction with the London and South Western Railway, at or near a certain field, in the parish of Kingsworthy, in the county of Southampton, numbered 4, in the same parish, on the plan of the said London and South Western Railway (formerly called the London and Southampton Railway), lodged with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Southampton, and terminating in or near to a certain field in the occupation of Richard Fowler, M. D. near Saint Martin's Church, and adjoining the northern side of the turnpike road leading from Salisbury to Southampton, in the parish of Milford, in the borough of Salisbury, in the county of Wilts; which said railway is intended to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places of Kingsworthy, Hook Pit, Headbourne Worthy, Littleton, Crawley, Sparsholt, Up Sombourne, Little Sombourne, King's Sombourne, Broughton, Pittleworth, Mottisfont, East Tytherly, West Tytherly, French Moor, and West Dean, or some of them, in the said county of Southampton; of West Dean, East Grimstead, West Grimstead, Whaddon, Alderbury, Clarendon Park, Laverstock, Milford, Saint Martin's, and Salisbury, or some of them, in the said county of Wilts; and in which Bill powers are intended to be inserted to divert or alter all such turnpike roads, parish roads, and other highways, canals, navigations, and railways within the said several parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places as may be required to be diverted or altered for the construction of such railway.

And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said proposed works, with a book of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands in or through which the same is intended to be made, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the first day of March next, with the Clerks of the Peace for the counties of Southampton and Wilts, and borough of Salisbury, at their offices, situate respectively at Winchester, in the county of Southampton and Wilton, in the county of Wilts, and the city of Salisbury.

And, on or before the first day of April next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish in or through which the said works, or any part of them, are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament for power to deviate in the construction of the said proposed works, on either side of the lines laid down upon the said plans, to an extent not exceeding ten yards in any town, and to an extent in all other places not exceeding one hundred yards; but the said power of deviation is not intended to be applied for, where the property situate within the said distances of ten yards and one hundred yards, respectively, or either of them, shall not be numbered on the said plans, or if numbered on the said plans, shall not be contained or described in the said book of reference, nor is it intended to exceed, in any case, the limits denoted on the said plans, where a limit to such deviations shall be expressly denoted thereupon, or to extend into the lands of any person whose name shall not be mentioned in the said books of reference.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for powers to levy tolls, rates, and duties on or in respect of the said proposed works, and to incorporate a company for carrying the said several purposes into execution.—Dated this sixth day of February 1840.

King and Whitaker, Gray's-inn-square, } Solicitors.
M. and H. Hodding, Salisbury,

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway or railways, or tramroad or tramroads, with proper warehouses, wharfs, landing places, tunnels, bridges, works, and other conveniences adjoining thereto, or connected therewith; for the passage of waggons, carts, and other carriages properly constructed and adapted for the conveyance of persons, horses, cattle, coals, goods, wares, and merchandize, commencing in the township of Chirton, in the parish of Tynemouth, in the county of Northumberland, and diverging from the line of the railway from the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne to North Shields, in the said county of Northumberland, at the distance of two hundred and seventy yards from the termination of the said railway at North Shields aforesaid; and extending to, or passing through, or into the several townships of Chirton, Preston, and Tynemouth, in the said parish of Tynemouth, and county of Northumberland; and terminating at the west end of the village of Tynemouth, in the township and parish of Tynemouth aforesaid.

In which said Act, provisions are intended to be made for levying, collecting, and taking certain tolls and duties for passing along the said railway or railways, or tramroad or tramroads, and for the use of the said warehouses, wharfs, or landing-places, works, and other conveniences.

And also to obtain power to raise money for the several purposes of the said intended Act, all which said powers are intended to be carried into effect by a Company already incorporated by an Act of Parliament, called "The Newcastle-upon-Tyne and North Shields Railway Company;" and the money raised by the creation of new shares in the said company, or by some other mode to be authorised and provided for in and by such intended Act.

And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the line of such railway, and books of reference thereto, with so much of the standing orders of Parliament as relate to the deposit of plans, will be deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Northumberland, situated in the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, on or before the first day of March next; and a like duplicate plan and section of the line of such railway, and book of reference thereto, with so much of the standing orders of Parliament as relate to the deposit of plans, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Tynemouth; in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons; and in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, on or before the first day of April next.

Power will also be obtained to deviate from the line of the said railway, to the extent of ten yards on either side of the said railway, or to such other extent as Parliament shall allow.

Dated the first day of February 1840.

Carr and Jobling,
and
Jno. and Jno. T. B. Tinley, } Solicitors to the Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the session of 1841, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the forty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a railway from the river Wye, at or near to a place called Lidbrook, in the parish of Ruardean, in the county of Gloucester, to or near to a place called the Lower Forge, below Newern, in the parish of Lydney, in the said county, and for making other railways therein mentioned, in the Forest of Dean, in the county of Gloucester."

Also of an Act, passed in the fiftieth year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the Lydney and Lidbrook Railway Act, to vary certain parts of the said railway, and to extend the same from Lidbrook to Bishop's Wood, and from the Lower Forge to the Cross Pill, and for making a basin and canal to communicate with the river Severn, at Nass Point."

Also of an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Severn and Wye Railway and Canal Company to raise a further sum of money for the completion of their works, and for levying a tonnage rate on certain vessels and goods now exempted, and further to extend the powers granted to the said Company."

Also of an Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling the Severn and Wye Railway and Canal Company to raise a further sum of money for the completion of their works."

And also of an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend two Acts of the forty-ninth and fiftieth years of His late Majesty, for making the Severn and Wye Railway and Canal."

And notice is hereby also given, that power will be applied for, in the said Bill, to make a branch railway, commencing by a junction with the said railway authorised to be made by the said Acts, or some or one of them, in the parish of Lydney; passing from thence from, through, or into the several parishes, tithings, or places of Lydney, Ailburton, Alvington, and Woolaston, and terminating at or near the river Severn, at or near a place called Grange Pill, in the said parish of Woolaston, all in the said county of Gloucester; and to construct a basin or basins, and outer harbour, communicating with the river Severn, and cuts and reservoirs, in the said parish of Woolaston, together with all necessary works and communications connected with the same respectively; and in which Bill, provision is intended to be made to authorise the levying of rates, tolls, or duties, for the use of the before-mentioned new works, or some of them, and to repeal all or such of the provisions of the said Acts as may be deemed necessary, and to grant more effectual powers instead thereof.

And notice is hereby further given, that, on or before the first day of March next, duplicate plans and sections of such branch railway, basin or basins, outer harbour, reservoir or reservoirs, cuts, and other works, with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Gloucester, at his office, in the city of Gloucester, and, on or before the first day of April next, copies of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relate to the several parishes aforesaid, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish.—Dated this seventh day of February 1840.

Lionel Oliver Bigg, Solicitor to the said Company.

Guildford Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, for making and maintaining one or more line or lines of railway, commencing by a junction with the London and South Western Railway, at or near the said railway station at Woking-common, in the parish of Woking, in Kingfield otherwise Kenville Tithing, in the county of Surrey, numbered 1, in the same parish and tithing on the plan of the said London and South Western Railway (formerly called the London and Southampton Railway); lodged with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Surrey, and terminating in or near to a certain field called New Barn-field, belonging to the Right Honourable the Earl of Onslow, and in the occupation of Samuel Harwood, and adjoining the northern side of the turnpike-road leading from Guildford to Eamham, in the parish of Saint Nicholas, in Guildford, in the said county of Surrey; which said railway is intended to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Woking, Kingfield otherwise Kenville, Goldsworth otherwise Goldings, and Knaphill, Heathside or Town-street, West-street or West-end, Mayford, Sutton, Worplesdon, Perryhill, Burgham otherwise Burpham, Stoke next Guildford, Artington, and Saint Nicholas, in Guildford, or some of them, in the said county of Surrey; and in which Bill, powers are intended to be inserted, to divert or alter all such turnpike-roads, parish-roads, and otherwise highways, canals, navigations, and railways within the said several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places as may be required to be diverted, or altered for the construction of such railway.

And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said proposed works, with a book of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands in or through which the same is intended to be made, will be deposited for public inspection, on or before the first day of March next, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Surrey, at his office at Lambeth, in the same county.

And on or before the first day of April next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish in or through which the said works, or any part of them, are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the Parish Clerk of each such parish;

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament for power to deviate in the construction of the said proposed works, on either side of the lines laid down upon the said plans; to an extent not exceeding ten yards in any town; and to an extent in all other places not exceeding one hundred yards; but the said power of deviation is not intended to be applied for, where the property situate within the said distances of ten yards, and one hundred yards respectively, or either of them, shall not be numbered on the said plans, or if numbered on the said plans, shall not be contained or described in the said book of reference, nor is it intended to exceed, in any case the limits denoted on the said plans, where a limit to such deviations shall be expressly denoted thereupon, or to extend into the lands of any person whose name shall not be mentioned in the said books of reference.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for powers to levy tolls, rates, and duties on, or in respect of the said proposed works, and to incorporate a company for carrying the said several purposes into execution.

Dated this sixth day of February 1840.

John Rand, } Solicitors for George Potter, } the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, for making and maintaining a railway for the conveyance of passengers and goods, and the passage of carriages properly constructed to be drawn or propelled by locomotive engines, steam, or other power, together with warehouses, wharfs, landing places, tunnels, bridges, and all other suitable and proper stations, erections, works, communications, approaches, and conveniences attached thereto, or connected therewith; which railway is intended to commence by a junction with the London and Brighton Railway, now in course of construction, in or near to a certain field in the parish of Horley, in the county of Surrey, belonging or reputed to belong to the devisees, in trust, under the will of the late Mrs. Sarah Lucy Guise, and to Mrs. Mary Ann Pledge, which field is at or near Holylands Farm-house, and adjoins or is near to certain fields belonging or reputed to belong to the Governors of Christ's Hospital; and to terminate at or near to the northern side of East-street, Horsham, in the county of Sussex, and near the Gaol there; and which said intended railway, with the warehouses, wharfs, landing-places, tunnels, bridges, stations, erections, works, communications, approaches, and conveniences attached thereto, or connected therewith, will pass or be made from, in, through, and into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial and other places next hereinafter mentioned, or some of them; that is to say, Horley and Charlwood, in the county of Surrey; Ifield, Crawley, Rusper, Beeding otherwise Seale, Upper Beeding or Seale, Lower Beeding, and Horsham, in the county of Sussex.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said intended railway, and the lands and property to be authorised to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands and property will, on or before the first day of March 1840, be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Surrey, in Lambeth, and at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Sussex, in Lewes; and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as shall relate to each of the aforesaid parishes, or such of them as may be traversed by the line of the said intended railway; together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, on or before the first day of April 1840, with the parish clerks of those parishes respectively, for the inspection of all persons concerned.

And notice is also hereby given, that it is intended to apply for power in the said Bill, to levy tolls, rates, or duties, on passengers and goods, and also on carriages passing along, through, or over the same railway; and also for power to deviate in the construction of the same to any extent, not exceeding one hundred yards, and in passing through any city or town, to any extent not exceeding ten yards, on either side of the line thereof delineated or intended to be delineated in the said plans, so to be deposited as aforesaid; and also for power to alter, vary, and divert highways, roads, tram-roads, paths, passages, rivers, canals, brooks, streams, sewers, waters, and water-courses within the said several parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places aforesaid, or some of them.—Dated this tenth day of February 1840.

And notice is hereby also given, that maps or plans and sections describing the line and levels of the said intended railway, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, will be, or will have been, deposited, on or before the first day of March in this present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Kent, at his office, in Maidstone, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Sussex, at his office in Lewes; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each parish, in or through which the said railway and works is and are intended to be made, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the first day of April next, with the parish clerk of each such parish.—Dated this fourteenth day of February 1840.

John P. Fearon, Temple.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, diverging from the proposed line of the South Eastern Railway, at or near a certain place called Postern, in the parish of Tunbridge, in the county of Kent, and terminating at or near a certain field near to Maidstone Lock on the river Medway, in the parish of Maidstone, in the same county; which said railway is intended to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places of Tunbridge, Tudeley, Capel, Hadlow, East Peckham, West Peckham, Nettleded, Yalding, West Farleigh, East Farleigh, Wateringbury, Mereworth, Teston, Barnjet otherwise West Barming, East Barming otherwise Barming, and Maidstone, or some of them, in the said county of Kent; and it is intended to apply for power in and by the said intended Act to deviate in the construction of the said intended railway to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of the line or lines thereof laid out, or intended to be laid out, on the plans of such railway deposited, or to be deposited, with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Kent, as hereinafter mentioned, except where the intention to deviate to a more limited extent shall be expressed on the said plans.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections describing the line and levels of the said proposed railway, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, will be, or will have been, deposited, for public inspection, on or before the first day of March in this present year, with the clerk of the peace for the said county of Kent, at his office in Maidstone, and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the said parishes hereinbefore mentioned, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the first day of April next, with the parish clerks of such of the same parishes respectively as will be traversed by the line of the said intended railway.

And it is intended by the said Act, so to be applied for as aforesaid, to incorporate a company for carrying into effect the said railway, with power to levy and raise tolls and duties for and in respect of the use thereof.

John P. Fearon, Temple.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the line of the intended South Eastern Railway, in the parish of Ashford, in the county of Kent, passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Ashford, Willesborough, Kennington, Wye, Bilting, Boughton Aluph, Godmersham, Crundale otherwise Crundell otherwise Crundall, Chilham, Chartham, Horton, Milton otherwise Milton Chapel otherwise Milton, near Canterbury, Harbledown otherwise Saint Michael Harbledown, or some of them, in the county of Kent; Thanington otherwise Thanington, Saint Dunstan, Holy Cross Westgate otherwise Holy Cross Westgate without the walls of the city of Canterbury, Hackington otherwise Saint Stephen Canterbury, Fordwich, or some of them, in the city and borough of Canterbury, and county of the same city, and in the county of Kent, or one of them; Sturry, Westbeer otherwise Westbere, Littlebourne, Chislett otherwise Chislet, Stodmarsh, Wickhambreaux otherwise Wickhambreux otherwise Wickham, Preston-street otherwise Preston next Wingham, Stourmouth, Elmstone, Saint Nicholas otherwise Saint Nicholas at Wade, Sarre otherwise Sarre, Ash next Sandwich, Monkton Minster, Saint Lawrence, Ramsgate otherwise Saint George Ramsgate, or some of them, in the county of Kent; and terminating at or near the Royal Harbour, in the parish of Ramsgate otherwise Saint George Ramsgate, in the said county of Kent; and also for making and maintaining a branch railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing from and out of the said last mentioned railway, in the parish of Ash, next Sandwich, in the county of Kent, and to proceed from thence, and to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Ash, next Sandwich, Preston-street otherwise Preston next Wingham, Elmstone, Woodnesborough otherwise Winsborough, Saint Mary the Virgin Sandwich, Sandwich, or some of them, in the county of Kent; and terminating in the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin Sandwich, in the said county of Kent.

Also to make and maintain another branch railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing from and out of the said intended railway first above mentioned, in the parish of Holy Cross Westgate otherwise Holy Cross Westgate without the walls of the city of Canterbury, in the city and borough of Canterbury, and county of the same city, and in the county of Kent, or one of them; passing from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Holy Cross Westgate otherwise Holy Cross Westgate without the walls of the city of Canterbury aforesaid, and Hackington otherwise Saint Stephen aforesaid, or one of them, and terminating by a junction with the Carterbury and Whitstable railway, in the parish of Hackington otherwise Saint Stephen, in the city and borough of Canterbury, and county of the same city, and in the county of Kent, or one of them.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the line or lines, and levels of the said proposed railway, and branch railways, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands will be, or will have been deposited, for public inspection, on or before the first day of March in this present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of the city of Canterbury, at his office, in Canterbury, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Kent, at his office in Maidstone; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each of the said parishes hereinbefore mentioned, will be deposited, on or before the first day of April next, with the parish clerks of such of the said parishes respectively, as will be traversed by the line of the said intended railway, or branch railways respectively; and it is intended to apply for power by the Act so to be applied for as aforesaid, to deviate in the construction of the said railway, and branch railways respectively, to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of the line or lines thereof laid out, or intended to be laid out, on the plans of the said railway, and branch railways respectively, so deposited or to be deposited as aforesaid, except where the intention to deviate from the said line or lines, to a more limited extent, shall be expressed on the said plans.

And it is also intended, under the powers of the Act so to be applied for as aforesaid, to alter and divert the line or course of the navigable river or canal named the Stour, in the several parishes of Westbeer otherwise Westbere, Stodmarsh, Ash next Sandwich, and Monkton, in the said county of Kent; and the line or course of the navigable river or canal named the Little Stour, in the several parishes of Wickhambreaux otherwise Wickhambreux otherwise Wickham and Stourmouth, in the said county of Kent, to the extent shewn, or intended to be shewn, on the plans so deposited, or to be deposited, as aforesaid.

And it is also intended by the said Act, so to be applied for as aforesaid, to incorporate a company for carrying into effect the purposes hereinbefore mentioned, with power to levy and raise tolls and duties for and in respect of the use of the railway and branch railways, and the works and conveniences to be connected therewith, or some of them.

John P. Fearon, Temple.

Newcastle upon Tyne and Carlisle Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of four several Acts of Parliament, the first of them passed in the 10th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a railway or tram-road from the town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in the county of the town of Newcastle upon Tyne, to the city of Carlisle, in the county of Cumberland, with a branch thereout;" the second of such Acts passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to accelerate the raising by the Newcastle upon Tyne and Carlisle Railway Company of a certain sum, for the more speedy prosecuting of the undertaking;" the third of such Acts passed in the Parliament commencing in the fifth, and ending in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to authorize the Newcastle upon Tyne and Carlisle Railway Company to make an additional branch railway or tram-road, and for other purposes connected with their undertaking;" and the fourth of such Acts passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to authorize the Newcastle upon Tyne and Carlisle Railway Company to raise an additional sum of money for the purposes of their undertaking."

And that it is sought by the said intended Act to extend the the time limited, and the powers given by the said first and third Acts, and each or either of them, for the purchase of lands, and for the completion of the said railways and branches, and the works connected therewith, so far as regards certain portions of the said railway and branches, situate in the several parishes or parochial chapelries, townships, hamlets, or places, of Saint Nicholas, Saint John, Elswick, and Westgate, or some or one of them, in the borough and county of Newcastle upon Tyne; and of Haltwhistle and Melkridge, or some or one of them, in the county of Northumberland.

And that it is sought by the said intended Act to obtain power to deviate from the main line of the said railway, authorized to be made by the said first-mentioned Act, and to substitute a new line for a portion of the line originally authorized to be made and executed; such deviation and substitution commencing in a field, in the township of Elswick aforesaid, called Whitewell Field, and terminating at, and communicating with, a public street, or highway, called the Forth Banks, in the said borough and county of Newcastle upon Tyne, and being made within the said parishes or parochial chapelries, townships, or places of Elswick, Westgate, Saint John, and Saint Nicholas, in the said borough and county of Newcastle upon Tyne; and to obtain power to make a branch railway from the said substituted line of railway, commencing at the head of the water works Ravine, and terminating in the line of railway by the said first-mentioned Acts authorized to be made at the foot of such ravine, such branch railway being made within the township of Elswick aforesaid, and in the parish of Saint Nicholas aforesaid, or the one of them.

And that it is sought by the said intended Act, to obtain power to alter and improve the line of the said railway, by deviating from the original line by the said first-mentioned Act authorized to be made, and to make a substituted line of railway in the several townships of Fenton and Faugh, and Hayton, in the parish of Hayton, in the county of Cumberland, and in the township of Upper Denton, in the parish of Upper Denton, in the said county of Cumberland.

And that it is sought by the said intended Act to ratify and confirm several alterations and improvements in the line of the said railway, which have been already made and executed with the consent of the land owners through lands situate without the limits, by the said first and third Acts authorized, and to confirm the purchases which have been, or shall be, made for the purpose of such alterations and improvements, and to legalize the conveyance of the lands required for such alterations and improvements; which said alterations and improvements have been made in the several townships, chapelries, hamlets, or places of Lipwood, Heydon, Ridley, Morallee, Thorngraston, and Haltwhistle, in the county of Northumberland; and in the several townships of Hayton, Talkin, Brampton, Naworth, and Wetheral, in the county of Cumberland; and in the several parishes of Warden and Haltwhistle, in the county of Northumberland; and in the several parishes of Brampton, Hayton, and Wetheral, in the county of Cumberland, or some or one of them; or otherwise to obtain powers to make a substituted line or lines of railway, in the several parishes, townships, chapelries, hamlets, or places above-mentioned.

And that it is intended by the said Act to take powers to alter and divert the levels and courses of a common highway, in the township of Corby, in the parish of Wetheral, in the county of Cumberland, of a public highway, in the township of Naworth, in the parish of Brampton, and of a common highway, and an occupation carriage road, which severally cross the line of the said railway, in the township of Nether Denton, in the parish of Nether Denton, in the county of Cumberland; and also to alter and divert the level and course of a common highway, in the township of Upper Denton, in the parish of Upper Denton, in the county of Cumberland; and also to alter and divert the levels and courses of the Greenhead turnpike road, and of a common highway, respectively situate in the township of Blenkinsopp, in the parish of Haltwhistle, in the said county of Northumberland; and also to alter and divert the level and course of a public highway crossing the said railway, in the township of Thorngraston, in the said parish of Haltwhistle, in the said county of Northumberland; and also to alter and divert the level and course of a common highway and turnpike road crossing the said railway, in the township of Dilston, in the parish of Corbridge, in the county of Northumberland; and also power to alter and divert the level and course of an occupation carriage road, leading from the Scotswood Road to or towards the Newcastle Water Works; and also the level and course of a public footway, and of a public highway, leading from the Scotswood Road aforesaid, to or towards the River Tyne; such occupation carriage road and public footway and highway being respectively situate in the township of Elswick aforesaid; and also power to stop up or to divert the course of a private carriage road, called the Lead Factory Lane, and the public footway over the same, respectively situate in the said townships of Elswick and Westgate, or the one of them; and also power to purchase lands for the several purposes above specified.

And that it is proposed by the said Act to confirm all purchases which have been made under the powers contained in the said first and third Acts, authorizing the purchase of an additional quantity of land, not exceeding thirty statute acres, in such place or places as should be deemed eligible or convenient for the purpose of making, erecting, forming, and providing any coal or other yards, staiths, wharfs, machinery, messuages, warehouses, and other buildings and conveniences for the purpose of receiving, lodging, depositing, or keeping any goods or merchandizes conveyed upon the said railways and branches, or for making any convenient roads, avenues, or ways leading thereto; and also to enlarge and extend the said powers and the time for acting thereon; and also powers to purchase an additional quantity of land for the purposes of stations, yards, depots, warehouses, roads, and other the purposes above specified, upon, or near, and for the use of, the said railways already formed, and of the railways above mentioned, or any of them; and also to alter, vary, and amend several enactments and provisions contained in the first and third Acts.

And that it is also intended to make provisions in the said Act for levying, collecting, and taking certain tolls, rates, or duties for passage along the said railway or railways, and for the use of the said warehouses, wharfs, depots, quays, landing places, works, and conveniences; and also to obtain powers to alter and vary the tolls, rates, or duties authorized to be received or taken upon or for the use of the said railways and other works; all which said powers are intended to be carried into effect by a company already incorporated by the Act of Parliament first above-mentioned, and called the Newcastle upon Tyne and Carlisle Railway Company, by means of monies already authorized to be raised by the said Acts of Parliament already passed, or some of them.

And notice is hereby also given, that maps or plans, and sections and duplicates thereof, respectively, describing the lines or situations and levels of the said intended new or substituted railway or railways, and works, and the lands in or upon which the same shall be made, together with books of reference containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the said lands respectively, will be deposited at the offices of the several Clerks of the Peace for the counties of Cumberland and Northumberland, and of the county of the town of Newcastle upon Tyne, respectively situate in the city of Carlisle, and in the borough and county of Newcastle upon Tyne, on or before Saturday the 29th day of February instant; and that a copy of so much of the said maps or plans and sections so to be deposited as aforesaid, as relates to each parish through which the said intended new or substituted railway or railways, and works, is or are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, on or before Wednesday the first day of April next, with the several parish clerks of the said parishes of Hayton, Upper Denton, Nether Denton, Brampton, and Wetheral, all in the county of Cumberland; and with the several parish clerks of the said parishes of Warden, Haltwhistle, and Corbridge, in the county of Northumberland; and with the parish clerks of the said parishes of Saint Nicholas, and of the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint John, Newcastle upon Tyne, at their respective residences. Dated this 4th day of February, 1840.

TO be sold by auction, free from duty, under the order of the major part of the Commissioners in a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Binney and Thomas Binney, of Sheffield, Merchants, at the Auction-mart of Messrs. T. N. Bardwell and Son, in High-street, Sheffield, on Wednesday the 11th day of March 1840, at five o'clock in the afternoon, subject to conditions;

The freehold and leasehold estates of the said bankrupts, situate in the Hartshead, North Church-street, and West-bar-green, in Sheffield aforesaid, consisting of Lot 1. The capital freehold messuage, exceedingly commodious and well built, fronting to Hartshead, in the occupation of Mr. F. C. Fairbank and Mr. John Webster, together with the dwelling-house adjoining, in the occupation of Mr. A. C. Branson; an excellent four-stalled stable, a counting-house and large warehouse well chambered, with arched cellaring under the whole, and six hearths or shops adjoining; also a recently erected cast-steel furnace, with breaking-up room, pot-floor, and clay place; also a converting steel-furnace, with pots, all in excellent repair, and a very large iron and steel warehouse attached, with charcoal and other sheds; also a large vacant piece of ground, having an excellent fronting to North Church-street. Of the site of the above premises, 2208 superficial square yards are leasehold, for a term of 500 years, at only a nominal rent.

Lot 2. The three freehold dwelling-houses situate in, and fronting to, West-bar-green, in Sheffield aforesaid, in the respective occupations of George Ibbotson, Thomas Hague, and Joseph Hague, and the seven smaller houses in the yard behind.

The lots may be viewed and further particulars had on application to Messrs. Rodgers and Son, or Mr. Albert Smith, Solicitors.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Samuel Beeny, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Mercer and Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 10th day of March next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the offices of Messrs. Ingleby and Wragge, on Bennett's-hill, in Birmingham aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits at law or in equity, or other proceedings, for the recovery of certain legacies and property given and bequeathed to, or for the benefit of, the said bankrupt's wife (the particulars whereof will be stated at such meeting), or to the said assignee accepting any sum or sums of money by way of compromise of his right and interest in and to the said legacies and property, or making such arrangement in regard to the same, and the relinquishment of any part or parts thereof, in favour or for the benefit of the said bankrupt's wife, or otherwise, as may be thought advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of all or any of the outstanding debts due and owing to the said bankrupt's estate to such person or persons, and upon such terms as the said assignee may think right; and also to the said assignee making such compensation to the accountant employed by him for his past and future services in and relating to the affairs of the said bankrupt, as to the said assignee may seem just; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignee to take such measures, with a view to the final settlement of the said bankrupt's estate, as to the said assignee may seem beneficial and proper; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Joseph Saville, of Oldham, and of Ashton-under-Lyne, both in the county of Lancaster, Linen and Woollen-Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Saturday the 7th day of March next, at ten of the clock in the forenoon, at the office of Mr. John Norris, Solicitor, No. 3, Marsden-street, Manchester, in the said county, in order to assent to, ratify, allow, and confirm, or dissent from, all and every the acts, sales, payments, arrangements, and proceedings of the said assignees, under the said Fiat, for the benefit and protection and in the disposal of the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, the costs, charges, and expences incurred in and about, and preparatory to, several meetings of the said bankrupt's creditors, previous to the issuing of the said Fiat, and in and about two certain indentures of assignment, for the benefit of creditors, prepared for execution by the said bankrupt, and in and about a certain Fiat in Bankruptcy, dated the 2d day of August 1839, awarded and issued against the said Joseph Saville on the petition of Thomas Smith, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Linen-Merchant; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, the costs and expences incurred in watching the said bankrupt's premises, and for the discovery, security, and protection of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, previous and subsequent to the issuing of the said Fiat now in prosecution, and other costs, charges, and expences incurred preparatory to, and connected with, the last-mentioned Fiat; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees proceeding with a certain action already commenced against a certain person, who will be named at such meeting, for recovery of a certain sum of money received by such person, and belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, or otherwise discontinuing, arranging, settling, compromising, or referring such action; and to and from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any other actions, suits, or other proceedings, at law or in equity, or bankruptcy, for or concerning the recovery or protection of the said bankrupt's estate; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Benjamin Thompson, of Great Yarmouth, in the county of Norfolk, Steam Packet Proprietor, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 10th day of March next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the office of Mr. Holt, Solicitor, in Great Yarmouth aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees prosecuting or continuing certain actions at law which were commenced by the said bankrupt before the issuing of the said Fiat, or to the said assignees abandoning such actions, and commencing fresh actions against certain underwriters, for the recovery of certain sums of money due to the bankrupt's estate, on a policy of insurance on a vessel lost at sea; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees adopting proceedings in the Court of Bankruptcy, or otherwise, for obtaining admission of proof of the debt or debts due to the estate of the said bankrupt from the estate or estates of any or either of the said underwriters, who have or hath become bankrupt, in case the admission of such proof shall be objected to or disputed when tendered; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees of the said Benjamin Thompson agreeing to pay to the mortgagee of the said vessel lost at sea the amount of his mortgage debt, or any part thereof, out of any moneys to be received or recovered of or from the said underwriters, or any of them, or from their, or any of their, estates and effects, upon certain terms to be agreed upon between the said assignees of the said Benjamin Thompson and the said mortgagee, and which will be explained at the said meeting; and also to the said assignees of the said Benjamin Thompson compounding with any debtor or debtors to his estate, and receiving part of any debt or debts in discharge of the whole; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said Benjamin Thompson as to them shall seem most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Martha Davies and Mary Jones, late of Upper High-street, in the town of Taunton, in the county of Somerset, Grocers, Tea-Dealers, Bacon and Cheese Factors, and Copartners (carrying on business under the firm of Davies and Jones), are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on Friday the 13th day of March next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the George Inn, in Taunton aforesaid, to consider the propriety of carrying into effect a contract entered into by the said assignees with Richard Ball, of Taunton aforesaid, Merchant, by the direction of the creditors of the said bankrupts given at a meeting held in pursuance of a notice in the London Gazette of the 4th day of June 1839, for the sale of the bankrupts' customary freehold estate, of which estate they then understood the said Richard Ball was the mortgagee, but the assignees having been since informed that the said Richard Ball and Eleanor Knevett, of Wellington, in the said county of Somerset, Spinster, are mortgagees at law of only one moiety of the estate, and mortgagees in equity of the other moiety thereof; the said assignees are desirous of laying these facts before the creditors, and having their direction and authority either to file a bill in equity against the said Richard Ball and Eleanor Knevett, or to carry the said contract with the said Richard Ball into effect.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Barker and Samuel Adams, of the town and county of the town of Nottingham, Hosiery, Lace-Manufacturers, and Copartners, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Friday the 13th day of March next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the George the Fourth Inn, in Nottingham aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the stock in trade of the said bankrupts, now remaining in their possession, either in one lot, or in parcels, and either by public auction or private contract, and for ready money or upon credit, and to confirm and allow all such sales of goods as have already been made, either for cash or by way of credit; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the preservation of any part of the estate or effects of the said bankrupts; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing or prosecuting certain persons, who will be named at the said meeting, or any or either of them, or any other person or persons, any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery of any debt or debts, sum or sums of money due to the estate of the said bankrupts; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, or submitting to arbitration, releasing, or otherwise adjusting any debt or debts due and owing as aforesaid from the respective parties, or either of them, or from any other persons or person to the said estate, or any other debt or debts due to the said bankrupts' estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees consenting or agreeing to or for any persons or person, the holders of any bills or bill of exchange, drawn by the said bankrupts upon, and accepted or indorsed by, certain persons, or any or either of them, or by any other persons or person, to accept of any composition from the said certain persons, or any of them, or from any other person or persons for, or on account of the said bill or bills of exchange; and to release the said certain persons, or any of them, or any other persons or person from the same, without relinquishing the said bankrupts' or their estate, and without relinquishing the right of the holders or holder of the said bills or bill of exchange, to prove upon or the right of the said holders of the said bills of exchange to receive a dividend or dividends from, the estate of the said bankrupts; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise adjusting any debt or debts due and owing from the estate of the said bankrupts to any person or persons, or any claim or claims, dispute or disputes relating thereto, or any other dispute or disputes, claim or claims whatsoever, which shall or may arise with, against, or upon the said assignees, in anywise connected with the estate and effects, and settlement of the affairs of the said bankrupts; also to ratify and confirm all sales, agreements, payments, compositions, arrangements, and other acts and deeds, matters and things, which shall, previously to the said proposed meeting, have been made, done, or entered into, or shall hereafter be entered into, by the said assignees, in connection with the said bankrupts' estate and effects; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to adopt such other steps as they may be advised or think necessary for the interest and benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupts; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that Declarations were filed on the 17th day of February 1840, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by
