AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of March 1840,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong for ten years Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches," some time since made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, stating that when the last census was taken, the parish of Walcot Saint Swithin, in the county of Somerset, and diocese of Bath and Wells, contained a population of twenty-six thousand and sixty-one persons, which has since considerably increased; that there are, in the said parish (besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to one thousand and three hundred persons,) three chapels, viz. Trinity Chapel, which affords accommodation to two thousand and sixteen persons, including one thousand eight hundred and ten free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; Saint Saviour's Chapel, which affords accommodation to one thousand and ninety-six persons, including five hundred and thirty-four free seats appropriated to the use of the poor, and Christ's Church Chapel, which affords accommodation to one thousand five hundred persons, including one thousand free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; that the said three chapels have been consecrated, and Divine service is regularly performed therein; that there are also four chapels, called Proprietary Chapels, in the said parish, which together afford accommodation to two thousand five hundred and sixty persons; and the said Commissioners further represented to your Majesty that having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appeared to them to be expedient that the said parish should be divided into three distinct and separate parishes, under the sixteenth section of the said Act, passed in the fiftieth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and that the said parishes should be respectively named the parish of Walcot Saint Swithin, the parish of Saint Saviour and Trinity parish, and that the boundaries of the said new parishes of Saint Saviour and Trinity, with boundaries as set forth in the said representation, and more particularly delineated in the map thereunto annexed; and the said Commissioners further repre-
