TUESDAY, APRIL 21, 1840.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 3d day of April 1840,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that, for the purpose of providing the bishop of any diocese with a more suitable and convenient residence than that which now belongs to his see, sanction should be given for purchases or exchanges of houses or lands, or for the sale of lands belonging to the respective sees; and that so much of the sum of six thousand pounds, recovered by the late Bishop of Bristol for damages done to the episcopal residence at Bristol, and of its accumulations, as may remain after deducting proper expences, together with the money arising from the sale of the site of such residence, if sold, be applied to the purchase or erection of a residence for the bishop of the see of Bristol and Gloucester:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette.

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, towards carrying into effect the recommendation in the said Act contained, with respect to the residence of the bishops of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas a negotiation has been commenced and is still pending for the purchase, by the Right Reverend James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, of a certain estate at Stapleton, in the county of Gloucester, and lying near to the city of Bristol, with a house, offices, and out-buildings thereupon, and forming part of the said estate; which house, offices, and out-buildings will afford a fit and convenient residence for the said bishop and his successors, bishops of Gloucester and Bristol; and we are of opinion, that the purchase of the said estate will be beneficial to the said see:

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the said James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, or his successors bishops of Gloucester and Bristol, may be authorised and empowered to purchase and take a conveyance of the said estate, at and for such price or sum as shall appear to us, upon due inquiry, to be just and reasonable; and that the purchase money so to be fixed and to be paid for the same shall and may be provided in the several modes hereinafter stated.

“ And we recommend and propose that so much of the monies recovered by Robert late Bishop of Bristol, for damages done to the episcopal residence at Bristol, as remained after deducting proper expenses, and also the monies which arose from the sale of the site of the said residence, under our authority and direction, by virtue of an Order of His late Majesty in Council, dated the fifth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, all which moneys are now standing to our credit at the Bank of England to an account intituled “ Bristol Palace account,” together with all accumulations thereof, shall, in the first instance, be applied by us in part of such purchase money.

“ And we further recommend and propose, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, that the said James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and his successors bishops of Gloucester and Bristol, may be authorised and empowered, with our consent, signified under our common seal, in each particular case, to sell and dispose of, at and for such prices and sums respectively as shall, upon due inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable, and duly to convey to the purchasers thereof respectively, all the right, title, and interest of him, the said bishop, and his successors bishops of Gloucester and Bristol, in and to so much and such parts of the lands, tenements, and other hereditaments now belonging to the said see, as, together with such proceeds as aforesaid, will make up, as nearly as may be, a sum sufficient in the whole for completing the purchase of the said estate, at Stapleton, as aforesaid, and for putting the said house, offices, and out-buildings thereon, in proper repair and condition as an episcopal residence, and for paying the costs, charges, and expenses of and attending the said purchase, and also of and attending all such sales as aforesaid; and that the proceeds of every such sale shall, from time to time, be paid by each purchaser respectively into the Bank of England to our credit, to an account intituled “ Account with the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,” to be by us applied as aforesaid; and that it shall not be incumbent on any such purchaser, taking a conveyance with our consent signified as aforesaid, to ascertain that the sale of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments to him conveyed is requisite for the purpose hereby contemplated, nor shall any such purchaser, after paying his purchase money to our credit as aforesaid, be responsible for, or be bound to look to, the due application of such money.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that, upon the completion of the purchase of the said estate, at Stapleton, the said house, offices, and out-buildings shall become and be an episcopal house of residence of the said James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and his successors bishops of Gloucester and Bristol, and shall, together with the remainder of the said estate, be by them held and enjoyed in right of the said see of Gloucester and Bristol for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the said see of Gloucester and Bristol, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.

“ All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

“ In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-sixth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the registrars of the two several registries of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Bristol and Gloucester.

C. C. Greville.

HEIR AT LAW WANTED.

ANY person or persons claiming to be the heir or heirs at law of Mary Burgess, of Ladbroke, in the county of Warwick, Widow, who died in the month of April 1812, are requested to apply (by letter), stating the nature of his or their relationship, to Mr. William Cox, Solicitor, Daventry, Northamptonshire.

The said Mary Burgess was the only child of Richard Fisher, of the town of Buckingham, Gentleman, who was the only child of Richard Fisher, of Twyford, in the county of Bucks, by Elizabeth, his wife; Richard Fisher, the son, was baptized at Twyford, on the 8th June 1729, and Richard Fisher, the father, was buried there, in July 1744, but the time and place of his birth, and the Christian names of his parents, are unknown.—Daventry, April 16, 1840.

WHEREAS by indenture, dated the 26th day of January 1771, Robert Birch, late of the city of Dublin, demised and released to John Doolan, late of Shinroue, in the King's County, his heirs and assigns, all that and those the towns and lands of Garrafyn, otherwise Garrafyn, otherwise Garrafna, containing, by common estimation, 175 acres, rough and smooth, were the same more or less, being part of the manor of Villiers, in the Queen's County; to hold the same, with the appurtenances, unto the said John Doolan, his heirs and assigns, for the life of James Stephens, late of Borris, in the Queen's County, and for and during the life and lives of such other person and persons as, by virtue of the covenant for renewal therein contained, should, from time to time, successively for ever thereafter be added to the term of the said demise, at the yearly rent of £126, late currency, payable half yearly, as therein mentioned; and in which said indenture is contained a covenant by the said Robert Birch, that upon the death of the said James Stephens, or upon the death or failure of the other, cestui que vies, whose lives should be added to the said lease, pursuant to the provisions thereof, or either or any of them, which should first happen, and upon the said John Doolan, his heirs or assigns, nominating the life of some other person to be inserted in the place and stead of the person so happening first to die within six months after the death of such person, then the said Robert Birch, his heirs and assigns, should, within the said six months, add and insert to the term of the said lease, the life of such person so to be nominated, he the said John Doolan, his heirs and assigns, first paying to the said Robert Birch, his heirs and assigns, the sum of £10, late currency, as a fine for renewal, over and above the said yearly rent, and in like manner, from time to time, successively for ever, upon failure of any other life in the said lease then nominated, and for ever thereafter to be nominated successively, upon the payment of £10, late currency, above the yearly rent thereby reserved, and all arrears thereof; and whereas the fee and inheritance of the said manor of Villiers, including the said lands of Garrafyn, with the appurtenances comprised in the said lease, have come to, and are now vested in, the Most Noble Richard Plantagenet, Duke of Buckingham and Chandos; and whereas the rent and the reversion immediately expectant on the said lease so granted to the said John Doolan, and all the estate and interest of the said Robert Birch therein, and all estates in the said manor prior to the said lease so made to the said John Doolan, have come to, and are now vested in, the said Richard Plantagenet, Duke of Buckingham and Chandos; and whereas the said James Stephens is long since dead, and all the cestui que vies inserted in any lease or renewal under which the said Robert Birch, or those deriving under him held the said lands are long since dead: now, I, the said Richard Plantagenet, Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, hereby give notice to all persons entitled to the benefit of the said lease, and of the covenant of renewal therein, that I require them, and each of them, to renew the said lease, by naming three lives to be inserted in a renewal thereof, and to prepare and tender to me for execution a renewal of the said lease, and to pay such rent and fines as are or shall become due and owing to me; and in case such person or persons as are entitled to the benefit of such covenant for renewal shall neglect or refuse to comply with this notice, I shall take proceedings for the recovery of the possession of said premises discharged of such lease, and the benefit of such covenant for renewal.

Given under my hand this 13th day of December 1839, BUCKINGHAM and CHANDOS.

To the representatives and assignees of the said John Doolan, and all others concerned.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, pursuant to a Decree of the Court of Chancery of the county palatine of Lancaster, made in a cause Jolly v. Forshaw, before William Shawe, Esq. Registrar of the said Court, at Nickson's Hotel, in Blackpool, in the said county, on Thursday the 7th day of May 1840, at six o'clock in the evening, in the following or in such other lots as shall be then agreed upon, and subject to such conditions as shall be then produced;

Lot 1. A messuage and shop, situate at Blackpool aforesaid (fronting the sea), in the occupation of Mr. John Watkinson, together with the shop and billiard-room thereto adjoining, in the occupation of Mr. Cooke, Bookseller, and Mrs. Forshaw; and the spacious yard and vacant ground behind the same.
