

county of Southampton and diocese of Winchester, contained a population of 2728 persons :

“ That, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to 390 persons, there is one chapel, recently erected, at West-end, in the said parish, called St. James's Chapel, which affords accommodation to 611 persons; including 381 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor :

“ That the said chapel has been consecrated, and Divine service is regularly performed therein :

“ Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said chapel, called St. James's Chapel, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,” and that such district should be named St. James's District, West-end, with boundaries as follows :

“ The district is to comprehend all the eastern part of the parish of South Stoneham, commencing at the northern extremity of Allington-lane, at the point marked A on the map, being bounded on the north by the parish of Bishop's Stoke, on or towards the east by the parishes of Dürley and Botley, on or towards the south by the parishes of Bursledon Hound and St. Mary Extra, to a point near Merry Oak; thence proceeding northward along the boundary line that divides the said parish of Saint Mary Extra from the parish of South Stoneham, to a stone on the Northam-bridge-road, marked on the west side S. S. on the east St. J. W. E.; thence proceeding northward through the parish of South Stoneham across Bitterne-grove-lawn into Mouse-hole-lane; thence along the centre of the lane or road up to Town-hill lodge; thence proceeding in a north eastern direction along the centre of Town-hill-lane, across the Botley-road, and along the centre of Allington-lane to where it enters the parish of Bishop's Stoke, where the boundary commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated in the map hereunto annexed, and therein coloured green :

“ That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should forthwith be received by, and belong to, the Minister of the said chapel :

“ That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Winchester has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, in testimony of which the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument :

“ Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the above mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
