TUESDAY, MAY 19, 1840.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 12, 1840.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Monday the 25th instant, at two o'clock, to celebrate Her Majesty's Birth-day.

N. B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars.

*Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace,
May 19, 1840.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that the carriages coming to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, on Monday the 25th of May, are to fall into the line at the top of St. James's-street, come down the left hand side, and enter at the iron gate nearest to the Palace, set down at the Arcade, return by the iron gate nearest to Marlborough-house, and pass through Pall-mall into St. James's-square, by George-street. When called, they are to pass from St. James's-square, by Charles-street, into Regent-street, Jermyn-street, come down St. James's-street as before, take up, and go away through Pall-mall.

No hackney carriages will be permitted to come within the gates.

For all persons having the privilege of the entree, tickets will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, on Friday next, between the hours of eleven and three o'clock; their carriages are to enter the gate at Constitution-hill, proceed down St. James's-park, through Stable-yard, into the Ambassadors-court, set down, and go out into Cleveland-row. The carriages of the Ambassadors, Foreign Ministers, Cabinet Ministers, and Great Officers of State may afterwards wait in the Ambassadors-court, and those of all other persons having the entree may wait in Stable-yard or St. James's-park till called; they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, and pass away up the left hand side of St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket, to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and Stable-yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshals in attendance; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entree by any other approach to the Palace than the gates last mentioned.

WILLIAM TURNELL.
JAMES COLE.

TO be sold, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Fiat in Bankruptcy, awarded and issued and now in prosecution against John Nicholson and Matthew Nicholson, of Sheffield, in the county of York, Manufacturers of Cutlery, Dealers and Chapmen, and Copartners, by public auction, by Mr. William Stevenson, at his auction room, in the East-parade, in Sheffield aforesaid, on the 13th day of June next, at four o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, and subject to such conditions as will be then produced;

All those leasehold messuages or dwelling-houses, with the warehouses, workshops, and other buildings and erections thereto belonging, situate and being in Suffolk-road, in the parish of Sheffield aforesaid, and which were late in the possession of the said John and Matthew Nicholson; the scite of the premises contains 1,463 superficial square yards, or thereabouts, and is held for a term of 99 years from the 25th March 1836, under the yearly rent of £11, payable half yearly.

And also to be sold at the same time, at a separate price, all the fixtures now in the said warehouses and workshops, comprising a mahogany desk, fitted up with drawers, brass railing, wood partition, and seat, counters with drawers, workboards, benches, shelves with partitions, gas fittings, &c. complete and ready for use.

For further particulars, application is requested to be made to Mr. Luke Palfreyman, of Sheffield aforesaid, Solicitor to the assignees under the said fiat, or to Messrs. Brookfield and Gould, Solicitors, Sheffield.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Isaiah Baker, of Ettingshall, in the parish of Sedgley, in the county of Stafford, Screw-Forger, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet on Tuesday the 9th day of June next, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the Swan Hotel, in Wolverhampton, in the said county of Stafford, to decide upon accepting or refusing such offer of composition as was made to the creditors assembled at a meeting held at the Swan Inn, in Wolverhampton aforesaid, on Saturday the 16th day of May instant, by the said Isaiah Baker, or his friends.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Samuel Rawnsley, of Lidgett-green, in the parish of Bradford, in the county of York, Stuff-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet on the 11th day of June next, at four of the clock in the afternoon, at the Sun Inn, in Bradford aforesaid, to decide upon accepting or refusing any offer of composition already made, or then and there to be made to them, by the said Samuel Rawnsley, or his friends.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Richard Otley and Thomas Otley, of Sheffield, and of Adlehill, in the city of London, Manufacturers of Britannia Metal Wares, and Copartners in trade, are requested to meet the assignee of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on the 10th day of June next, at ten of the clock in the forenoon, at the offices of Mr. Stanforth, Solicitor, Castle-street, Sheffield, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying, out of the said bankrupts' estate, fifteen pounds, advanced 28th July 1838, to the bankrupts' workmen, at the time of their bankruptcy, for completing certain goods, partly manufactured, and then lying in an unfinished state in their workshops and warehouse, and which were afterwards sold for the benefit of the creditors.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Nicholas Price Wood, of Burslem, in the county of Stafford (trading at Manchester, in the county of Lancaster), Banker, Dealer and Chapman (one of the members, partners, shareholders, and proprietors of and in the Banking Company carrying on trade at Manchester aforesaid, and elsewhere, under the title of the Imperial Bank of England), are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Tuesday the 9th day of June next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon of the same day, at the Commissioners' rooms, in Saint James's square, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the assignees selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, at a valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, as to the said assignees, shall seem most beneficial and advantageous to the said bankrupt's estate, all and every the freehold and leasehold property, reversionary estates and interests, and all other the real and personal estate and effects whatsoever of the said bankrupt, either in one or more lot or lots, and at one or at several times, either wholly or partly for ready money, or for payment on a future day or days, with or without taking any security of any kind for the payment of the purchase money, or any part thereof, as to the assignees shall seem proper, and without the assignees being answerable or liable for any loss which may occur by selling on credit without taking security; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, at the entire risk of the said bankrupt's estate, and without being liable to make good any depreciation in price or value which may occur, buying in and reselling, either by public auction or private contract as aforesaid, and with the like powers and authorities to resell, by auction or private contract, and of buying in without being liable for loss or depreciation which may arise, all or any part of the real and personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt which may be so offered for sale as aforesaid, in case the said assignees shall think it expedient so to do; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving time to any debtors to the bankrupt's estate, whether upon mortgage, bond, or simple contract, for payment of the debts owing by them respectively, either by instalments or otherwise upon such terms and in such manner, either with or without taking any security for the payment, as the assignees shall deem most advantageous to the said bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and instituting, in case they shall think fit so to do, suits in equity against certain persons, who will be named at such meeting, and afterwards settling any such suit, upon such terms and conditions as the assignees may think proper; also to sanction and allow the employment by the assignees of an accountant to collect and get in the debts owing to the said bankrupt's estate, and to investigate his affairs, collect and get in the rents of the property of the said bankrupt, and act in the superintendence and management, sale and disposition, of the affairs and estate, and the payment to such accountant by the assignees, out of the said bankrupt's estate, of such remuneration for his time, trouble, and services, both past and future, as to the said assignees shall seem proper; also to assent to or dissent from the assignees commencing, taking, prosecuting, defending, or opposing all such proceedings at law, in equity, or bankruptcy, in respect of the said bankrupt's estate as they may think necessary or be advised for the recovery, protection, and getting in the same, or any part thereof, or otherwise howsoever; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees referring to arbitration, compromising, determining, and agreeing any dispute, claim, or demand whatsoever which may arise or exist between the said assignees and any person or persons whomsoever, in reference to any part of the bankrupt's estate, or any debt or demand owing thereto or claimed thereof; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving their consent to any creditors of the said bankrupt, who may hold bills of exchange or other securities which other parties than the said bankrupt are liable, accepting compositions from and releasing such parties from such bills or other securities, and executing any deed of assignment by such parties for the benefit of creditors, and any deed of inspection, licence, or arrangement between such parties and their creditors, without prejudice to such creditors' right of proof against the said bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees joining and concurring with any mortgagee, legal or equitable, of the said bankrupt's estate, in sales by auction or private contract of such estate, at such price, on such terms and conditions as the assignees may think proper, and making and entering into all such contracts, conveyances, and assurances to the purchasers as may be thought necessary and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees conveying and assuring to any legal or equitable mortgagee of any of the said bankrupt's estate, the property legally or equitably mortgaged, or the equity of redemption therein, in satisfaction of the mortgage money or debt and interest, or a portion thereof, or upon such other terms and conditions, and at or for such price or consideration as the assignees may in their judgement think most advantageous for the interests of the bankrupt's estate; and generally to give such powers and authorities to the assignees respecting the management, getting in, recovering, selling, and disposing of the said bankrupt's estate and effects as the creditors assembled at such meeting shall think proper and necessary; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Robert Cawood, of Leeds, in the county of York, Woollen Cloth-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 17th day of June next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the office of Mr. T. F. Foden, Solicitor, Leeds, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging, out of the funds of the said bankrupt's estate, the costs, charges, and expences of preparing a certain deed of assignment executed by the said bankrupt for the equal benefit of his creditors, and bearing date the 19th day of September last, and also of carrying the trusts of the said deed into effect by the trustees therein named, and also all and every other the costs, charges, and expences incurred in and about the winding up and arranging the affairs of the said bankrupt prior to the opening of the said Fiat in Bankruptcy now in prosecution against the said bankrupt, and also the costs and charges of obtaining a previous Fiat in Bankruptcy against the said Robert Cawood on the petition of Messrs. Hudson and Bousfield, creditors of the said bankrupt; and also of obtaining certain powers of attorney, in Manchester and elsewhere, for the purpose of appointing fit and proper assignees of the said bankrupt's estate; and also to change and alter the appointment of bankers to the said estate, and to appoint a bank in Leeds aforesaid, wherein to pay and deposit the funds of the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting actions at law, or suits in equity, against any person or persons whomsoever, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt as they may be advised or think beneficial; and to their compromising, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating to the affairs of the said bankrupt, or his estate; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Wilson and William Wilson, both of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Merchants, Clothiers, Dealers and Chapman (trading in partnership under the firm of Wilson and Son), are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Thursday the 11th day of June next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the office of Messrs. Clay and Swift, Solicitors, in Union-court, Liverpool, to assent to, and authorize or confirm, or dissent from, the appointment and employment, by the said assignee, of any attorneys or agents, in parts beyond Seas, for the collection, recovery, adjustment, settlement, and winding up of the estate and affairs of the said bankrupts, or of either of them, respectively, whether alone or together with any other persons in parts beyond Seas, with such discretionary and other powers and authorities as to the said meeting may seem expedient in that behalf; and also to assent to or dissent from, and to authorize or confirm, the said assignee selling and compounding for, or otherwise disposing of, all or any of the stock in trade, household furniture, shop and office furniture and fixtures, property, debts, monies, goods, chattels, effects, claims, or demands of or belonging to the said bankrupts, or either of them, or wherein or whereunto they, or either of them, whether alone or jointly with any other person or persons, are or is interested or entitled, whether within the United Kingdom or in parts beyond Seas, by auction or private contract, or by appraisement, valuation, or arbitration, or partly by all or any of those means, at such times and in such manner, and upon such credits and with or without security, as the said assignee may think proper, from time to time, and particularly to compound for, sell, or otherwise dispose of, and to allow of and confirm, certain arrangements for that purpose already, or to be hereafter, made or entered into with Edward Howorth, for the sale and disposal to him of the interest of the bankrupt, Thomas Wilson, in the stock in trade, shop furniture, improvements, and fixtures, debts, goods and effects of the copartnership concern of Edward Howorth and Company; and also to and authorize, or dissent from, the said assignee selling, releasing, or otherwise disposing of or concurring with certain persons being, or claiming to be, co-owners or mortgagees or pawnees thereof, or to have some share or interest therein, respectively, in selling, releasing, or otherwise disposing of all or any freehold or leasehold houses, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, in or near to Liverpool aforesaid, or elsewhere, belonging to the said bankrupt, Thomas Wilson, or wherein he hath any estate, right, share, or interest, or the equity of redemption of the same; and also certain policies of insurance on the life of the said Thomas Wilson in the Equitable Life Assurance Company in London, and in the Economic Life Assurance Company in London, or in any other life assurance offices, and the equities of redemption of the same several policies, respectively, and that either by public auction or private contract, or by the valuation or appraisement, or arbitration of others, or partly by all or any of those several means (with liberty to bid for or buy in the same, or any of them, or to fix any reserve bidding or price thereupon, and afterwards to sell or dispose of the same, or any parts thereof, by all or any of the means aforesaid, without being answerable for any loss or expences to be occasioned thereby, at or for such prices, or for such considerations, and upon such terms and in such manner as to the said meeting, or to the said assignee, from time to time, may seem expedient; and also to assent to and authorize, or dissent from, the said assignee releasing or abandoning to the respective mortgagees or pawnees thereof, all or any of the said freehold or leasehold houses, lands, tenements, hereditaments, and policies of insurance, respectively, at or for any price or valuation whatsoever, in part payment, or satisfaction in part or in whole, as the case may be, of the respective mortgage, debts, liens, or charges subsisting or claimed thereupon, respectively; and also to assent to and authorize, or dissent from, the said assignee releasing or abandoning, to the respective Assurance Companies with whom the same are effected, all or any of the said policies of insurance on the life of the said Thomas Wilson, in such terms and in such manner, with or without consideration, as to the said assignee may seem fit, from time to time; and also to assent to and authorize, or dissent from, the said assignee, from time to time, allowing or resisting, or defending or compromising, or compounding for, submitting to arbitration, adjusting, or otherwise ascertaining or agreeing (at the expence and risk of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts), any liens, rights, titles, shares, interests, accounts, claims, or demands whatsoever, of or by, or against or between, the said bankrupts, or either of them, and any person or persons whomsoever, for or upon, or in respect of, any property or effects whatsoever, real, leasehold, or personal, wherein or whereunto the said bankrupts, or either of them, were or was, or are or is or may be, interested or entitled in anywise; and also to assent to and authorize, or dissent from, the said assignee, out of and at the expence and risk of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, instituting and prosecuting, or defending, any actions, suits, or proceedings whatsoever, at law or in equity within the United Kingdom, or in parts beyond Seas, for recovering or otherwise concerning any debts, moneys, goods, legacies, and share of residue property or effects whatsoever, real or personal, of or belonging to or wherein the said bankrupts, or either of them, are or is, or may be, interested or entitled in anywise, whether within the United Kingdom or in parts beyond Seas; and also to the said assignee, at the expence and risk of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, referring or submitting to the valuation of others, submitting to arbitration, compromising, compounding for, or otherwise adjusting or ascertaining, or agreeing all or any disputes or differences, accounts, shares, interests, property, damages, claims, and demands whatsoever, for or relating to the estate or effects of the said bankrupts, or of either of them, respectively, and especially of the said Thomas Wilson, whether within the said United Kingdom or in parts beyond Seas, and particularly in respect of the copartnership firm of Edward Howorth and Company, and in respect of, or relating to the estate and effects of certain testators or persons deceased, and in respect of or relating to a certain leasehold house, warehouse, and tenements in Duke-street and Henry-street, in Liverpool aforesaid, or in respect of or relating to any mortgages or liens upon the same, or any other of the estate or effects of the said bankrupts, or either of them, respectively; and also to assent to the said assignee, and such attorneys or agents for or under him, being indemnified, from time to time, in or concerning or relating to the premises, matters, and things aforesaid, and for all expences concerning the same, by and out of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Blundell and Robert Falk, of Liverpool, in the county Lancaster, Merchants, Dealers and Chapman, and Copartners, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Wednesday the 10th day of June next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the offices of Messrs. Littledale and Bardswell, in Royal Bank-buildings, Dale-street, Liverpool, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling or otherwise disposing of the stock in trade, ships, shares in ships, and other the estate of the said bankrupts, whether in Great Britain or on the Continent, either by public auction or private contract, on such terms, with or without security, as they shall think most expedient; and to the said assignees compounding and settling with parties on the continent being consignees of goods now in their hands for sale, on such terms as in the discretion of the said assignees may seem most advisable, and to the said assignees paying in full a certain lien claimed by certain parties to be named at the meeting; and also to the said assignees taking such proceedings at law or in equity as they shall be advised for recovering, and also for protecting the assets of the said bankrupts' estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling, by public auction or by private treaty, the household goods and furniture of the said bankrupts, or either of them, for such sum of money as may be the fair valuation thereof, and to give time for payment thereof, with or without security; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling, by public auction or private treaty, a certain freehold property, belonging to one of the said bankrupts, and to paying certain interest due to the mortgagee of the same, or to pay and discharge the mortgage affecting the same, in such manner as may be deemed most advisable for the benefit of the bankrupts' estate; and to assent to or dissent from the assignees relinquishing to a certain party, to be named at the meeting, all the part, share, and interest of the bankrupt, William Blundell, of and in a certain piece of land then to be described and the buildings thereon, and of and in the contract for the said land, entered into by the said bankrupt, jointly with the said party, and to the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing particular questions to be stated at the meeting with certain parties then to be named; and to the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, and defending any actions or suits at law or in equity, for recovery or in defence of the said bankrupts' estate, or either of them; and to their compounding, submitting to arbitration or otherwise, agreeing the same or any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Joseph Massey, late of Habergham Eaves, in the county of Lancaster, Worsted-Spinner, Dealer and Chapman (carrying on business there with John Sutcliffe Witham, under the firm of Massey and Witham), are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 16th day of June next, at two of the clock in the afternoon, at the Bull Inn, in Burnley, in the said county, to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, and carrying on a suit in equity against the above named John Sutcliffe Witham, now or lately the partner of the said Joseph Massey, the bankrupt, for a discovery, disclosure, and account of the partnership property, estate and effects of the said Joseph Massey and John Sutcliffe Witham, and for payment or delivery to the said assignee of the part, share, or proportion of the said Joseph Massey therein at the time of his bankruptcy, and for other purposes relating to the affairs, estate, and effects of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, and carrying on one or more suit or suits in equity against John Massey and Lord Massey, the uncles of the said bankrupt, for the purpose of impeaching and setting aside a certain conveyance bearing date the 19th day of November 1838, and made by the said bankrupt to the said John Massey and Lord Massey, of certain parts of the said bankrupt's real estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, and carrying on one other suit or suits in equity against the said John Massey and Lord Massey, for the purpose of impeaching and setting aside a certain mortgage bearing date the said 19th day of November 1838, and made by the said bankrupt to the said John Massey and Lord Massey, of the remainder of the real estate of the said bankrupt, for the alleged purpose of securing a sum of £1,080 8s. 10d. alleged to be due from the said bankrupt to the said John Massey and Lord Massey; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved or who may prove their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Ralph Seddon, of Salford, in the county of Lancaster, Dyer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 9th day of June next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of Mr. Thomas Potter, Solicitor, No. 11, Princess-street, Manchester, in the said county of Lancaster, in order to sanction, ratify, and confirm the acts, dealings, receipts, payments, purchases, disbursements, transactions, and proceedings of the petitioning creditor and provisional assignee appointed under the said Fiat, and the continuing and carrying on the trade and business of the said bankrupt up to the day of the choice of assignees, and to reimburse the said petitioning creditor and provisional assignee all moneys advanced and disbursed by them in and about the affairs of the bankrupt, and to indemnify them, out of the estate, for what they, or either of them, have done in the matters aforesaid; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, at their discretion, but at the risk and expence of the estate, continuing and carrying on the trade and business of the said bankrupt for such period and in such manner as the assignees shall deem fit, and the assignees employing the bankrupt, and any other person or persons and workmen, at such salaries and wages and to pay the said bankrupt for his services as the said assignees shall think fit, and to make all purchases and payments necessary for carrying on the same trade which may be requisite, and to indemnify the assignees from all loss by reason of such trade being carried on; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, certain costs and expences incurred, prior and subsequent to the date of the said Fiat, in preparing a deed of assignment for the benefit of his creditors, calling meetings, and other costs and expences which will be specified at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, either with the concurrence of certain persons who will be named at such meeting, to whom the said bankrupt hath executed mortgages of his freehold and leasehold estates, the particulars whereof will be stated at the meeting or without the concurrence of such person or persons, or any of them, and at the discretion of the said assignees, selling and disposing, at the risk and expence of the said estate, all or any part, or the equity of redemption, or the estate, right, and interest of the said assignees of and in certain freehold and leasehold plots of land, messuages, dwelling-houses, cottages, and other buildings of the said bankrupt, situate in Salford aforesaid; and also of and all other estates, real or personal, and all the drying machinery, fixtures, and utensils, household furniture, farming stock, and all other property and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, in such lots, at such times, and in such places, and in such manner, and either to the said bankrupt, or to any other person or persons, for such prices, and upon such terms and conditions, as the said assignees may deem most advantageous for the estate, and either for ready money or upon credit, and if the latter, with or without such security for payment or the purchase money, as the said assignees may think proper, and without their being personally answerable or liable for any loss or damage, or expence which may be incurred or sustained thereby; and in case of any sale or sales by auction (either with or without the concurrence of such mortgagees) of the property in mortgage, to authorise and empower the said assignees, from time to time, and as often as they shall think fit, to buy in and resell the same, or to concur in reselling the same at any future auction, with the like power to buy in the same, or by private contract, without being accountable for, or liable to pay, or personally responsible for, any difference in amount or value, or diminution in price, bid at such sale, respectively, or otherwise, in relation thereto; and in case the said real and leasehold estates shall not be sold by auction, then to assent to or dissent from the said assignees making such arrangements as they may think proper with any person or persons claiming to be a mortgagee or mortgagees as aforesaid, and to concur with him, her, or them in executing a sale thereof, in such manner and upon such terms as they shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any action or actions at law against certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, or any of them, for the recovery of any debts or property due or belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, and to their discontinuing such actions or proceedings, and compounding or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing such action or proceedings respectively; and also to the said assignees making and paying certain accountants and agents such allowances and remuneration as the said assignees shall think fit and proper, for their time and trouble in managing the said bankrupt's estate, inspecting his books and accounts, and collecting and getting in the debts and effects due and belonging to the said estate; and also to the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, and defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery and protection of any other part of the estate and effect of the said bankrupt; and to the said assignees filing or answering any bill or bills in Chancery, or petition or petitions in the Court of Review in relation thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from, the said assignees executing any letter of licence, deed of composition, or release or deed of assignment made by or between any debtor or debtors to the estate of the said bankrupt and his or their creditors, or signing any bankrupt's certificate; and also to the said assignees compounding or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise adjusting, agreeing, settling, or arranging any other debts, claims, matters, and things whatsoever relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and generally to authorize and empower the said assignees to act for the benefit and protection of the said estate, in such way as they shall, from time to time, think proper; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Benjamin Bond and Stephen Pattisall, late of Change-alley, Cornhill, in the city of London, Bankers (trading under the firm of John Bond, Sons, and Pattisall), are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Wednesday the 10th day of June next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the said city of London, to take into consideration and determine upon certain proposals which will then and there be submitted to them, with reference to the compromising of certain legal proceedings brought by or instituted against the said assignees, and which are now pending, in relation to various building and other leases granted, at ground-rents, of different parts of the real estates of the said Benjamin Bond by his late father and mother, heretofore tenants for life of such estates, with powers of granting building and other leases, but the validity of which leases (although the buildings or improvements agreed upon have been erected and made according to the agreements in that behalf), has been disputed in consequence of the terms and directions of such powers not having been strictly and technically, although they were, for the most part, substantially observed and followed in the granting of such leases; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy, dated the 28th of December 1839, awarded and issued forth against Elizabeth Lax, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Innkeeper, Victualler, Dealer and Chapwoman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Saturday the 13th day of June next, at eleven o'clock of the forenoon, at the offices of Messrs. Seddon, Mawson, and Lockett, Solicitors, in Pall mall, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees carrying on the business of the said bankrupt, at the expence and risk of the said bankrupt's estate, and for the benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupt, for such time, and so long as they shall deem it advisable and expedient; and if the said assignees shall be authorised to carry on the said business until the same can, in their judgment, be disposed of to advantage, then to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, from time to time, purchasing, by and with the moneys arising from the said bankrupt's estate and effects, such materials and goods as shall, by the said assignees, be deemed requisite or necessary for that purpose; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing the said bankrupt, or such other person or persons as they shall think proper, in carrying on the said business; and to their paying and allowing the said bankrupt, and such other person or persons as aforesaid, such sums for their respective services as the said assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the stock, furniture, goods, chattels, and effects, and the good will of the business carried on by the said bankrupt, or any part thereof, by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and either to the said bankrupt, or to any other person, and either for ready money or on credit, and for such sum or sums of money, and if sold on credit, with or without security, as they, in their judgment, shall think fit; and to their buying in the same, or any part thereof, at such auction, and reselling the same at any future auction, or by private contract, at such price or prices, and in such manner, as the said assignees shall deem expedient; and to their taking such security or securities for the same as they may think proper, without being liable to answer for or bear any loss which may happen on such sale, resale, or security; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, in one or more lot or lots, and at one time and place, or several times and places, or either for ready money or for payment on a future day or days, and either with or without taking any security for payment of the purchase moneys, or any part thereof, the freehold estates of the said bankrupt, the particulars whereof will be stated at such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling, reconveying, releasing, or otherwise relinquishing, on such conditions, and on such terms, as they shall deem expedient, a certain plot of land, the particulars whereof will be then and there given, and which was held by the said bankrupt, subject to a certain chief rent and covenant affecting the same; and also to confirm and allow whatsoever shall have been done, previous to the said meeting, in and about the affairs of the said bankrupt, by the said assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, and filing and answering any petition or petitions in relation to the said estate and effects; and also to the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing, adjusting, settling, and arranging any debts, matters, or things whatsoever relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to act for benefit and protection of the said estate in such way as they shall, from time to time, think proper; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements. the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that Declarations were filed on the 18th day of May 1840, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

HENRY WEBSTER, formerly of No. 51, Aldersgate-street, in the city of London, Surgical Instrument-Maker, afterwards carrying on trade, under the name or firm of Berry and Company, at No. 21, Bedford-street, near Covent-garden, in the county of Middlesex, as Manufacturer of Patent Portable Inkstands, Bottles, and Lamps, and of various Articles for Producing Instantaneous Light, also for a short time, subsequently, carrying on the last mentioned business at No. 21, Bedford-street aforesaid, under the name or firm of Miller and Webster, and now carrying on the said last-mentioned trades at No. 21, Bedford-street aforesaid, under the said name or firm of Berry and Company, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

BENJAMIN BARKER SMARK, of Honiton, in the county of Devon, Scrivener, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 19th day of May 1840, by JOHN MALLEY and JOHN ASPINALL, of Liverpool, in county of Lancaster, Corn-Merchants, Dealers and Chapman (lately carrying on business together at Liverpool aforesaid, under the firm of Malley and Aspinall), that they are in insolvent circumstances, and are unable to meet their engagements with their creditors.
