

" certain duties on sugar imported into the United Kingdom, for the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight," the said duties on sugar were continued until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine :

And whereas by another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled " An Act for granting to Her Majesty, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty, certain duties on sugar which should be imported into the United Kingdom, for the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine," the said duties on sugar were farther continued until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty :

And by the same Act it was enacted, that if at any time satisfactory proof should have been laid before Her Majesty in Council, that the importation of foreign sugar into any British possession, within the limits of the East India Company's charter, was prohibited, it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, or by Her Majesty's Order in Council, to be published, from time to time, in the London Gazette, to allow the importation of sugar, the growth of any such British possession, at the lower rate of duty in the said first therein and hereinbefore recited Act, specified, in like manner and under the same restrictions as sugar the growth of the presidency of Fort William, in Bengal, might be imported, subject to a lower rate of duty under the provisions of the same Act :

And whereas by an Act, passed by the Honourable the President of the Council of India, in Council, on the tenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, the importation of foreign sugar, or any sugar which is the growth of any British possession into which foreign sugar can be legally imported, was prohibited in any part of the territories subject to the Government of the presidency of Fort Saint George :

And whereas it is considered by Her Majesty to be expedient to allow the importation of sugar, the growth of any part of the said territories subject to the Government of the presidency of Fort Saint George, at such lower rate of duty as hereinbefore mentioned, Her Majesty is therefore pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to allow the importation of sugar, the growth of any part of the said territories subject to the Government of the presidency of Fort Saint George, at the lower rate of duty in the first hereinbefore recited Act specified, in like manner, and under the same restrictions and conditions as sugar the growth of the presidency of Fort William, in Bengal, may be imported, subject to a lower rate of duty under the hereinbefore recited provisions of the same Act :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir John Hobhouse, Bart. President of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.
