ALEX. M'GRIGOR, junr. Witness.
JOHN ROXBURGH, Witness.

The Reverend George Gordon Smith, deceased, lately a Prisoner in the Queen's Bench Prison, and who died therein on the 16th day of May 1840.

WHEREAS information has been given to the undersigned, that the deceased was induced, within the last month of his life, to sign one or more bill or bills of exchange and promissory notes, to a large amount, without receiving any value or consideration for so doing; and the undersigned having been informed of the endeavour to negotiate a note for the sum of two thousand pounds, to which the said George Gordon Smith's name is attached, notice is hereby given, that proceedings will be taken against all parties concerned in the making or negotiating such instrument or instruments, and that the personal representatives of the said George Gordon Smith will dispute the validity thereof. All persons are requested to give information, touching or concerning any bill or bills, note or notes, to which the name of the said George Gordon Smith is attached, to the undersigned.—Dated the 13th day of June 1840.

JAMES GOREN, No. 29, South Molton-street, Hanover-square, Solicitor for the personal representatives of the Rev. George Gordon Smith, deceased.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decretal Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes wherein Her Majesty's Attorney-General is informant, and John Cheshire and others are plaintiffs, and Thomas Kynaston is defendant, and the said Attorney-General is informant, and John Cheshire and others are plaintiffs, and Mary Kynaston and another are defendants, with the approbation of William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, on Thursday the 2d day of July 1840, at three o'clock in the afternoon, at the White Horse Inn, in Wem, in the county of Salop;

A freehold estate, situate at Leppington, in the said county of Salop, consisting of a Public-house, called the Dickins Arms, together with a piece of land thereto belonging, containing about two roods and 18 perches, or thereabouts.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Messrs. Vincent and Sherwood, No. 9, King's-bench-walk, Temple; of Messrs. Cuff and Barker, 12, Half Moon-street, Piccadilly; of Mr. Henry John Barker, Solicitor, Wem aforesaid; of Messrs. Harper and Parry Jones, Solicitors, Whitchurch and Ellesmere; and at the principal inns in the county of Salop, and at Chester.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, dated the 19th day of December 1839, made in a cause Luke and others versus Walker, it was ordered, amongst other things, that it should be referred to Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and report to the Court whether any limitation, direction, or appointment was made by John Luke, in the said pleadings named, of, or relating to, a certain sum of £2000, 3 per Cent. Consolidated Annuities, or any part thereof, in pursuance of a certain indenture of settlement in the said pleadings named, bearing date the 27th day of May 1814, between the said John Luke, since deceased, of the first part; Ann Walker, Spinster, of the second part; and Alexander Walker and William Thomson, of the third part; therefore, any person or persons claiming to have an interest under any limitation, direction, or appointment as aforesaid, are forthwith to come in and establish their claims before the said Master, at his chambers, in Tanfield-court, in the Inner-temple, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
