FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1840.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, June 8, 1840.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 25th instant, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS.

The Ladies who purpose attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty :

And those Ladies, who are to be presented, are hereby informed it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Drawing-Room, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation ; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place, unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered, as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, June 8, 1840.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 1st of July next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them (not that of the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation ; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations ; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Board of Green Cloth, St. James's Palace, June 19, 1840.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the carriages coming to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, on Thursday the 25th of June, are to fall into the line at the top of St. James's-street, come down the left hand side, and enter at the iron gate nearest to the Palace, set down at the Arcade, return by the iron gate nearest to Marlborough-house, and pass through Pall-mall into St. James's-square, by George-street. When called, they are to pass from St. James's-square, by Charles-street, into Regent-street, Jermyn-street, come down St. James's-street as before, take up, and go away through Pall-mall.

No hackney carriages will be permitted to come within the gates.

For all persons having the privilege of the entrée, tickets will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, on Tuesday next, between the hours of eleven and three o'clock; their carriages are to enter the gate at Constitution-hill, proceed down St. James's-park; through Stable-yard, into the Ambassadors-court, set down, and go out into Cleveland-row. The carriages of the Ambassadors, Foreign Ministers, Cabinet Ministers, and Great Officers of State may afterwards wait in the Ambassadors-court, and those of all other persons having the entrée may wait in Stable-yard or St. James's-park till called; they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, and pass away up the left hand side of St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket, to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and Stable-yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshalmen in attendance; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entrée by any other approach to the Palace than the gates last mentioned.

ERROLL, Lord Steward.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, June 19, 1840.

GREAT BRITAIN.Grocers'-Hall,
June 19, 1840.By Authority of Parliament,
HENRY BICKNELL, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.Newcastle-under-Lyme, Blyth Marsh, &c. Turnpike Roads.

NOTICE is hereby given (pursuant to the standing orders of the House of Lords), that it is intended to make an alteration in the line of one of the new roads proposed to be made by the trustees of the Newcastle-under-Lyme, Blyth Marsh, &c. Turnpike Roads, under the powers of a Bill now depending in Parliament, intitled "A Bill for improving the roads leading from Newcastle-under-Lyme to Blyth Marsh, from Cliff Bank to Shelton, from Fenton to Hem-heath, and from Shelton to Newcastle-under-Lyme; and for making and completing certain new pieces of road to communicate therewith, all in the county of Stafford" (of the intention of making application to Parliament for which Bill, notice was given in the London Gazette, and in the Staffordshire Advertiser, in the month of November last, and was also affixed on the door of the Sessions-House at Stafford at the last Epiphany Quarter Sessions held for the county of Stafford, and of which new pieces of road plans were deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Stafford in November last, and with the parish clerks of the parishes in which such new pieces of road were intended to be made, in December last), that is to say, it is intended by the said Bill to take power to make a new piece of road, about four hundred yards to the westward of, and instead of, the new piece of road mentioned in the aforesaid notices, and shown on the said plans, as intended to lead out of another intended new piece of road leading from the church-yard of the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent to Endon-Tollgate, at or near a point in the township of Shelton, at which the same will intersect the road making, or about to be made, from Shelton to Fenton, and to terminate in the road from Cliff Bank to Snape Marsh, at a place lying opposite to the newly opened road called, or intended to be called, Chatterley-street; and which altered line of road is intended to commence and lead out of the same intended new piece of road leading from the church-yard of the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent to Endon-Tollgate, at a point near to the occupation road leading from Trenthay farm to Shelton, and to pass wholly through lands in the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, and township of Shelton, and to terminate near to a cottage in the holding of John Knight, in another of the aforesaid intended new pieces of road, namely, in the intended new piece of road leading from Shelton-wharf to the eastward of Fowley-brook.

And notice is also hereby given, that a plan and section of such alteration, or intended altered line of road, with a book of reference, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands through which the same is intended to be made, have been deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Stafford, at his office at Stafford, in the said county; and that a copy of such plan, and of such section and book of reference, have been deposited with the parish clerk of the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent aforesaid, at his place of abode, in the town of Stoke-upon-Trent, for the inspection of all persons concerned.—Dated this tenth day of June 1840.

T. and R. Fenton, Solicitors, Newcastle-under-Lyme.CONTRACTS FOR PEAS, OATS, AND COCOA.Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, June 17, 1840.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 25th June instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles, viz.

Peas, 500 quarters; half to be delivered in a fortnight, and the remainder in a fortnight afterwards.

Oats, Scotch Potatoes, 300 quarters; to be delivered within ten days.

Cocoa, 70 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards.

Samples of the peas and oats (not less than two quarts of each) and of the cocoa (not less than two pounds) must be produced by the parties tendering.

The conditions of the contracts may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and every tender for cocoa must be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value, for the due performance of the contract.
