Notice is hereby given, that the said indenture of release is left at the office of Messrs. Travis and Cook, Solicitors, No. 72, Newborough-street, Scarborough, for the signature of such of the creditors of the said John Pennock and Stephen Pennock, as shall think proper to execute the same; and that such of the creditors as shall neglect so to do, within the time limited for that purpose, will be excluded from all benefit to arise under the said indentures.—Scarborough, June 10, 1840.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Warcup Kirkbride, of Nantwich, in the county of Chester, Brewer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 12th day of August next, at o'clock in the forenoon, at the Crown Inn, in Nantwich, in the county of Chester, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling or disposing of the household goods and furniture, and other effects of the said bankrupt, now in and upon the house and premises in his occupation, by private contract, either to the said bankrupt or to a trustee or trustees for him, or to any other person or persons, and either at a valuation or for such sum as shall be agreed upon at such meeting, or as the said assignees shall in their judgement think fair and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, concerning the said bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing all and every or any such action or actions, or suits, matters and things whatsoever; and also to authorise and empower the said assignees generally to act for the benefit of the creditors as they may see fit, and to sanction and approve of all and whatsoever the said assignees may have already done, or may hereafter do, in respect of the said bankrupt's estate or effects; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Sackville Frederick Gwynne, of the parish of Llanfair a y bryn, in the county of Carmarthen, Coach Proprietor, Horse Dealer, Dealer and Chapman; are desired to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 13th day of August next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Castle Hotel, in the town of Brecon, in the county of Brecon, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compromising with Miss Christian Talbot for the arrears claimed to be due to her in respect of a certain annuity of £140. charged on some portion of the freehold estates of the said bankrupt, in the county of Carmarthen, on such terms and in such manner, and for such sum or sums of money, and payable at such time or times as to the said assignee shall appear most beneficial to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee entering into an arrangement with George Bedford, of Bedford-row, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the settlement of all his claims against the said bankrupt or the said bankrupt's estate and effects, either as trustee for one Caroline Methold, or otherwise howsoever, and more particularly as to a claim of £2000 and interest secured, or alleged to be secured, upon the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding, settling, and adjusting a certain annuity of £120 claimed to be due to the representatives of the late Mrs. Jones, and alleged to be chargeable on the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding, settling, and adjusting the said several claims hereinbefore mentioned, in such manner and for such sum or sums of money, and payable at such time or times as to the said assignee shall appear most beneficial to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee ratifying and confirming certain sales lately entered into with Crawshay Bailey and James Watt, Esqrs. of the said bankrupt's freehold estate, and to concur in and agree to the conditions and stipulations under which the said sales were effected, and to authorise the said assignee to execute such conveyance and conveyances to the said several parties as he shall be advised; and generally to authorise the said assignee to act for the benefit and protection of the said bankrupt's estate and effects as to the said assignee shall deem expedient and proper; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Redfearn, of Meltham, in the parish of Almondbury, in the county of York, Woollen Cloth-Manufacturer, Scribbling-Miller, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignees of his estate and effects, on Monday the 31st day of August next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the George Hotel, in Huddersfield, in the said county, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, and adjusting any debts due to the said bankrupt from certain of his debtors to be then named, and to submit to arbitration all matters in difference between the said bankrupt and any of such creditors, and to prosecute any suit or suits in equity; also to assent to or dissent from the payment of the costs and expences incident to preparing the draft of a deed of inspektorship under which it was by a meeting of creditors determined that the said bankrupt should carry on trade, but which scheme was afterwards abandoned; also to assent to or dissent from the allowance to Messrs. Bradbury, Messrs. Armitage, Brothers, and Messrs. Wailles and Son, of their several costs incurred previous to the issuing of the said fiat in seeking to obtain a fiat or fiats against the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from or determine what measures shall be taken with a view to a settlement of the transactions between the said bankrupt and William Moore Horsfall, of Huddersfield aforesaid, Merchant; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration

“ was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:”—Notice is hereby given, that Declarations were filed on the 20th day of July 1840, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by
