Westminster, July 21, 1840.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by Her Majesty, for declaring Her Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act to re-unite the provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the government of Canada.

An Act to extend the practice of vaccination.

An Act for the more equal assessment of police rates in Manchester, Birmingham, and Bolton, and to make better provision for the police in Birmingham, for one year, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament.

An Act for preventing ships, clearing out from a British North American port, loading any part of their cargo of timber upon deck.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, of the second and third years of Her present Majesty, for more equally assessing and levying watch rates in certain boroughs.

An Act for making provision as to the office of Master in Chancery in certain cases.

An Act to extend the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the inclosure of open and arable fields in England and Wales.

An Act to make certain provisions and regulations in respect to the exercise, within England and Ireland, of their office by the Bishops and Clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Scotland; and also to extend such provisions and regulations to the Bishops and Clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America; and also to make further regulations in respect to Bishops and Clergy other than those of the United Church of England and Ireland.

An Act to continue, for one year, and from thence until the end of the then next session of Parliament, the several Acts relating to the importation and keeping of arms and gunpowder in Ireland.

An Act to amend and enlarge some of the provisions of the Act relating to the Birmingham, Bristol, and Thames Junction Railway; and to authorise the company to raise a further sum of money for the purposes of the said undertaking.

An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Taffvale Railway.

An Act for separating the management of the Ardrossan and Johnston Railway from the management of the Glasgow, Paisley, and Johnston Canal, for incorporating the proprietors thereof, for doubling and improving the said railway, and for other purposes relating thereto.

An Act to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of the Act relating to the Glasgow, Paisley, and Greenock Railway, and to make certain new branch railways from the main line in the towns of Greenock and Port Glasgow, and to make other works in connexion with the said railway.

An Act to amend the Act relating to the Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway.

An Act to alter and amend the Acts passed for making a railway from Dublin to Drogheda.

An Act to enable the Hartlepool Dock and Railway Company to raise a further sum of money for completing their undertaking, and enlarging the time for completing the same, and for amending the Acts relating thereto.

An Act for erecting and maintaining a pier and other works in Mill-bay, in the port of Plymouth, in the county of Devon.

An Act for regulating the municipal government and expences of the royal burgh of Banff, North Britain; for establishing an effective police within the same; and also for maintaining, improving, and regulating the harbour of the said royal burgh.

An Act for opening a street to Clerkenwell-green, in the county of Middlesex, in continuation of the new street from Faringdon-street, in the city of London.

An Act for better supplying with water the town and borough of Deal, and the neighbourhood thereof, in the county of Kent.

An Act for forming and establishing a company to be called the General Salvage Company, and for enabling the said company to purchase certain letters patent.

An Act for improving the roads leading from Newcastle-under-Lyme to Blyth-marsh, from Cliff-bank to Shelton, from Fenton to Hem-heath, and from Shelton to Newcastle-under-Lyme; and for making and completing certain new pieces of road to communicate therewith, all in the county of Stafford.

An Act to alter and amend an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, and the Acts therein recited, so far as the same relate to the road to Provan-mill, commonly called the Garngad-road, and for other purposes relating thereto.

And fourteen private Acts.

Whitehall, July, 1840.

The Queen has been pleased to order a Congé d'Elire to the Precentor and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. David's, empowering them to elect a Bishop of that see, the same being void by the death of Dr. John Banks Jenkinson, late Bishop thereof; and Her Majesty has also been pleased to recommend to the said Precentor and Chapter, the Reverend Connop Thirlwall, A. M. to be by them elected Bishop of the said see.
