NOTICE TO MARINERS.

BEACON ON THE WOLF ROCK.

Trinity-House, London, July 21, 1840.

THE Corporation of Trinity-house have much satisfaction in stating, for the information of Masters of vessels and Mariners in general, that the difficult and hazardous works which have, during the last four summers, been in operation, under their direction, for constructing a beacon upon that dangerous rock called the Wolf, situate about $7\frac{1}{2}$ miles W. S. W. of the Land's End of Cornwall, have been completed, and that a conspicuous beacon has been erected thereon.

This beacon consists of an artificial cone, bearing a mast having a large ball upon its summit, at an elevation of 36 feet above the level of the sea at high water; and Mariners are to observe, that spring tides rise at this station 19 feet, and that at low water of those tides the rock is uncovered to the height of 15 feet.

The bearings and distances of the undermentioned objects from this beacon are as follows, viz.

Longships Light-house, N. E. Nly. distant $7\frac{3}{4}$ miles.

Scilly Light-house, W. by N. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. distant 21 miles.

Rundlestone Rock, which covers at half flood, E. by N. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. distant 7 miles.

Seven Stones, centre thereof, N. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. distant $13\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

Lizard Light-houses, S. E. by E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. distant 23 miles.

It being of great importance that this beacon should not sustain injury, Masters of vessels and others are hereby cautioned and enjoined not to approach it on any consideration, lest their own safety, as well as the security of the structure, should be thereby unnecessarily endangered.

By order,

J. Herbert, Secretary.

The respective tenants will shew the lots, and for further particulars apply to Mr. James Hammond, Solicitor to the said Leominster; Mr. William Downes, Solicitor, Ludlow, Salop; or Mr. George Smith, Solicitor, 48, Chancery-lane, London.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Benjamin Jacques, John Cotton, and Thomas Barfoot Oliver, carrying on business in copartnership in the town of Nottingham, as Hosiers, Dealers and Chapman, may receive a Dividend of eight shillings in the pound, by applying at the office of Messrs. W. and S. Parsons, junior, Solicitors, Nottingham; on Thursday next the 30th instant, and on every succeeding Thursday, between the hours of eleven and one o'clock.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Edward Owen, of Maesglas, in the parish of Amlwch, in the county of Anglesea, and of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Cattle-Dealer, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 19th day of August next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the office of Mr. Hodgson, Clarendon-buildings, in South John-street, in Liverpool aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery of any debt or debts due to the said bankrupt's estate, or touching, concerning, or relating to the said bankrupt's affairs, with full power for the said assignees to compound and compromise any action or debt, or to submit to arbitration any matter, claim, or dispute relating to the said bankrupt; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to take such measures in winding up, arranging, and settling the said bankrupt's affairs as to the said assignees shall seem expedient.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Boydell Golborne and Arthur Acheson Dobbs, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Wine-Merchants, are desired to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Wednesday the 19th day of August next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Charendon-rooms, in South John-street, in Liverpool aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees satisfying or discharging a certain incumbrance on the bankrupt, Arthur Acheson Dobbs' real estate, created by an assignment made by the bankrupt Arthur Acheson Dobbs to Mr. William Henry M'Dowell, of certain lands in Birkenhead, in the county of Chester, for the purpose of indemnifying the said William Henry M'Dowell against certain bills of exchange drawn or endorsed, and certain liabilities incurred by the said William Henry M'Dowell for and on account of the said bankrupts, or of the said Arthur Acheson Dobbs, not exceeding the sum of four thousand pounds, and of paying out of the funds of the said Arthur Acheson Dobbs' separate estate, or otherwise satisfying or discharging the said bills of exchange and liabilities, or some of them, and of vesting the said lands in trustees for the purpose of or otherwise applying the proceeds thereof in discharge and payment of the residue of the said bills and liabilities; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Bardley, of Denton, in the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Hat-Manufacturer, Publican, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 19th day of August next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the office of Mr. George Hadfield, Solicitor, No. 38, Fountain-street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding and agreeing with the mortgagee of the public house and premises at Denton aforesaid, late belonging to, and in the occupation of, the said bankrupt, and conveying the said public house and premises to the said mortgagee, in full satisfaction of all claims and demands due to or claimed by him, and on certain other terms and conditions to be then and there submitted by the said assignees to the consideration of the said creditors, or on such other terms and conditions as shall be then and there agreed upon by such creditors; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees referring to arbitration, compromising, determining, and agreeing any dispute, debts, claim, or demand whatsoever, which have arisen and are now existing, or hereafter may arise or exist, between the said assignees and the said mortgagee, in respect of the said mortgage, or the moneys thereby secured, or any part thereof; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Samuel Mayer, Joseph Mawdesley, Ralph Lees, and Jesse Bridgwood, carrying on business at Burslem and Tunstall, in the county of Stafford, as Earthenware-Manufacturers, under the firm of Samuel Mayer and Company, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupts' estate, on Wednesday the 19th day of August next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the George Inn, in Burslem aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging, out of the bankrupts' estate, the costs of an adjourned meeting for the choice of assignees under the said fiat, and the costs, charges, and expenses incurred previously to the issuing of the said fiat, in endeavouring to effect an arrangement of the said bankrupts by means of a composition, and of preparing and executing certain deeds of conveyance and assignment of the real and personal estates of the said bankrupts, to trustees, for the general benefit of their creditors; and to sanction, ratify, and allow certain acts and dealings of such trustees, and expenses by them incurred, before the issuing of the said fiat; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees working up and converting the unfinished stock, goods, and materials of the bankrupts, at the expense of their estate, and to purchase, provide, and pay for other necessary articles and materials for completing such stock and goods; also to assent to or dissent from the assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the real or personal estate or effects of the said bankrupts, by public auction or private contract, or by appraisement, or tender, and for ready money, or upon credit, at the discretion of the assignees, and to buy in any part or parts of such estate or effects at any auction, and afterwards resell the same as they may deem expedient; and to reserve any of the fixtures and utensils at the manufactories, lately held by the said bankrupts, from being immediately disposed of, with a view of their being sold to an incoming tenant or tenants; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling to the said bankrupts, or any of them, or their friends, all or any part of their household goods and furniture, or giving up to the bankrupts, or any of them, gratuitously, or in lieu of maintenance money which they may claim under the fiat, certain furniture and articles of domestic use, to a limited amount or value; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting, or defending and opposing, any action or actions at law, or suits or suits or other proceedings in equity, or bankruptcy, for the recovery and protection of any part of the estate or effects of the bankrupts; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, in their discretion, compounding for any dubious debt or debts due to the bankrupts' estate, or compounding any doubtful or disputed claims by or against such estate, and executing any letter of license, deed of composition, release, or other instrument for any such purpose or purposes; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees referring to arbitration, or otherwise determining and adjusting any disputed account, or other difference, matter, or thing which exists or may arise relating to the estate and affairs of the bankrupts; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing any accountant, agent, or other proper person or persons to investigate the books and accounts of the bankrupts, and collect in their outstanding debts, with such allowance and remuneration for the service of such person or persons as the assignees may deem reasonable; also to assent to or dissent from the terms of an arrangement proposed to be submitted to such meeting respecting the separate estate, debts, and affairs of the said Ralph Lees, one of the said bankrupts, lately carrying on the business of a grocer; and for authorizing the said assignees to relinquish and give up the stock, furniture, book-debts, and other separate estate of the said Ralph Lees, to be named at the said meeting, and for the reasons and inducements which will then be stated, upon condition of such person entering into a guarantee and engagement for stopping and withholding all proofs and claims under the said fiat, by or on the part of the said Ralph Lees's separate creditors; and for indemnifying the said assignees against all loss, costs, damages, and expenses which may be incurred or fall upon them, or the joint creditors of the said bankrupts, in consequence of such proposed arrangement; and generally to authorize and empower the said assignees to act in and about the affairs of the said bankrupts for the benefit, or supposed benefit, of their estate, as such assignees may, from time to time, think proper and expedient.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the County:"—Notice is hereby given that a Declaration was filed on the 28th day of July 1840, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by JAMES STEER, of Maidstone, in the county of Kent, Tallow-Chandler, Fruiterer, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
