

the said insolvent shall be sold by public auction; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of the household and personal estate and effects of the said insolvent, by public auction or private contract, or partly by valuation and partly by public auction or private contract, either for ready money or on credit, to such person or persons, and for such price or prices in money as to the said assignee shall appear most advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing or prosecuting any action at law or suit in equity against certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, for compelling payment of certain sums of money due to the said insolvent for the repairs and disbursements of two certain ships or vessels heretofore belonging to the late husband of the said insolvent; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any other action at law or suit in equity, for the recovery or protection of the said estate and effects of the said insolvent, or any part thereof, or any thing relating thereto; and to the said assignee compounding with any debtor or debtors to the said insolvent's estate, or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any question, dispute, difference, action, suit, or other matter or thing respectively, or in any wise concerning such estate; and generally to take such other measures in the management, disposition, and settlement of the said insolvent's estate and effects as he, the said assignee, shall deem expedient and necessary.

THE creditors of the late Joseph Basset, of High-street, Uxbridge, in the county of Middlesex, Corn-Dealer, Mealman and Salesman, deceased, an insolvent debtor, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said insolvent, on Wednesday the 26th day of August instant, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the office of Messrs. McLeod and Stenning, Solicitors, No. 3, London-street, Fenchurch-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee accepting a certain offer made to him by certain persons claiming an interest under the last will and testament of the late Robert Howse, the father in law of the said Joseph Basset, in discharge of all claims of the said assignee under the said will, the particulars of which will be laid before the creditors at the meeting; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee enforcing his claim to the alleged share or interest of the said Joseph Basset in right of the late wife of the said Joseph Basset, or otherwise under the will of the said Robert Howse; and to the said assignee compounding and agreeing such his claim on any terms he may think proper, or referring the same to the arbitrament or decision of a barrister or barristers; and to the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, and defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for recovery, or in defence of, any part of the said insolvent's estate; and to his compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing the same, or any matter or thing relating thereto.

All Letters must be post paid.

Printed and Published at the Office, in Cannon-Row, Parliament-street, by FRANCIS WATTS, of No. 40, Vincent-Square, Westminster.

Friday, August 7, 1840.

Price Two Shillings and Four Pence.