C. C. Greville.

Downing-Street, August 20, 1840.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint the Lord Viscount Falkland to be Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Nova Scotia.

Whitehall, August 20, 1840.

The Queen, taking into Her royal consideration the highly distinguished zeal, courage, ability, and perseverance manifested by the Right Honourable John Lord Keane, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Lieutenant-General of Her Majesty's Forces, Colonel of the 43d (Monmouthshire) Regiment of Foot, Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, and Knight, of the first class, of the Order of the Dooranee empire, displayed by him upon various occasions, and more especially the consummate military talent, energy, and decision shewn by him in command of the army of the Indus employed in the years 1838 and 1839 in Central Asia, where, by his gallant and persevering conduct, the contest with the Afghanistan empire was brought to a termination highly honourable to the British arms, and to the councils of the British Government in India; and Her Majesty being desirous to evince, in an especial manner, the sense she entertains of the distinguished merits of his Lordship, by granting unto him certain honourable armorial augmentations, as a lasting memorial of Her Majesty's royal approbation of his faithful and zealous exertions in Her service, has been pleased to grant Her royal licence and permission that he, the said John Lord Keane, and his descendants may bear to the armorial ensigns of his family the honourable augmentations following, viz. "On a chief a representation of the strong and important fortress of Ghuznee," and the crest of honourable augmentation following, viz. "On a wreath a representation of the Cabool gate of the said fortress of Ghuznee," which was blown in by gunpowder on the 23d day of July 1839, and the fortress stormed on that day; provided the said honourable augmentations be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, otherwise the said royal licence to be void and of none effect:

And the Queen has been further pleased to order, that this especial mark of Her royal favour be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, August 14, 1840.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto William-Lockyer Freestun, Esq. late of the 93d (Highland) Regiment of Foot, and a Colonel in the service of Her Catholic Majesty, Her royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Supernumerary Knight, with the star of the Royal and Distinguished Order of Charles the Third; of a Knight, of the first class, of the National and Military Order of San Fernando; and of a Knight of the Royal Order of Isabella the Catholic, which the Queen Regent of Spain hath been pleased to confer upon him, in testimony of Her Catholic Majesty's royal approbation of his distinguished conduct in the various actions before the enemy in the field; and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed; provided, nevertheless, that Her Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorize the assumption of any stile, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

CONTRACTS FOR SALT BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 3, 1840.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 24th September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

Salt Meat, of the cure of the United Kingdom, equal to 13,000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 15,000 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, three fourth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one fourth part thereof in barrels, into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one third thereof by or before the 28th day of February, another third by or before the 31st day of March, and the remainder by or before the 31st day of May 1841, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.
