Grocers'-Hall,
October 23, 1840.By Authority of Parliament,
HENRY BICKNELL, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of the two several Acts relating to the Eastern Counties Railway; one thereof, passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from London to Norwich and Yarmouth, by Romford, Chelmsford, Colchester, and Ipswich, to be called the Eastern Counties Railway;" and the other thereof, passed in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of the Act relating to the Eastern Counties Railway."

Turnpike Road from Dewsbury to Leeds.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend the term, and to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a road from Dewsbury to Leeds, in the west riding of the county of York;" or to repeal the said Act, and to obtain further and other powers in lieu thereof; by which Bill it is intended to levy new tolls, and to increase or alter the tolls authorised by the said Act to be taken and collected.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to take power by the said Bill, to make a branch or new line of road, diverging out of the present turnpike road, leading from Dewsbury to Leeds aforesaid, at or near a certain barn or stable, belonging to the Earl of Scarborough, and in the occupation of John Harrop, in the hamlet of Soothill Upper, and terminating at the turnpike road from Wakefield to Halifax, in the said riding, near a place called Earlsheaton, in the hamlet of Soothill Nether, all in the township of Soothill, in the parish of Dewsbury aforesaid; and that power will be taken in the said Bill to levy tolls upon, or in respect of, the said branch or new line of road.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said branch or new line of road, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the west riding of the county of York, at his office at Wakefield, in the said county, on or before the thirtieth day of November next; and, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of the said plan and section, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the Parish Clerk of the said parish of Dewsbury, at his usual place of abode.

Dated this twentieth day of October, 1840.

Thos. Oldroyd, Thos. Rylah, Clerks to the Trustees of the said Turnpike-road from Dewsbury to Leeds.

West Durham Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, enlarge, repeal, and render more effectual some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for incorporating certain persons for the making and maintaining a railway from the township of Crook and Billy-row to the Byer's-green branch of the Clarence Railway, in the parish of Saint Andrew Auckland, all in the county of Durham, to be called 'the West Durham Railway;" and particularly to enable the Company to raise a further sum of money, for the purposes of the said undertaking, upon the credit of the rates, tolls, or duties now or hereafter authorized to be received, or by the creation of additional shares or capital, or in part by either of those means, or by some other means to be provided for by the said Bill; and also to extend the period limited by the said Act for the completion of the said line of railway.—Dated this twelfth day of October 1840.

George Allison, Darlington, Law Clerk to the said Company.

Great North of England Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of three several Acts, the one passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from near the river Tyne, to or near the river Tees, to be called the Great North of England Railway, in the county of Durham;" another of the said Acts, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to enable the Great North of England Railway Company to extend the line of their railway, and to make two branches therefrom, and for other purposes relating thereto;" and the third of the said Acts, passed in the second year of the reign Her said Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for amending and enlarging the provisions of the several Acts relating to the Great North of England Railway Company, and for other purposes relating thereto."

And it is intended by the said Act so to be applied for, to renew the powers, or to extend the periods, granted by the said recited Acts respectively, for the purchase of lands requisite for the purposes of the said railway and branches respectively.

And also to enable the said Great North of England Railway Company to raise a further sum, or sums of money, for the purposes of the said undertaking, either by mortgage thereof, or by the creation of new shares, or by some other means to be provided for by the said intended Act.

Dated this tenth day of October, 1840.

Mewburn and Hutchinson, and J. S. Peacock.
Solicitors to the Great North of England Railway Company.

Ardwick Improvement.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, for better paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, and otherwise improving the streets, lanes, passages, and places, within the township of Ardwick, in the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster; and for preventing nuisances and annoyances therein, and for regulating the police thereof; and for widening some of the present streets and places within the aforesaid township; and for making and opening new streets, ways, or communications, to, through, in, or near the said streets and places, or some of them; and also for altering, amending, extending, and enlarging the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for lighting, cleansing, watching, and improving the township of Ardwick, in the county of Lancaster; and for regulating the police thereof;" or for repealing the said Act, and for granting further and other powers and provisions in lieu thereof. In which Bill powers will be contained for altering the rates authorised by the said Act to be collected, and for levying new or other rates, within the before-mentioned township; and for authorising the purchase of houses, buildings, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, as well as all other powers and provisions which may be deemed necessary or expedient, with reference to the several matters and things hereinbefore mentioned.

Dated this ninth day of October, 1840.

Cooke, Beever, and Darwell.

Leamington and Kenilworth Turnpike Road.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to make and maintain a turnpike road, from or near Binswood Terrace, in the parish of Leamington Priors, in the county of Warwick, (communicating there with the north side of the said terrace) to, or near to, Kenilworth, in the said county of Warwick, (to communicate there with the turnpike road leading from Warwick to Coventry, in the said county, at or near the inn called the Horse and Jockey, occupied by James Arnold, in the said parish of Kenilworth), partly by widening and improving the present highway, in the line of the said intended road, and partly by making a new road through certain private land and grounds; which said intended turnpike road will pass from, in, or through, or be situate within, the several parishes, townships, or places following, or some or one of them, that is to say; Leamington Priors, Lillington, Milverton, Leek Wootton, and Kenilworth, all in the said county of Warwick.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to take powers to deviate from the line of the said intended turnpike road, to an extent not exceeding, in any one case, one hundred yards on either side thereof, as the same will be defined on the plans hereinafter mentioned.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to take powers to levy rates, tolls, or duties upon the said intended turnpike road.

And further notice is hereby given, that, on or before the thirtieth day of November next plans and sections, shewing the lines and levels of the said intended road, and the land through which the same is proposed to be made, and also duplicates of such plans and sections, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Warwick, at his office, in Stratford-upon-Avon, in the said county of Warwick.

And that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the honourable the House of Commons, and another copy thereof in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments.

And also that, on or before the said thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, respectively, as relates to each of the several and respective parishes, in or through which the said proposed road is intended to be made, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each of those parishes, at the respective residence of such parish clerk.

Birmingham and Hagley Turnpike Road.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for extending the term, and altering, amending, and enlarging the powers of an Act, passed in the 5th year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repairing the road from Blakedown Pool, in the parish of Hagley and county of Worcester, to Birmingham, in the county of Warwick," or for repealing the said Act, and for granting other powers and provisions in lieu thereof; and in which Bill, an alteration of the existing tolls, authorised by the said Act to be collected, is intended to be proposed.

Dated this ninth day of October, 1840.

R. W. Gem and Son, Solicitors, Birmingham.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for leave to bring in a Bill to continue the term, and to amend, repeal, enlarge, or alter the powers and provisions of, and to consolidate the several Acts following, that is to say, an Act made and passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act for repairing and widening the roads from the north end of Dunsby lane to the South-west corner of Risc-holm Hedge, and to Carholm Gate, Dunsey Nook, and to Dunham and Littleborough Ferries, and from the north end of Waddington field, and the bridge over the river Witham, at Bracebridge, to the city of Lincoln, and from the gate at the foot of Canwick-hill to the great bar gates of the said city, and for enforcing the performance of statute work upon the highways communicating with the said roads to a certain distance from the said roads." An Act passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers of an Act made in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Second, for repairing and widening certain roads, leading to and from the city of Lincoln, and for repairing and widening the roads from the termination of the present turnpike road at the foot of Brace-bridge-bridge, over the said bridge westward to the extremity to the county of Lincoln, near a place called Potter hill, and from the termination of the present turnpike road at the foot of Canwick-hill southward to a Windmill at the top of the said hill." An Act passed in the thirty-seventh year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing the term, and altering and enlarging the powers, of two Acts passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and in the seventeenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for repairing and widening certain roads leading to and from the city of Lincoln, and for repairing and widening the roads from the termination of the present turnpike road at the foot of Bracebridge-bridge, over the said bridge westward to the extremity of the county of Lincoln, near a place called Putter hill, and from the termination of the present turnpike road, at the foot of Canwick-hill southward, to a Windmill at the top of the said hill." And an Act passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing and amending an Act of His late Majesty, and two Acts of His present Majesty, for repairing certain roads leading to and from the city of Lincoln, and other roads therein mentioned;" and which said roads, some or one of them, respectively pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and places following, (that is to say), the parishes of Saint Botolph, Saint Peter at Gowts, Saint Mark, Saint Mary-le-Wigford, Saint Benedict, Saint Swithin, Saint Peter at Arches, Saint Martin, Saint Michael, Saint Peter in Eastgate, Saint Margaret, Saint Nicholas, and Saint John, in the city of Lincoln; Waddington, the liberty of the Mere, Branston, Bracebridge, Canwick, Harmston, Coleby, Nocton, Dunston, Metheningham, Blankney, Scopwick, Temple Brewer, Ashby-de-la-Lannd, Bloxholme, Branswell, Boothby Graffoe, Skellingthorpe, North Hykeham, South Hykeham, Thorp on the Hill, Haddington, Morton Thurlby, Swinderby, Burton, Haddow, Saxilby, Newton Kettlethorpe, Fenton, Forksey, Brampton and Martin, in the county of Lincoln, and Thorney, in the county of Nottingham.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to extend the road leading from Lincoln to Grantham from the Northcord of Waddington field to Leadenham, in the county of Lincoln; and which said road is intended to pass from, in, through, and unto the several parishes of Waddington, Harmston, Coleby, Boothby, Navenby, Wellingore, Welbourne, and Leadenham, in the county of Lincoln.

And it is also intended to extend the road leading from the city of Lincoln to Branston, in the county of Lincoln, from a place where a windmill formerly stood at the top of Canwick-hill, to the first house at the northern entrance into the town of Branston, now in the occupation of William Ashlin; and which said road is intended to pass from, in, through, and into the several parishes of Canwick and Branston, in the county of Lincoln.

And it is intended to make one new road, to commence and branch out of the present turnpike road, at or near the gate at the foot of Canwick-hill, and to continue thence eastward over part of Canwick-common into a public highway or road called Washingborough-lane; and one new road to commence at or near the gate at the foot of Canwick-hill, and to continue thence in a north west direction over part of Canwick-common, and across certain closes called the Banks Closes to a bridge in the parish of Saint Mary-le-Wigford, called Saint Mary's Bridge; and which said new road is intended to pass from, through, or into the several parishes of Saint Botolph,

Saint Peter at Gowts, Saint Mark, and Saint Mary-le-Wigford, in the county of Lincoln; and one other new road branching out of the said last mentioned road, and running in a north direction to a bridge in the said parish of Saint Swithin, called the Swing Bridge, and which said last mentioned road is intended to pass from, through, or into the several parishes of Saint Mary-le-Wigford and Saint Swithin, in the said county of Lincoln; and also for diverting such part of the said road leading from the said city of Lincoln to Sleaford as passes over Cross Cliff-hill, in the said parish of Bracebridge.

And notice is hereby also given, that in the said Bill an increase or alteration of the existing tolls authorised by the said acts to be collected is intended to be proposed.

And notice is hereby given, that, on or before the thirtieth day of November next, a map or plan and section of the said intended new lines or branches of road, with a book of reference thereto contained the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of lands through which the same are intended to be made, and also a duplicate thereof, and a copy of so much of the standing orders of the House of Lords, in this case made and provided, will be deposited at the offices of the clerks of the peace of the parts of Lindsey and Kesteven, in the said county of Lincoln, the city of Lincoln, and the county of Nottingham, at their offices at Spilsby, Sleaford, Lincoln, and Newark; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said map or plan and section as relates to each of the aforesaid parishes, together with a book of reference thereto, and a copy of so much of the standing orders of the House of Lords in this case made and provided, will be deposited with the respective parish clerks of the said several parishes.

And notice is hereby further given, that, on or before the said thirty-first day of December next, duplicates of the said map or plan and section, and books of reference thereto, will be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.—Dated this thirtieth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to establish and maintain a Court in the town of Blackburn, in the county palatine of Lancaster, for the recovery of Small Debts within the said town, and within the several parishes, parochial chapelries, townships, hamlets, and places following, namely:

Blackburn, Balderston, Lower Darwen, Over Darwen, Eccleshill, Great Harwood, Little Harwood, Livesey, Mellor, Osbaldeston, Pleasington, Ramsgrave, Tockholes, Wilpshire, Witton, Billington, Clayton-le-Dale, Dinkley, Rishton, Salesbury and Santesbury, within the parish of Blackburn; Old Accrington, New Accrington, Church, Clayton-le-Moors, Huncoat, Oswaldtwistle, Whalley, Yate Bank and Pickup Bank, in the parish of Whalley; Dutton and Ribchester, in the parish of Ribchester; Hoghton and Withnell, in the parish of Leyland; and Brindle, in the parish of Brindle, all in the said county palatine of Lancaster; and also to establish and regulate the rates and fees to be taken by the officers of the said court.—Dated the third day of October 1840.

Thomas Entwisle Swift,
Solicitor for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to extend the term, or to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions, of two several Acts, the first passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term of several Acts made for repairing the roads from Stumpcross to Newmarket heath, and from Stumpcross aforesaid to the end of the town of Trumpington, next to Shelford, and from Shelford-pound to Whittlesford, and for making more effectual provision for repairing the said roads, and also one mile of the road between Trumpington and Cambridge, commencing at the south end of Trumpington aforesaid, and for amending the road from Chesterford-bridge to the end of Whittlesford, next to Shelford, all in the county of Cambridge;" and the other, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for more effectually repairing the road from Stumpcross to Newmarket-heath, and other roads therein mentioned, in the county of Cambridge, and for empowering the trustees to erect a weighing engine, near to the said road;" or to repeal the said Acts, and grant more effectual powers instead thereof; and that it is intended to obtain an increase or alteration of the tolls granted by the said Acts, or one of them.

Jno. Good, Clerk to the Trustees of the said Roads.

Saffron Walden, 1st October 1840.

London and Blackwall Railway.

WHEREAS the London and Blackwall Railway Company, under their Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the Minorities to Blackwall, with branches, to be called 'The Commercial Railway;'" and of another Act, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for extending the line of the railway between London and Blackwall, called 'The Commercial Railway,' and for amending the Acts relating thereto;" are authorised and required to contract for, and to sell, such superfluous lands as might be purchased by the said Company, or any estate, or interest in such lands; first offering to sell the same to the person, or to the several persons, whose lands or premises shall immediately adjoin the lands so proposed to be sold, by notice, to be inserted twice in the London Gazette, and twice in two London newspapers; now the said Company do hereby give notice, that they propose immediately to sell and dispose of the superfluous lands mentioned in the schedule hereto, and more particularly described in a plan which may be seen at the office of the Company, at No. 10, America-square, in the city of London; and they do, therefore, hereby first offer to sell the same lands to the person, or to the several persons, whose lands or premises immediately adjoin the lands so proposed to be sold, for such price or prices as may be agreed upon between such person or persons and the said Company, or (in case of disagreement as to price) as shall be ascertained by a jury, in the manner directed by the said first-mentioned Act; and that, unless such person or persons shall be desirous of purchasing such lands so proposed to be sold, and shall signify such his or their desire and intention in that behalf to the said Company, within thirty days after this offer of sale, the said Company will proceed to sell and dispose of such lands, to any other person or persons; in such manner as they shall think fit; and as they are, or shall be, authorised by their said Acts of Parliament, or otherwise, to do.—Dated this 15th day of October 1840.
