Doncaster Improvements.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the forty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repealing so much of an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, as relates to the lighting the streets and places within the said borough and soke of Doncaster, in the county of York, and for more effectually lighting, watching, and otherwise improving the said borough, and for preventing nuisances therein;" or to repeal the said recited Act, and to grant further and other powers and provisions in lieu thereof for the general improvement of the said borough, in the parish of Doncaster aforesaid; also for better supplying the said borough with water; and also for maintaining and better regulating the police within the same.

And notice is hereby also given, that provision will be made in the said Bill for maintaining, regulating, and improving the markets held in the said borough of Doncaster; and for erecting a new market-house or market-houses within the same borough, with all proper conveniences and appurtenances thereto.

And notice is hereby further given, that in the said Bill powers will be contained for taking, purchasing, and making use of all such houses, buildings, lands, and hereditaments as may be considered necessary for widening or improving the streets or thoroughfares in the said borough, and also for the purpose of erecting a new market-house or market-houses, and annexing thereto such pieces or parcels of ground as may be deemed necessary for effecting the purposes aforesaid.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended by the said Bill to levy tolls, rates, dues, and duties for all or any of the above purposes, with all necessary powers and provisions for collecting and enforcing payment of the same.

Dated this tenth day of October 1840.

T. B. Mason, Town Clerk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for lighting with gas the port and town of Liverpool and township of Toxteth-park, in the county of Lancaster."

And it is intended by the Act so to be applied for, to empower the Liverpool Gas-light Company, incorporated by the said recited Act, to light with gas the several townships and places of West Derby, Everton, Kirkdale, Walton-on-the-Hill, and Bootle-cum-Linacre, all in the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and the several townships and places of Litherland and Great Crosby, in the parish of Sephton, in the said county, and the several townships and places of Wavertree and Garston, in the parish of Childwall, in the said county, or some of them, and to make and levy such rates or charges for the furnishing of such light as to Parliament may seem meet; and, generally, to exercise such powers within the said townships and places as they are or may be empowered to exercise, within the town of Liverpool and township of Toxteth-park aforesaid.

And, further, it is intended by the Act so to be applied for, to enable the said Company to increase their present capital by converting into capital the monies which have been expended by them, over and above the capital authorised to be raised by the said recited Act, and by the creation of new shares, or by such other means as Parliament shall direct.

And, lastly, it is proposed by the said intended Act to limit the future profits of the proprietors, in the said Company, and the rates and charges to be made by them in such manner and to such extent as to Parliament shall seem meet.

Dated this nineteenth day of October, 1840.

Thomas Carson, Solicitor to the said Company.

BRITISH GUIANA.

Counties of Demerara and Essequibo.

THE undersigned, in the capacity of Acting Provost Marshal of British Guiana, advertises, by these presents, for the first, second, and third time, that he (or the Provost Marshal for the time being) will, by virtue of the following sentences, viz. 1st. Sentence of the Honourable the Supreme Court of Civil Justice for the counties of Demerara and Essequibo, in the colony of British Guiana, dated the 28th day of February 1840, at the instance of Isaac H. Forster, an inhabitant of the district (now county) of Demerara, in his capacity as the legally constituted attorney of Doedens Roberts, late of this colony, versus Alexander Stevenson, also an inhabitant of this district (now county of Demerara); and 2d. Provisional Sentence granted by his Honour the Judge of the Roll of said Court, hearing date the 5th day of November 1839, at the instance of W. L. Brittain, an inhabitant of the county of Demerara, versus Alexander Stevenson, also an inhabitant of said county; and in pursuance of an order of his Honour Jeffery Hart Bent, Chief Justice of British Guiana, dated the 13th day of May 1840, will expose for sale at public auction, in the month of June 1841;

The sugar plantation Chantilly, situate on the west bank of the river Demerara, in the county of Demerara and colony of British Guiana aforesaid, comprising the land, buildings, cultivation, machinery, and further appurtenances.

The judicium of præ et concurrentiæ on the net proceeds of the said plantation, Chantilly, cum annexis, will be held by the Honourable the Supreme Court of Civil Justice of and for the counties of Demerara and Essequibo, in the colony of British Guiana aforesaid, three months after the day of sale, for which purpose all those who may pretend to have any right, title, or interest in and to the said net proceeds of the said sale, are hereby summoned by him, the said Acting Provost Marshal, to appear in person, or by their attorneys, to lay their claims, in due form, before the Honourable the Supreme Court of Justice, at the Roll-Court for the counties aforesaid, to be holden at the Court-house, in the Guiana Public-buildings, in George-town, in the month of October 1841, on pain that the non-appearsers will be proceeded against according to law.

An inventory of the said property will be seen at the Counting-houses of Messrs. Hall, M'Garel, and Co. No. 32, Fenchurch-street, London, and Messrs. Heemskerk, Brothers, of Amsterdam.

Marshal's Office, George-town, Demerara and Essequibo, this 7th day of August 1840.

GEO. WIGHT, Acting Provost Marshal.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Day versus Croft, the next of kin of Charles Day, late of Harley-house, Regent's-park, and of Edgeware, in the county of Middlesex, and who carried on the business of a Blacking-Manufacturer in Holborn, in the said county, and died on the 26th day of October 1836, living, at his death, or the personal representatives of any deceased next of kin, are to come in and prove their kindred before Sir William Horne, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, on or before the 30th day of November 1840, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Day versus Croft, the creditors of Charles Day, late of Harley-house, Regent's-park, and of Edgeware, in the county of Middlesex, and who carried on the business of a Blacking-Manufacturer in Holborn, in the said county, and died on the 26th day of October 1836, are to come in and prove their debts before Sir William Horne, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, on or before the 30th day of November 1840, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

TAKE notice, that Samuel Hart the younger and George Hart, both of the hamlet of Moulsham, in the parish of Chelmsford, in the county of Essex, Coach-Makers and Co-partners, have by deed, dated the 23d day of October instant, assigned to George Wakeling, of Chelmsford aforesaid, Appraiser and Auctioneer, all their estate and effects for the benefit of all the creditors of the said Samuel Hart the younger and George Hart, who shall execute the said deed on or before the 20th day of November next; and further take notice, that the said deed was executed by the said Samuel Hart the younger, George Hart, and George Wakeling, in the presence of James Parker, of Chelmsford aforesaid, Solicitor, on the day of the date of the said deed; and that the same deed is now lying at the house of the said George Wakeling, at Chelmsford aforesaid, for execution by all the creditors of the said Samuel Hart the younger and George Hart.—Dated this 22d October 1840.

NOTICE is hereby given, that George Robinson, of Saint Stephen's, by Launceston, in the county of Cornwall, Limeburner, hath by a certain indenture of assignment, bearing date the 15th day of October 1840, duly assigned all his personal estate and effects, whatsoever and wheresoever (except his estate and interest in certain lime quarries, situate at Bridesstowe, in the county of Devon, his working tools, watch, and wearing apparel of himself and wife), unto John Dew, of Saint Stephen's aforesaid, Builder, William Spettigue, of the same place, Gentleman, and Richard Bounsall Essery, of Launceston aforesaid, Wine-Merchant, in trust, and for the benefit of all the creditors of the said George Robinson, who shall execute the said indenture, within three calendar months from the date thereof; and which said indenture was executed by the said George Robinson, and the said John Dew, William Spettigue, and Richard Bounsall Essery, on the day of the date thereof, in the presence of, and was attested by, John Lethbridge Cowlard, of Launceston aforesaid, Attorney at Law; and notice is hereby further given, that the said indenture of assignment is now lying at the office of Messrs. Gurney and Lethbridge Cowlard, situate at Launceston aforesaid, for the inspection and signature of the creditors of the said George Robinson; and all persons standing indebted to him are requested immediately to pay the amount of their respective debts to the said Messrs. Gurney and Lethbridge Cowlard, Solicitors to the said assignees.—Launceston, 24th October 1840.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter 16, sec. 4, William Dewis, of Bedworth, in the county of Warwick, Ribbon-Merchant, hath executed a certain indenture of assignment, bearing date the 19th day of October 1840, and made between the said William Dewis of the first part; Benjamin Walker, Richard Eabry, and Thomas Peake, all of Bedworth aforesaid, Ribbon-Manufacturers, creditors of the said William Dewis, of the second part; and the several other persons, also creditors of the said William Dewis, who should execute those presents, of the third part; and hath thereby assigned all his personal estate and effects (except such part of the household goods and furniture of the said William Dewis, which he should select, to the value of twenty pounds, for the use of him, the said William Dewis, his wife, and family), unto the said Benjamin Walker, Richard Eabry, and Thomas Peake, in trust, for the general benefit of themselves and all other the creditors of the said William Dewis; and which said indenture was executed by the said William Dewis, Benjamin Walker, Richard Eabry, and Thomas Peake, on the said 19th day of October 1840, in the presence of James Williams Buchanan, of Nuneaton, in the county of Warwick, Attorney at Law, and John Cooke, his clerk; and notice is hereby also given, that the said indenture is lodged at the office of Mr. Buchanan, in Nuneaton aforesaid, for the purpose of being executed by such of the creditors of the said William Dewis as may think proper to execute the same; and that in the said indenture is contained a proviso, that such of the creditors of the said William Dewis as shall refuse or neglect to execute the same, within three months from the date thereof, shall be excluded from all benefit to arise therefrom.

Desirable Freehold Shop and Premises, George-street, Saint Albans, Herts.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Samuel Crawley, at the Woolpack Inn, Saint Albans, on Wednesday the 4th day of November 1840, at two o'clock in the afternoon, by order of the assignees of Mr. Robert Brooks, a bankrupt, and with the consent of the mortgagee;

A desirable freehold dwelling-house, well situate in George-street, in the centre of the borough and market town of Saint Albans, and in which the grocery business has been carried on for many years. The premises are calculated for almost any business, containing, on the ground floor, a spacious light and airy shop, fronting the street, and a large parlour behind; and, on the one pair, four good bed-rooms; extensive dry cellaring, running under the whole of the house, a good yard, in which is a wash-house, wood-house, and other out-buildings, and a well of excellent water, with a large garden well stocked with fruit trees. The premises are let to a respectable yearly tenant, at a rent of £20 per annum.

May be viewed at any time prior to the sale, and further particulars and conditions may be had on application to Mr. J. S. Storey, Saint Albans, Solicitor to the mortgagee; Messrs. Robinson, Hine, and Robinson, Charter-house-square, London, Solicitors to the assignees; or to the Auctioneer, at Saint Albans; and at the principal Inns in the neighbourhood.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Arnison, of Little Tufton-street, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 17th day of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees allowing to the wife of the said bankrupt, out of the share or interest of the estate and effects of Thomas Richards, deceased, to which the said bankrupt became entitled under the will of the said Thomas Richards, deceased, in right of his said wife, such sum of money as the said creditors may at such meeting consider just and equitable; and also to authorise and empower the said assignees to pay and allow, out of such share or interest, to the wife of the said bankrupt, such sum as may be agreed upon by the said creditors at such meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Huddleston, of Monk Wearmouth-shore, in the county of Durham, Boat-Building, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 18th day of November next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the offices of Messrs. Wilson and Parker, Solicitors, in Bishop Wearmouth, in the borough of Sunderland, in the said county, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, carrying on, and prosecuting any suit or suits in equity, or such other proceedings as they shall be advised, against certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, for the purpose of setting aside certain alleged legal and equitable mortgages upon certain parts of the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving up and releasing, upon such terms as they may think proper, the equity of redemption of such parts of the said bankrupt's estate as are subject to certain legal and equitable mortgages, to be named at such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling or disposing of certain parts of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, to be named at such meeting, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, or upon valuation, and upon such terms and conditions as the said assignees may think proper; and in case of any such sale or sales by auction, then to assent to or dissent from the said assignees buying in the same, or any part or parts thereof, at such price or prices as they may think proper, and reselling the same, either by public auction or private contract, at the risk of the said bankrupt's estate, and without the said assignees being responsible for any loss or deficiency which may be occasioned thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, or in the Court of Bankruptcy, for the recovery or protection of all or any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling and arranging any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to take such measures and make all such arrangements as they shall deem most to the advantage of the said bankrupt's estate; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Robinson, of Leeds, in the county of York, Cloth-Merchant and Cloth-Dresser, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Thursday the 19th day of November next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the offices of Mr. John Blackburn, Solicitor, 26, Abion-street, in Leeds aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, and at such price or prices, and either for ready money or upon credit, or upon such other terms, and with or without and upon such security as they may think proper, all or any part of the real and personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtor to the said bankrupt's estate, and to their allowing time for payment as the said assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing and paying an accountant, and other person and persons, to investigate the accounts, and to wind up and settle the affairs of the said bankrupt, and to make out such statement touching the same as and in such manner as the said assignees, or their solicitors, may require and deem necessary and requisite, and to their making a reasonable remuneration for such services; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the moneys which shall come into their hands under this bankruptcy, certain costs and expences incurred in preparing and getting executed a deed of assignment of the said bankrupt's real and personal estate to a certain trustee therein mentioned, for the equal benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupt, and also all other costs, charges, and expences incident to the execution of the trusts of the said assignment, or in any way incurred by the trustee thereunder, and also the fees and charges of Mr. Thomas Plint, of Leeds, Accountant, for investigating the books and affairs of the bankrupt, for making inventories of his effects, and preparing a balance sheet for the said trustee, and also any other costs and charges which were incurred, previous and up to the time of the choice of assignees, in protecting and getting in the estate and effects of the bankrupt, and in the investigation of his accounts and affairs; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or both, or their preferring opposing, or answering any petition or petitions at law or in equity, which they may deem necessary, proper, or advisable for the recovering, obtaining, protecting, or keeping possession of all or any part of the real and personal estate or effects of the said bankrupt, or for any other purpose relating to the affairs of the said bankrupt, or for any other purpose in any wise concerning or relating to the working or prosecuting of the said Fiat; or to their compounding, settling, or submitting to arbitration; or otherwise agreeing upon any matter or thing relating thereto; and to assent to, confirm, ratify, and allow, or otherwise dissent from all or any acts, matters, and things done and performed by the trustee under the said assignment, before the date and issuing forth of the said Fiat, and all acts, matters, and things done and performed by the provisional assignee or the assignees thereunder; and generally to authorise the said assignees to take and adopt such other proceedings in or relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, and for the due protection, sale, and disposition thereof, as the said assignees may think expedient; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Galloway and William Newton, of Well-o'th' lane, in the township of Castleton, in the parish of Rochdale, in the county of Lancaster, Cotton-Spinners, Dealers, Chapman, and Co-partners, are requested to meet the assignee of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on Saturday the 21st day of November next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the office of Mr. William Norris, Solicitor, No. 30, Brown-street, in Manchester, in the said county of Lancaster, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of, or entering into any contract for the sale and disposition of, all or any part of the said bankrupts' leasehold premises, situate at Well-o'th' lane, in the parish of Rochdale aforesaid, or elsewhere, to any person or persons whomsoever, either by public auction or private contract, or otherwise, and either for ready money or on credit, and as to his buying in the same, or any part thereof, as to the said assignee shall seem expedient, and as to his taking security for the purchase money as he shall think proper; and to the said assignee making and entering into any arrangement or settlement with the mortgagee, or any other person or persons claiming any lien, interest, or charge upon the said hereditaments and premises, or any part thereof, as he may be advised or think most beneficial to the said bankrupts' estate, or to his referring any matter or dispute with the said mortgagee to arbitration; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee assigning or otherwise disposing of the lease of the said premises, in such manner as shall be submitted and named at the said meeting; and also to ratify, allow, and confirm certain arrangements made by the said assignee with the Yorkshire Fire Insurance Company, in consequence of the destruction of a part of the said leasehold property by fire; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding any debt or debts due and owing by or to the said bankrupts' estate; and to the said assignee taking, commencing and prosecuting, defending, and opposing any proceedings at law or in equity or bankruptcy, in respect of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, and for the protection, recovery, and getting in of the same, or any part thereof; and to refer to arbitration or compromise any dispute, claim, or demand whatsoever, which now or hereafter may exist between the said assignee and any person or persons whomsoever, in respect of the same or any part thereof; and generally to authorise the said assignee to act for the benefit of the said bankrupts' estate as to him shall seem most beneficial; and on other special affairs.
