SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1840.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November 1840,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act for better defining the powers of Justices within the Metropolitan Police District," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to constitute within the Metropolitan Police District, so many Police Court Divisions as to Her Majesty should seem fit; and to define the extent thereof, and, from time to time, to alter the number and extent of such Police Court Divisions, and to assign a division to each of the Police Courts already established; and to establish a Police Court for each of the other divisions; and that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, if She should think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that a Police Magistrate or Magistrates should attend regularly at any Police Court or Courts thereafter to be established, either daily, or on such days and times as Her Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, should order.

BOW-STREET POLICE COURT.

Her Majesty, therefore, is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the space included within the following boundary (that is to say), from the River Thames at the Temple-stairs westward, along the said river, to the north side of Westminster-bridge; thence along the centre of Bridge-street, in a straight line to and along the centre of Great George-street to Storey's-gate; thence along the boundary line of Saint James's-park to Buckingham-gate; thence along the centre of Stafford-row, to and along the centre of Arabella-place, of Lower Grosvenor-place, and of Grosvenor-place, to Hyde-park-corner; thence eastward along the boundary of the Green-park and Saint James's-park (including Saint James's-palace), to the west side of Spring-gardens; thence along the south and east sides of Trafalgar-square to Saint Martin's-lane; thence northward along the centre thereof, and of Upper Saint Martin's-lane; of Little Saint Andrew-street (including the Seven Dials), of Great Saint Andrew-street, and of King-street to Broad-street; thence eastward along the centre thereof to and along the centre of High Holborn, to the boundary of the city of London; and thence southward along the said boundary to the Temple-stairs aforesaid; shall constitute a Police Court Division, and be assigned to the police court called "Bow-street Police Court."

UNION-HALL POLICE COURT.

And Her Majesty is further pleased, with the advice aforesaid, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the space included within the following boundary (that is to say), from Dock-head, in a line running northward to the river Thames; thence westward along the said river to Waterloo-bridge; thence southward to Vauxhall-bridge; thence south-eastward to and along the New-road and Bridge-street, to the Oval at Kennington; thence to and along the New Camberwell-road; thence eastward to and along Church-street, Camden-terrace, Paradise-place, and High-street; and thence to Ebenezer-place; thence northward to and along Pomeroy-street to the Dover-road; thence to and along the Kent-road to the boundary line between the parishes of Rotherhithe and Bermondsey; and thence along the said boundary to the river Thames; and thence along the river to Dockhead aforesaid; shall constitute a Police Court Division, and be assigned to the police court called "Union-hall Police Court."

And whereas by an Order in Council, bearing date the third of October in the present year, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, did order that certain parishes and places in the counties of Surrey and Kent, therein expressly mentioned, described and set forth, should constitute a police court division; and that a police court for such division should be holden at Greenwich, in the county of Kent; and that certain other parishes and places in the county of Kent, therein particularly mentioned, set forth and described, should constitute a police court division, and that a police court for such division should be holden at Woolwich, in the county of Kent; and Her Majesty, by the said Order in Council, did order that the magistrates thereafter to be appointed for the said divisions respectively, should attend at the said respective police courts, on the days and at the times, and in the manner therein particularly expressed and set forth.

And whereas Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, has deemed it expedient to rescind and vacate the said order, and to make and give such other order in lieu thereof, as is hereinafter contained, ordered, and set forth.

Her Majesty is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the said Order in Council hereinbefore particularly mentioned, be vacated, revoked, and rescinded.

And Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the parishes of Greenwich, Saint Nicholas Deptford, that part of Saint Paul's Deptford which is within the county of Kent, the parishes of Lewisham and Lea, in the county of Kent; Rotherhithe; that part of Saint Paul's Deptford which is within the county of Surrey; and the hamlet of Hatcham, in the county of Surrey; shall henceforth be constituted a police court division, and that a police court shall be established for such division to be holden at Greenwich, in the county of Kent; and that the parishes of Plumstead, Woolwich, Charlton, Eltham, the liberty of Kidbrooke, and the hamlet of Mottingham, in the county of Kent, shall, from henceforth, be constituted a police court division, and that a police court for such division shall be holden at Woolwich, in the county of Kent.

And Her Majesty is further pleased, with the advice aforesaid, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the magistrates who shall have been, or shall hereafter be, appointed for the respective divisions of Greenwich and Woolwich, shall attend daily at such respective courts, excepting Sundays, Christmas-day, Good Friday, or any day appointed for a public fast or thanksgiving; and that one of the magistrates appointed, or to be appointed as aforesaid, shall attend at the said Greenwich police court, from ten of the clock in the morning until half past one of the clock in the afternoon; and that one of the said magistrates shall attend at the said Woolwich police court, from half-past two of the clock in the afternoon, until five of the clock in the afternoon, and longer if (in the discretion of the magistrate) it shall be deemed to be necessary for the dispatch of business.

And the Most Noble the Marquess of Normanby, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from London to Greenwich;" also of an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to enlarge the powers of an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making a railway from London to Greenwich;" also of an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the London and Greenwich Railway Company to take certain tolls for passengers, cattle, and carriages crossing the River Ravensbourne in pursuance of an agreement entered into with the Deptford Creek Bridge Company;" also of an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her said present Majesty, intituled "An Act for extending the time for completing the London and Greenwich Railway;" also of an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of Her said present Majesty, intituled "An Act for granting further powers to the London and Greenwich Railway Company;" also of an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her said present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the London and Greenwich Railway;" and also of an Act, passed in the said fourth year of the reign of Her said present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the London and Greenwich Railway Company to provide a station in the parish of Saint Olave, in the borough of Southwark, and county of Surrey; and in which Bill provision is intended to be made to alter, divert, widen, or enlarge certain streets, ways, roads, and places, in the parishes of Saint Olave and Saint John, in the said borough of Southwark, and in the parishes of Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey, and Saint Mary Rotherhithe, in the said county of Surrey, and to purchase houses, lands, and other property for such purpose.—Dated this third day of November 1840.

James Vallance,
Solicitor to the London and Greenwich
Railway Company.

This Notice is given by way of precaution that the Company may not be precluded from applying to Parliament in the ensuing session, in case it should be deemed necessary.

WHEREAS, notices were published in the months of February and March last, in the London Gazette, and in a Newspaper of the West Riding of the county of York, as required by the standing orders of both Houses of Parliament, of the intention to apply to Parliament in the next session for an Act to make and maintain a Railway from the North Midland Railway to the town of Doncaster, in the said West Riding, and plans and sections of such intended line of railway mentioned in the said notices, and books of reference thereto, have been deposited with the clerk of the peace of the said West Riding, and with the clerks of the parishes through which such intended line of railway would pass, as mentioned in the said notices.

Now, notice is hereby given, that it is intended to make the several deviations hereinafter mentioned, not exceeding one mile each in length, from the line of the said proposed railway; that is to say, a deviation commencing at, and uniting with, the North Midland Railway, in or near to a field, numbered 1, on the said plans, in the parish of Wath-upon-Dearne, and township of Swinton, and terminating in or near to a field, numbered 19 on the said plans, in the same parish and township; a deviation commencing in or near the said last mentioned field, numbered 19, and terminating in or near to a field, numbered 5 on the said plans, in the parish of Mexbrough and township of Denaby; a deviation commencing in or near the said last mentioned field, numbered 5, and terminating in or near to a field, numbered 16, on the said plans in the said parish of Mexbrough and township of Denaby; a deviation commencing at or near to the said last mentioned field, numbered 16, and terminating in or near to a field, numbered 27, on the said plans in the said parish of Mexbrough and township of Denaby; a deviation commencing in or near to the said last mentioned field, numbered 27, and terminating in or near to a field, numbered 21, on the said plans, in the parish and township of Conisbrough; a deviation commencing in or near to the said last mentioned field, numbered 21, and terminating in or near to a field, numbered 9, on the said plans, in the parish of Sprotbrough and township of Cadeby; a deviation commencing in or near to the said last mentioned field, numbered 9, and terminating in or near to a field, numbered 27, on the said plans, in the said parish of Sprotbrough and township of Cadeby; a deviation commencing in or near to the said last mentioned field, numbered 27, and terminating in or near to a wood, numbered 28, on the said plans, in the said parish of Sprotbrough and township of Cadeby; a deviation commencing in or near to the said wood, numbered 28, and terminating in or near to a field, numbered 7, on the said plans, in the parish of Sprotbrough and township of Sprotbrough; a deviation commencing in or near to the said last mentioned field, numbered 7, and terminating in or near to a field, numbered 17, on the said plans, in the parish of Warmsworth and township of Warmsworth; a deviation commencing in or near the said last mentioned field, numbered 17, and terminating in or near to a field, numbered 2, on the said plans, in the parish of Doncaster and township of Balby-cum-Hexthorpe; a deviation commencing in or near to the said last mentioned field, numbered 2, and terminating in or near to a field, numbered 36, on the said plans, in the said parish of Doncaster and township of Balby-cum-Hexthorpe; a deviation commencing in or near to the said last mentioned field, numbered 36, and terminating at or near a certain street or highway called Factory Lane, numbered 54, on the said plans, in the town, township, and parish of Doncaster; a deviation (being a deviation from an alternative line, marked A. C. B. on the said plans,) commencing in or near to a field, numbered 27 on the said plans, in the said parish of Sprotbrough and township of Cadeby, and terminating in or near to certain limestone works, numbered 79 on the said plans, in the said parish and township of Conisbrough; a deviation from the said line, marked A. C. B. on the said plans, commencing in or near to the said limestone works, numbered 79, and terminating in or near to certain lime works, numbered 78, on the said plans, in the said parish and township of Warmsworth; a deviation from the said line, marked A. C. B. on the said plans, commencing in or near to the said lime works, numbered 78, and terminating in or near to a field, numbered 17, on the said plans, in the said parish and township of Warmsworth: all which said several deviations so intended to be made, are situated in the West Riding of the county of York.

And notice is hereby further given, that power is intended to be taken to deviate in the construction of the said proposed deviations to any extent not exceeding 100 yards on either side of the line or lines thereof, as the same will be laid down in the plans to be deposited, as hereinafter mentioned, except where the intention to deviate therefrom to a more limited extent shall be expressed upon the said plans.

And notice is hereby also given, that on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, duplicate plans and sections, describing the line or lines and levels of the said several intended deviations, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, will be deposited for public inspection with the clerk of the peace for the said West Riding of the county of York at his office in Wakefield, and that a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the several parishes in or through which the said several deviations are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will, on or before the same day, be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at the place of abode of such parish clerk.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to take powers to levy tolls, rates, and duties, upon and in respect of the use of the said several deviations.

And notice is hereby lastly given, that it is not intended to take powers to execute the branch railway described on the said original plan, as commencing at the road leading from Warmworth church to Balby, and terminating at a street, called the Horse Fair, in the town of Doncaster.—

Dated this seventh day of November, 1840.

and practice of the Court of Passage of the borough of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster,' and to repeal an Act passed in the twenty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled 'An Act for the more easy and speedy recovery of small debts in the town and port of Liverpool, and liberties thereof, in the county palatine of Lancaster,' and to give further power for the recovery of small debts "within the borough of Liverpool;" and also another local Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for altering, amending, improving, and extending the provisions of certain Acts of Parliament relating to the town of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster;" and also another local Act, passed in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending certain Acts relating to the civil Court of Record of the borough of Liverpool, and improving the proceedings thereof;" and to take powers to restrict the letting or using of cellars in the said borough for habitation, where such occupancy would be injurious to the health of the inhabitants, and in other cases to secure that reasonable conveniences shall be attached to or provided in such cellars, and to secure the proper ventilation of back courts hereafter to be made in the said borough for small dwellings, to be let or used for habitation, and to secure that reasonable conveniences shall be attached to or provided in such dwellings;" and also to enact for the borough of Liverpool the powers, clauses, limitations, penalties, and provisions of an Act passed in the session of the second and third years of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled "An Act for further improving the police in and near the metropolis," or such of them as may be deemed fit and proper to be enacted in relation thereto.—Dated this ninth day of November, 1840.

R. Radcliffe, Town Clerk of Liverpool, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for leave to bring in one or more Bill or Bills for preserving, improving, and maintaining the river Mersey, from the sea to Warrington and Frodsham bridges, and the navigation thereof; and for vesting in trustees or commissioners the conservancy thereof, with the benefit of the flux and reflux of the tidal waters within the said river above and below the said bridges, and within all rivers, creeks, and inlets, communicating therewith, and the benefit of the head-streams flowing into the said river Mersey, by means of the said river, creeks, or inlets, communicating therewith or otherwise; and with powers for excavating, deepening, cleansing, and scouring out the said river, from the sea to the said bridges, and the channels thereof, and the entrances and approaches thereto from the sea, and for preventing any encroachments on the said river from the entrances thereof, from the sea up to the said bridges, beyond boundary lines to be defined, the said conservancy and powers aforesaid being subject to such confirmation of existing possessions as to Parliament shall seem reasonable, which said boundary lines are intended to pass through, or at or near the following parishes, townships, hamlets, and places, that is to say, West Kirby, Little Meols, Great Meols, Hoose, Wallasey, Liscard, Poulton-cum-Seacombe, Bidston-cum-Ford, Birkenhead, Bebbington, Tranmere, Higher Bebbington, Lower Bebbington, Poulton-cum-Spittle, Bromborough, Eastham Hooton, Netherpool, Whitby, Stoke, Great Stanney, Stanlow, Thornton-in-the-Moors, Iuce, Frodsham, Runcorn, Sutton, Clifton Weston, Halton, Norton, Acton Grange, Lower Walton, Great Budworth, Appleton, Grappenhall, Latchford and Thilwall, in the county of Chester and Warrington, Prescot, Great Sankey, Penketh, Cuerdley, Widness with Appleton, Ditton Childwall, Halewood, Hale, Speke, Garston, Toxteth Park, Liverpool, Walton-on-the-Hill, Kirkdale, Bootle, Linacre, Sefton, Litherland, Great Crosby, Little Crosby, Altcar, Little Altcar, and Formby, in the county of Lancaster; and for defining the said boundary lines by mere stones or posts, to be erected or set up at such intervals, and in such places, as may be thought proper or expedient. And it is intended by the said Bill or Bills, to take powers to authorize the purchase of strand lands and hereditaments, with the consent of the owners or proprietors thereof, to be applied to the uses and purposes of the preservation and maintenance of the said river Mersey, from the sea to the said bridges, and the navigation thereof, and with the consent of the owners or proprietors of any strand or lands and hereditaments, to make embankments, walls, cut-waters, and other erections thereon, for the purposes aforesaid; and also power for the said trustees or commissioners to make bye-laws, rules and regulations, for the better effecting and maintaining the purposes aforesaid. And it is intended by the said Bill or Bills, to make provision for the expenses of the said conservancy, and other the matters aforesaid, out of the borough fund of the borough of Liverpool, and the rates and duties payable to the trustees of the Liverpool docks; and also to take power to raise money for the purposes aforesaid, at interest or otherwise, upon the security or assignment of such part or parts of the said borough fund and dock-rates and duties as may be made applicable to the provision aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, plans defining the boundary lines above-mentioned, together with sections, and also duplicates of such plans and sections, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited for public inspection at the office of the clerk of the peace for the county of Lancaster, at Preston, in the said county of Lancaster, and at the office of the clerk of the peace for the county of Chester, at Chester, in the said county of Chester.

And that on or before the thirty-first day of December next, copies of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, will be deposited in the private bill office of the honourable the House of Commons, and in the office of the clerk of the Parliament.

And also, that on or before the said thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the several said respective parishes, in or through which the boundary lines above-mentioned are intended to be made or defined, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each of those parishes, at the respective residences of such parish clerk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to bring in one or more Bill or Bills, to enlarge, deepen, and widen the waterway of the new cut or channel, called the Nene Outfall Cut, at or near a certain bridge, called Cross Keys Bridge, in the counties of Lincoln and Norfolk, or one of them, either by removing the said bridge and erecting a new bridge, on or near the site thereof, or substituting a floating or ferry bridge across the said cut, and to make and maintain all necessary approaches, slipways, and other works connected with such new bridge or floating bridge; and to take tolls in respect of such new bridge or floating bridge, which said new bridge or floating bridge and works will be situate in the parish of Sutton St. Mary, otherwise Long Sutton, otherwise Sutton in Holland, and the hamlet of Sutton St. Mary, in the said parish, in the county of Lincoln, and in the parishes of Walpole St. Andrew and Walpole St. Peter, and in an extra parochial place near to or adjoining the said two last mentioned parishes, in the county of Norfolk, some or one of them; and to widen, deepen, enlarge, and vary the channel of the Wisbech river, from the upper or south end of the said Nene Outfall Cut to a place called the Horseshoe Corner; such channel of the Wisbech river being situate in the several parishes, hamlets, or places of Tid St. Mary, in the said county of Lincoln, Tid St. Giles, Newton, Leverington, and Wisbech St. Peter, in the Isle of Ely, in the county of Cambridge, and West Walton, Walpole St. Peter, Walpole St. Andrew, Emneth, and Walsoken, in the county of Norfolk, or some of them; and to make a new cut from the said place called Horseshoe Corner, proceeding on the north-west of the town of Wisbech St. Peter aforesaid to a certain place called Rummer's Sluice, with proper staunches, weirs, locks, and communications, in, over, and with the same, for the convenience of the said town of Wisbech St. Peter; which new cut is intended to be made in, or to pass from, through, or into the parishes of Leverington, Wisbech St. Peter and Wisbech St. Mary, in the said Isle of Ely and county of Cambridge, and Walsoken, in the said county of Norfolk, some or one of them, and to divert into the said intended new cut the water from the Wisbech river; and also to improve the navigation of and to deepen, widen, enlarge, and regulate the present channel of the said Wisbech river between the said place called Horseshoe Corner and Guyhirn, in the parishes of Wisbech St. Peter, Elm, Wisbech St. Mary, and Walsoken, and the hamlet of March, in the parish of Doddington, in the said Isle of Ely, and to make all banks, bridges, sluices, tunnels, and other works necessary thereto, and to convert the present channel, between the said place called the Horseshoe Corner and the said place called Rummer's Sluice, into a floating dock, with proper works and conveniences; and also to make a new cut or channel, with the necessary locks, sluices, weirs, bridges and other works, from the aforesaid intended new cut from Horseshoe Corner to Rummer's Sluice, to join the present channel at a place called Barton Lane End, in the parish of Wisbech St. Peter, and also to divert into the last mentioned intended new cut the water from the said Wisbech river, and to provide for the more effectual sewage and drainage of the said town of Wisbech St. Peter, and to make a diversion from the line of the present navigable channel in Guyhirn, in the said parish of Wisbech St. Mary, and to widen, deepen, improve, and vary the said channel, from Guyhirn aforesaid to a place called Woodstone Staunch, situate in the parishes of Woodstone and Overton Longville, in the county of Huntingdon, and St. John the Baptist, Peterborough, in the county of Northampton, and the hamlet of Longthorp in the said last mentioned parish, or some or one of them; which said navigable channel, so intended to be widened, deepened, improved, and varied as last aforesaid, is situate in or passes from, through, or into the several parishes, hamlets, or places of Wisbech St. Peter, Wisbech St. Mary, Guyhirn, Elm, Waldersea, March, Doddington, Whittlesey St. Andrew, and Whittlesey St. Mary, Eldernell, Coates, Estrea, and Standground, in the said Isle of Ely and county of Cambridge, and Standground, Fletton, and Woodstone, in the said county of Huntingdon, and St. John the Baptist, Peterborough aforesaid, or some of them; and to make one or more catchwater drain or drains from or from near a place called Standground Sluice, in the said parish of Standground, in the said Isle of Ely and county of Cambridge, and in the said county of Huntingdon, or one of them, and in the said parishes of Whittlesey St. Andrew and Whittlesey St. Mary, or one of them, to or near to Holme Wood, in the parishes of Holme and Connington, or one of them, in the county of Huntingdon, and also from or from near Holme Wood aforesaid, in the said parishes of Holme and Connington, or one of them, to or near to a certain place called Wells Bridge, in the parish of Ramsay, in the said county of Huntingdon; and the said catchwater drain or drains will be made in or pass from, through, or into the several parishes, hamlets, or places following, (that is to say,) Whittlesey St. Andrew, Whittlesey St. Mary, and Standground, in the said Isle of Ely and county of Cambridge, and Standground, otherwise Standground with Farcet, Standground, Woodstone, Fletton, Farcet, Yaxley, Stilton, Caldicot, otherwise Caldicote, Denton, Holme, Connington, Sawtry All Saints, Sawtry St. Andrew, Sawtry St. Judith, Woodwalton, Great Raveley, Little Raveley, Upwood, Wistow, Bury, Warboys, and Ramsay, in the said county of Huntingdon, or some of them; and to cleanse out, enlarge, restore, and deepen an ancient drain called Bevil's Leam, or Twenty-foot river, situate in the parishes, hamlets, or places of Whittlesey St. Andrew, Whittlesey St. Mary, Coates, Estrea, Eldernell, Doddington, March, Wisbech St. Mary, Wisbech St. Peter, Guyhirn, Elm, and Waldersea, in the said Isle of Ely and county of Cambridge, and Ramsey, Holme, Farcet, and Standground, in the said county of Huntingdon; and to make a new drain from the termination of Bevil's Leam, through Whittlesey mere, to Caldicote dyke, and to deepen, widen, and vary the said Caldicote dyke, and which said drain and Caldicote dyke are respectively situate in, or are intended to be made in, or to pass from, through, or into the several parishes, hamlets, or places of Ramsey, Holme, Denton, Caldicot, otherwise Caldicote, Stilton, Yaxley, Farcet, Standground, otherwise Standground with Farcet, and Standground, in the said county of Huntingdon; and also to make another new drain, from Bevil's Leam aforesaid, at or near a certain place called Pond's Bridge, in the said parishes of Whittlesey St. Mary and Whittlesey St. Andrew, and Ramsey, some or one of them, to the lower or northern end of Monk's Lode, and to widen, deepen, enlarge, and vary the said Monk's Lode, and which new drain and Monk's Lode are respectively situate in or are intended to pass from, through, or into the several parishes, hamlets, or places of Whittlesey St. Andrew and Whittlesey St. Mary, in the said Isle of Ely and county of Cambridge, or one of them, and Ramsey, Farcet, Holme, Connington, Sawtry St. Andrew, Sawtry All Saints, Sawtry St. Judith, Woodwalton, and Higney, or some of them, in the said county of Huntingdon; and also to make a new drain for the purpose of draining Moreton's Leam Wash and the adjoining meadows, such new drain to commence at Guyhirn, and to terminate at the upper end of Hill's Cut; and which said drain and the necessary works for its formation and support, are intended to be made in, or to pass from, through, or into the parishes, hamlets, or places of Wisbech St. Peter, Wisbech St. Mary, Guyhirn, Elm, Doddington, March, Eldernell, Coates, Estrea, Whittlesey St. Mary, Whittlesey St. Andrew, and Whittlesey Northea, and Standground Northea, in the said Isle of Ely and county of Cambridge, Standground Northea, Fletton and Woodstone, in the said county of Huntingdon, and St. John the Baptist, Peterborough, in the said county of Northampton.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is the intention of the parties applying for leave to bring in the said Bill or Bills to levy tolls or tonnage dues in respect of the navigation between Cross Keys Bridge aforesaid and the town of Peterborough, in the said county of Northampton, and between the said town of Peterborough and the sea; and also to levy rates or taxes upon or in respect of the lands intended to be benefited by the said drainage and works, which said lands are situate in the several parishes, hamlets, or places of West Walton and Walsoken, in the said county of Norfolk, Newton, Leverington, Wisbech St. Peter, Wisbech St. Mary, Elm, Waldersea, Guyhirn, Doddington, March, Benwick, Whittlesey St. Andrew, Whittlesey St. Mary, Eldernell, Coates, Estrea, Whittlesea Northea, Standground, and Standground Northea, or some of them, in the said Isle of Ely and county of Cambridge; St. John the Baptist, Peterborough, in the said county of Northampton, Standground otherwise Standground with Farcet, Fletton, Woodstone, Farcet, Yaxley, Stilton, Caldicot otherwise Caldicote, Denton, Holme, Glatton otherwise Glatton with Holme, Connington, Sawtry All Saints, Sawtry St. Andrew, Sawtry St. Judith, Higney, Woodwalton, Great Raveley, Upwood, Wistow, Warboys, Bury, and Ramsey, in the said county of Huntingdon, or some of them.

And notice is hereby also given, that in the said Bill or Bills powers will be contained for taking down and removing the present bridge, at a place called the Dog and Doublet, and for building a new bridge in lieu thereof, and for improving the roads and approaches thereto, in the said parishes of Whittlesey St. Andrew and Whittlesey St. Mary, or one of them, and for taking tolls for the passage of horses, cattle, carts, and carriages over the same.

And notice is hereby also given, that a plan of the said works, and a duplicate thereof, and a section and a duplicate thereof, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited for public inspection with the clerk of the peace for the parts of Holland in the county of Lincoln, at his office at Spalding; with the clerk of the peace for the county of Norfolk, at his office at Aylsham; with the clerk of the peace for the county of Cambridge, at his office at Cambridge; with the clerk of the peace for the Isle of Ely, in the said county of Cambridge, at his office in the said town of Wisbech St. Peter; with the clerk of the peace for the county of Huntingdon, at his office at St. Ives; with the clerk of the peace for the liberty and soke of Peterborough, at his office at Peterborough; and with the clerk of the peace for the county of Northampton, at his office at Northampton; on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the before-mentioned parishes, in or through which the works hereinbefore mentioned, or any of them, are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each parish at his respective place of abode.

And notice is also hereby given, that it is intended (in case it shall be found expedient) by the same bill or bills, to repeal, alter, or amend the several Acts hereinafter mentioned (that is to say), an Act passed in the seventh year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for constructing a bridge across Sutton Wash, otherwise called Cross Keys Wash, between the counties of Lincoln and Norfolk," and also an Act passed in the fiftieth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for establishing a cattle market within the town of Wisbech, in the isle of Ely, for taking down, and removing the shambles therein, for paving, cleansing, lighting, and watching the said town, and removing nuisances therein, for preserving and improving the port and harbour of Wisbech, and for regulating the pilots belonging thereto; and also an Act passed in the fifteenth year of the reign of King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for settling the drainage of the great level of the fens, called Bedford Level;" and also an Act passed in the twentieth year of the said last-mentioned reign, intituled "An Act for the taxing and assessing of the lands of the Adventurers within the great level of the fens;" and also an Act passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for improving the outfall of the river Nene, and the drainage of the lands discharging their waters into the Wisbech river, and the navigation of the said Wisbech river, from the upper end of Kinderley's Cut to the sea, and for embanking the salt marshes and bare sands lying between the said cut and the sea; and also an Act passed in the tenth year of the said last-mentioned reign, intituled "An Act for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers granted by an Act passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His present Majesty, for improving the outfall of the river Nene, and the drainage of the lands discharging their waters into the Wisbech river, and the navigation of the said Wisbech river from the upper end of Kinderley's Cut to the sea; and for embanking the salt marshes and bare sands lying between the said cut and the sea;" also an Act passed in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act for improving and preserving the navigation from Salter's Load Sluice, in the county of Norfolk, to Staudground Sluice in the county of Huntingdon; and from Flood's Ferry, in the isle of Ely, in the county of Cambridge, to Ramsay High Load, in the said county of Huntingdon; and also the navigation from Old Bedford Sluice, in the said county of Norfolk, to the river Nene, in the parish of Ramsay, in the said county of Huntingdon; and also an Act passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a navigable canal from Wisbech river, at or near a place called the Old Sluice, in the town of Wisbech, in the isle of Ely and county of Cambridge, to join the river Nene, in the parish of Outwell, in the said isle of Ely, and in the county of Norfolk, and for improving and maintaining the navigation of the said river from Outwell Church to Salter's Load Sluice;" also an Act passed in the fiftieth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for improving the drainage of certain lands within the north and south-west parts of the middle level, part of the great level of the fens commonly called Bedford Level."

London and Chatham Railway.

WHEREAS, notices were published in the months of February and March last, in the London Gazette, and in a newspaper of the county of Kent, of the intention to apply to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining one or more line or lines of railway, commencing by a junction with the London and Greenwich Railway, at or near the Ravensbourne river; or Deptford Creek, in the parish of Greenwich, otherwise Saint Alphage, Greenwich, in the county of Kent, and passing or proceeding from thence through or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Greenwich, otherwise Saint Alphage Greenwich, Lewisham, Charlton-next-Woolwich, Woolwich, Plumsted, otherwise Plumstead, East Wickham, Bexley, Crayford, Dartford, Stone-next-Dartford, Swanscombe, Northfleet, Gravesend, Milton-next-Gravesend, Denton, Chalk, Shorne, otherwise Lower-Shorne, and Merston, otherwise Shorne-and-Merston, Higham, Cliffe and Frindsbury, or some of them, in the county of Kent, and terminating at a point in the marsh there, in the said parish of Frindsbury, adjoining the river Medway, opposite the town of Chatham; and duplicate plans and sections of the line or lines of railway referred to in the said notices, with books of reference thereto, were deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Kent, and with the clerks of the parishes in or through which the works were intended to be made, as mentioned in the said notices.

Now notice is hereby given, that it is intended to make a deviation, not exceeding one mile in length, in or from the line of the said intended railway, as laid down on the said plans, that is to say, by commencing by a junction with the London and Greenwich railway, at or near the Deptford station of the said railway, on the west side of High Street, otherwise Butt Lane, in the parish of St. Paul, Deptford, in the county of Kent, and terminating by a junction with the original line of railway laid down on the said plans at or near a place called the Point, at the west end of Blackheath, in the parish of St. Alphage, Greenwich, in the said county, which deviation will be made in, or pass from, through, or into the said parishes of St. Paul Deptford, and St. Alphage Greenwich, and is intended to be carried over the river Ravensbourne by means of a bridge.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to make certain alterations, or deviations, not exceeding one mile each in length in or from the before-mentioned sections, of the said intended railway, and which alterations or deviations are proposed to be made in the several parishes, townships, or extra parochial places hereinbefore-mentioned.

And notice is hereby further given, that in the said Bill, powers will be contained for making, providing, erecting, and maintaining, one or more floating bridge or bridges, or ferry boat or boats to be worked by steam or otherwise, across the said river Medway, from, or from near the point, where the said railway is intended to terminate, and also from, or from near to a certain point of High land nearest the point of marsh, where, or where near to the said railway is intended to terminate in the said parish of Frindsbury, to one or more place or places on the opposite shore, in the parishes of Chatham, otherwise St. Mary Chatham, and that part of Chatham called Chatham Intra, and St. Nicholas in the city of Rochester, or one or both of them in the said county of Kent, together with all such landing places, stations, approaches, and other works, on either or both sides of the said river, within the parishes, townships, or places before-mentioned, or some of them, as may be deemed necessary or convenient with reference to the purposes aforesaid; and in the said Bill powers will be inserted to divert, or alter all such turnpike-roads, parish-roads, and other highways, canals, navigations, and railways within the said parishes, townships, or extra parochial places, as may be required to be diverted or altered for the purposes of such railway.

And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the whole of the proposed works, according to the deviation from the line, and the alterations of or deviations from the sections, and also shewing the site or sites of the proposed ferry or ferries and works connected therewith, hereinbefore-mentioned, with a book of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands in or through which the same are respectively intended to be made, will be deposited for public inspection, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, with the clerk of the peace for the county of Kent, at his office at Maidstone, in the said county, and with the clerk of the peace for the city of Rochester at his office, within the said city; and on or before the said thirtieth day of November, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, as relates to each of the respective parishes, hereinbefore-mentioned, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament for power to deviate in the construction of the said proposed works, on either side of the line or lines laid down upon the said plans, to an extent not exceeding ten yards in any town, and to an extent in all other places not exceeding one hundred yards; but the said power of deviation is not intended to be applied for, where the property situate within the said distance of ten yards, and one hundred yards respectively, or either of them shall not be numbered on the said plans, or if numbered on the said plans, shall not be contained or described in the said book of reference, nor is it intended to exceed in any place the limits denoted on the said plans, where a limit to such deviation shall be expressly denoted thereupon, or to extend into the lands of any person whose name shall not be mentioned in the said book of reference.

And notice is also hereby given, that it is intended to apply for powers to levy tolls, rates, and duties, on or in respect of the said proposed works, and to incorporate a company for carrying the said several purposes into execution.—Dated this tenth day of November, 1840.

London.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, repeal, enlarge, and extend some of the powers and provisions of an Act made and passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intitled "An Act for making a railway from the city of York to and into the township of Altofts, with various branches of railway, all in the west riding of the county of York, or county of the said city;" and also of another Act made and passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to alter the line of the York and North Midland railway, and to amend the Act relating thereto;" and also of another Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the town of Leeds to the river Ouse, within the parish of Selby, in the west riding of the county of York;" and also another Act passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His said late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable the Leeds and Selby railway company to improve the line of the said railway, and for amending and enlarging the powers and provisions of an Act relating to such railway;" and to authorize the raising of a further sum of money upon the credit of the rates, tolls, and duties, now or hereafter authorized to be received under the said first two recited Acts or either of them, or by the creation of additional shares or capital, or in part by each of those means, or by some other means to be provided for by the said Bill.

And it is intended by the said Bill to obtain power for making better or more convenient approaches to, or communications with, the station of the said railway, situate in the city of York, one of which approaches or communications is intended to commence at or near a certain dwelling-house belonging to, and in the occupation of Mr. George Eshelby, in a certain street called Micklegate, in the parish of Saint Martin cum Gregory, in the said city, and also at or near a certain other dwelling-house belonging to Mr. Ambrose Gray and Mr. Robert Thompson, and in the occupation of Mr. Frederick Musham, and in the said street called Micklegate, and in the parish of Saint John Micklegate in the said city, and comprising the whole of the property between such two dwelling-houses, and thence to or near a certain garden belonging to William Garforth, esquire, and in the occupation of Mr. Nicholas Charles Gold, in a certain other street called Tanner Row, in the parish of All Saints North Street, in the said city; and also to or near a certain other dwelling-house belonging to, and in the occupation of the Reverend George Coopland, in the said street called Tanner Row, and in the said parish of All Saints North Street, and comprising the whole of the property between the said garden and such last-mentioned dwelling-house; and which approach or communication is intended to be made in, and to pass through or into the said several parishes of Saint Martin cum Gregory, Saint John Micklegate, and All Saints North Street, in the said city, some or one of them; and the other of which approaches or communications to the said station is intended to commence at or near a certain dwelling-house belonging to the trustees or proprietors of the York festival concert room, and in the occupation of Mr. John Mac Lean, in a certain street called Lendal Street, in the parish of Saint Wilfred, in the said city, and also at or near a certain other dwelling-house belonging to the mayor, aldermen, and citizens of the city of York, and in the occupation of Mr. Michael Taylor, and comprising the whole of the property on each side of the said street called Lendal Street, between such two last-mentioned dwelling-houses and the river Ouse, and thence extending over the said river Ouse by means of a bridge, to be erected at or near the York water-works on one side of the said river, to or near North Street Postern on the other side of the said river, and thence extending to or near three certain dwelling-houses belonging to the New Union Society, and in the several occupations of George Foster, Robert Bowman, and Thomas Jackson, some or one of them, in a certain street called North Street Row, in the said parish of All Saints North Street, and terminating at the said station, within the said city, at or near a certain workshop or building belonging to Mr. John Norrison, and in the occupation of the said John Norrison, or Joseph Crawshaw, as his tenant, in that part of a certain back lane or road leading to the river Ouse, and in the said parish of All Saints, North Street, and comprising the whole of the property between such last-mentioned dwelling-houses and the said workshop; and which last-mentioned approach or communication is intended to be made in and to pass from, through, or into the said several parishes of Saint Wilfred and All Saints North Street, in the said city: and further, that it is intended to apply for power in the said Bill to deviate in the construction of the said proposed approaches or communications to an extent not exceeding ten yards on either side of the line laid down on the plans to be deposited as after-mentioned, except in such cases as the property described in the said plans and the books of reference thereto shall not extend so far as ten yards. And for the purpose of improving the approach to and communication with the station of the said railway at Ulleskelf, in the parish of Kirby Wharfe, otherwise Kirkby Wharfe, in the west riding of the county of York, and also for the purpose of shortening or rendering more commodious to the public a certain highway leading from Tadcaster to Selby, both in the said county of York, it is intended to apply for powers to stop up and discontinue, except for the purpose of an occupation road, so much of the said last-mentioned highway as lies in the townships of North Milford and Ulleskelf, in the parish of Kirby Wharfe, otherwise Kirkby Wharfe aforesaid, between a point marked A. on the plans hereinafter referred to, commencing at or near that part of the said highway which is called Raw Lane, where the same forms nearly a right angle, and proceeds from an easterly to a southerly direction, near certain closes in the said township of North Milford, belonging to the right honourable John Hobart Lord Howden, and in the respective occupations of John Groves, William Groves, and Sarah, John, and Gabriel Simpson, some or one of them, and a certain other point marked C. on the said plans where the said highway unites with a certain other highway leading from Ulleskelf aforesaid to Church Fenton, in the said West Riding of the county of York, and at or near the south-east corner of a certain allotment or parcel of land in the township of

Ulleskelf aforesaid, and belonging to and in the occupation of Thomas Stothard Stoker, and to make in lieu thereof another and more direct approach to and communication with the said railway, and a nearer or more commodious road from Tadcaster to Selby aforesaid, commencing at or near the said point on the said plans, marked with the letter A, and at or near the said closes of the said John Hobart Lord Howden, and extending thence in an easterly direction over lands in the said township of North Milford, belonging to the said John Hobart Lord Howden, in the occupation of the said John Groves and William Groves or one of them, and over lands in the said township of Ulleskelf, belonging to William Thornton the younger, as devisee of Richard Johnson deceased, and in the occupation of Benjamin Lacy, to and into a certain occupation road in the said township of Ulleskelf, called Carr Balk Occupation Road, lately set out under the provisions of a certain Act of Parliament, for inclosing lands in the same township, and thence extending in or near the same direction along the said last mentioned road, to and into a certain other occupation road in the said township of Ulleskelf, called Old Mill Field Occupation Road, and also lately set out under the provisions of the said last mentioned Act of Parliament, and thence extending in or near the same direction along the said last mentioned occupation road to a point marked D upon the said plans, at or near the said station at Ulleskelf, where the same unites with an ancient road leading into the village of Ulleskelf aforesaid, and thence extending in the same direction and in a north-easterly direction into and along the village of Ulleskelf aforesaid, to the north end of a certain lane called Bell Lane, and thence in a southerly direction to the point marked on the said plans with the letter B, where the same unites with the said highway, leading from Tadcaster to Selby aforesaid; and it is intended to make the said proposed new or deviated highway of not less than the width of 30 feet, and to take powers in the said Bill to deviate in the construction of the line laid down for the same on the said plans, to any extent on either side thereof, not exceeding 100 yards, except in such cases as the property described in the said plans, and the books of reference thereto, does not extend so far as 100 yards. And it is also intended to apply for power to stop up and discontinue a certain footpath (which has now become unnecessary by reason of a new road being afforded to the public,) commencing at or near Toft Green in the said city, and thence running parallel with or near to the said railway, as far as or near to the said back lane or road leading to the river Ouse and also leading to the walls of the said city, and in the several parishes of Holy Trinity, Micklegate, St. Martin cum Gregory, and All Saints North Street, all in the said city, and for those purposes to extend or renew the several powers granted by the said two first mentioned Acts or either of them, relative to the purchase or taking and using of land for the purposes of the said railway, and works connected therewith, and particularly for the purchase, taking and using, of the several messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate within the parishes, townships, or extra parochial places hereinbefore mentioned, or any of them, and described in the plans, sections, and books of reference hereinafter referred to; and notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said approaches, roads, and other works so intended to be made or executed, and which plans also comprise the property so intended to be taken, purchased, or used, with books of reference thereto, will be lodged with the clerk of the peace for the said city of York, at his office in the said city, and with the clerk of the peace for the said west riding, at his office at Wakefield, in the same riding, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant, and so much of such plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each parish comprised therein, will be lodged with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his residence, on or before the thirty-first day of December next; and it is also intended to apply for power to levy tolls, rates, or duties, for or in respect of all persons, goods, articles, matters, or things, cattle, animals, carriages, carts, and other vehicles passing upon, or along, or using the said bridge hereinbefore mentioned. And it is also intended to apply for power for the said York and North Midland Railway Company, either separately or in conjunction with any other railway company or railway companies, to take on lease or purchase, the whole or a part of the said Leeds and Selby Railway, and the works and conveniences connected therewith, as well as all the powers and rights of the said Leeds and Selby Railway Company, incorporated by the third recited Act, in relation thereto, and to exercise and enjoy such powers and rights, and to enable the said Leeds and Selby Railway Company to demise or lease, or absolutely to convey the said Leeds and Selby Railway, or any part thereof, and all works and conveniences connected therewith, and their property, rights, powers, and interests therein, or in relation thereto, to the said York and North Midland Railway Company, either alone or jointly, with any other railway company, or railway companies; and also for power to underlet or underlease the said Leeds and Selby Railway, for all or any part of the term for which the same may be granted or demised, and to enable the said Leeds and Selby Railway Company, to grant all requisite powers and privileges, in order to the due enjoyment of such lease. And that it is also intended to apply for power to stop up and discontinue a certain bridle road and footpath (which will become unnecessary by reason of a new road being intended to be set out and appropriated to and for the use of the public), commencing at or near a cottage or tenement, called the Lower Lodge Gate, situate at the entrance of Grimston Park, in the village of Grimston, at the point marked upon the said plans with the letter C, and extending thence, in a southerly and easterly direction, over certain closes called the Park, Smithy Close, Vicar Hills, Far Field, Mast Hills, and Stock Flat Close, to and into the village of Kirby Wharfe, and thence proceeding, in the same easterly direction, through the said village of Kirby Wharfe, to the south end of an ancient lane leading to the ings of Kirby Wharfe, and thence, in a northerly and north-easterly direction, along the said lane, to the said inns, and thence, in nearly the same north-easterly direction, over and across the said inns, to and terminating at an ancient bridle road leading from Tadcaster to Selby, on the banks of the river wharfe, at a point marked on the said plans with the letter D, and all in the parish of Kirby Wharfe, otherwise Kirkby Wharfe, aforesaid; and also for power to stop up and discontinue a certain other bridle road and footpath leading from and out of the said last described road, commencing at or near the said close called the Far Field, at a point marked upon the said plans with the letter E, and extending thence, in a southerly direction, to and into and terminating at an ancient highway called Raw Lane, leading from Tadcaster to Selby, at a point marked upon the said plans with the letter F, all in the parish of Kirby Wharfe, otherwise Kirkby Wharfe, aforesaid; and also for power to stop up and discontinue a certain footpath commencing at the said village of Kirby Wharfe, at the junction of the roads leading to the parish church of Kirby Wharfe, to the said ancient highway called Raw Lane, and to Ulleskelf, at a point marked upon the said plans with the letter G, and extending thence, in an easterly, south-easterly, and southerly direction, to and into, and terminating at a certain occupation road lately set out under the provisions of the said Act of Parliament for inclosing lands in the said township of Ulleskelf called Old Mill Field occupation road, at a point marked on the said plans with the letter H, all in the said parish of Kirby Wharfe, otherwise Kirkby Wharfe; and also for power to stop up and discontinue a certain public carriage road, bridle road, and footpath, commencing at the turnpike road leading from Tadcaster to Ferrybridge, at a point near to the messuage or dwelling-house called Grimston Lodge, occupied by the Reverend Benjamin Bentley Haigh, marked upon the said plans with the letter I, and extending thence, in an easterly, southerly and easterly direction, to and terminating at the said cottage or tenement called the Lower Lodge Gate, in the said village of Grimston, at the said letter marked C, all in the parish of Kirby Wharfe, otherwise Kirkby Wharfe, aforesaid; all which said roads hereinbefore described and intended to be stopped up and discontinued have become or will become unnecessary by reason of other new and sufficient roads having been appropriated, or being intended to be appropriated to and for the use of the public.—Dated the sixth day of November, 1840.

John North, Clerk of the said Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to enable a certain Joint Stock Company or partnership, called "The Whitby Iron Company," to sue and be sued in the name of any member or officer thereof, and to grant other powers to the said Company or partnership, and to exempt all coals, coke, and cinders, brought into or imported, landed or delivered, within the harbour or town of Whitby, in the north riding of the county of York, and used or consumed either by the said Company or by any other Company or person, in the smelting of iron stone, or iron ore, and in the making and manufacturing of castings, malleable or rolled iron and steel, or otherwise in or connected with the manufacure of iron, from the duties granted and made payable thereon by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for better paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, and improving the town of Whitby, in the north riding of the county of York;" and to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the said Act, so far as may be necessary for effecting the purposes aforesaid.

Dated the ninth day of November, 1840.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal, alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of three several Acts; one passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and establishing public quays or wharfs, at Kingston-upon-Hull, for the better securing His Majesty's revenues of Customs, and for the benefit of commerce in the port of Kingston-upon-Hull, for making a basin or dock, with reservoirs, sluices, roads, and other works, for the accommodation of vessels using the said port, and for appropriating certain lands belonging to His Majesty, and for applying certain sums of money, out of His Majesty's Customs at the said port, for those purposes, and for establishing other necessary regulations within the town and port of Kingston-upon-Hull."

Another, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending an Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for making and establishing public quays or wharfs, at Kingston-upon-Hull, for the better securing His Majesty's revenues of Customs, and for the benefit of commerce, in the port of Kingston-upon-Hull; for making a basin or dock, with reservoirs, sluices, roads and other works, for the accommodation of vessels using the said port, and for appropriating certain lands belonging to His Majesty, and for applying certain sums of money out of His Majesty's Customs at the said port, for those purposes; and for establishing other necessary regulations within the town and port of Kingston-upon-Hull; and also for making additional basins or docks at Kingston-upon-Hull, with an entrance into the same from the river Humber, and for granting certain lands belonging to His Majesty in aid of the said works.'"

And another, passed in the forty-fifth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for raising a further sum of money for carrying into execution an Act, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His present Majesty, for making additional basins or docks at Kingston-upon-Hull;" or to repeal the said Acts, or to grant further and other powers instead thereof.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for power in the said Bill to make and maintain a dock or docks, with two or more piers, extending into the river Humber; and also a cut or canal, or cuts and canals, from and out of such dock or docks, to communicate with the haven or harbour of the said town of Kingston-upon-Hull, with proper communications, works and conveniences, connected with the same respectively; which said dock or docks, piers, cut or canal, or cuts or canals, and other works, will be situate in, and pass from, through, or into the extra-parochial place called the Garrison Side, in the county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, the several townships of Drypool and Southcoates, in the parish of Drypool, in the county of the said town, and the parish of Holy Trinity, in the county of the said town.

And it is also intended to apply for power to take wharfage rates for goods, wares and merchandize, loaded or delivered from any of the quays or wharfs erected by virtue of the said Acts; and also for power to take tolls, rates and duties, for the use of the proposed new docks, and other intended new works.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the proposed new works, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the east riding of the county of York, at his office at Beverley, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, at his office at Kingston-upon-Hull, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and a copy of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, will be deposited with the parish clerks of the said parishes of Drypool and Holy Trinity, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.

Dated this fifth day of November 1840.

Jno. Wilkinson, Solicitor for the said intended Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills, to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of two several Acts, passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, one of such Acts intituled "An Act for inclosing certain lands, called the West Croft and Burton Leys, in the parish of Saint Mary, in the town and county of the town of Nottingham;" and the other of such Acts intituled "An Act for forming a canal and other works within and near certain lands, called the West Croft, in the parish of Saint Mary, in the town and county of the town of Nottingham."

And notice is hereby further given, that in such Bill or Bills, or in one of such Bills, provision is intended to be made to reduce or alter the dimensions, and to vary the situation and the character of a certain bridge, authorised by such last-mentioned Act to be constructed, over the Nottingham Canal; and also to alter the situation of, and to vary the line of, a certain street or roadway, by the same Act authorised to be formed, from the said bridge to a certain street called Canal-street; and also to prescribe and regulate (if necessary) the mode of communication with the turnpike road, adjoining to the said West Croft, and the height and description of the houses and other buildings to be erected upon the said West Croft, fronting to the said turnpike road, and to the streets laid out, or to be laid out, over the said West Croft, all in the said parish of Saint Mary aforesaid; also to authorise the commissioners under the said Act for inclosing the West Croft and Burton Leys aforesaid, to allot the lands on Burton Leys by one award, and at one time; and the lands in the West Croft and Sweet Leys, by another award, and at another time; also to authorise and empower the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the town of Nottingham, to make and form the branch canal mentioned in the said Acts, according to the varied course set out under the powers thereof by the commissioners named therein, and for that purpose, to make, form, and return the same, from the West Croft into the Nottingham Canal, through the halting path thereof.

And notice is hereby also given, that a plan and duplicate thereof, showing the proposed bridge and street, or roadway, and also the said varied course of the said branch canal, and a section and duplicate thereof, describing the intended level of the same, together with a book of reference to such plan, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said town and county of the town of Nottingham, at Nottingham, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and a copy of the said plan, section, and book of reference, will be also deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Saint Mary, on or before the thirtieth day of December next.

Dated this seventh day of November 1840.

Wrexham Road Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to continue the term, and alter and enlarge the powers, of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing and enlarging the powers of three Acts of the reign of his late and present Majesty, for amending several roads therein-mentioned, as far as relate to the road from Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh, to Pentre-bridge, in the county of Flint; and for making a new branch of road from the said road, at a place called Abbermorddu, to Mold, in the said county of Flint;" and for granting further, better, and more effectual powers for repairing and improving the same district of road; which said several roads pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, or places of Wrexham, Broughton, Stansty, and Gwersyllt, in the county of Denbigh, and of Cymman, Caergwrlle, Rhanberfedd, Leeswood, Broncoed, and Mold, in the county of Flint; and also for making turnpike, widening and improving the highway leading from the present turnpike-gate on the aforesaid road, situate in the township of Broughton, in the parish of Wrexham, and county of Denbigh, called Plas Goch-gate, westward, through the same township of Broughton, by a certain public house, called the Ship Tavern, at a place in the same township, called South Sea, and so on by Wright's smithy, John Roden's house, and Tyn-y-Coed, all in the township of Bersham, in the parish of Wrexham, and county of Denbigh, unto and into the turnpike-road, leading from Wrexham to Ruthin, at a certain place in the said township of Bersham, called Loft Wen; and also for making turnpike, widening, and improving a certain other highway or highways, leading from the aforesaid turnpike-gate, in the aforesaid township of Broughton, called Plas Goch-gate, eastward, through part of the said township of Broughton, in the said parish of Wrexham, and through the said township of Stansty, in the parish of Wrexham aforesaid, and of Gwersyllt, in the parish of Gresford, and Acton, in the said parish of Wrexham, in the said county of Denbigh, unto and into the Wrexham and Chester turnpike-road, at or near to the end of a lane, nearly opposite to a certain blacksmith's shop, situate in the said township of Acton, in the said parish of Wrexham, called Acton Smithy; and also for making turnpike, widening, and improving a certain other highway or highways, leading from a certain side-gate, situate in the township of Stansty, in the said parish of Wrexham, near the house of Thomas Forgham, and continuing eastward from thence through the same township of Stansty to a certain place, called Rhosddu, in the same township; and also for making turnpike, and improving, and maintaining a certain diversion from the aforesaid road, secondly hereinbefore described, commencing at a certain brook or rivulet, which crosses the same road, at the same place, called South Sea, and is the boundary, in that part, between the townships of Broughton aforesaid, and of Brymbo, in the aforesaid parish of Wrexham, in the said county of Denbigh, and proceeding in a northwardly direction through part of the said township of Brymbo, by a weighing-machine belonging to the South Sea Collieries, in the same township, and following a certain private road there, unto the aforesaid brook or rivulet, about sixty yards north-west of a certain cottage, in the occupation of John Jones, and then crossing the same brook or rivulet into the aforesaid township of Broughton, and proceeding through ancient enclosed lands, about three hundred and fifty yards in the same township, and then again crossing another part of the same brook or rivulet into the aforesaid township of Brymbo; and continuing in the same last-mentioned township, through ancient enclosed lands, unto the boundary dividing the aforesaid township of Brymbo and Broughton, at or near a certain farm-house and barn, in the said township of Broughton, in the occupation of John Hall, and proceeding northwardly, partly in the township of Broughton, and partly in the township of Brymbo, unto a certain public highway, leading towards a certain public house, known by the sign of the Red Lion, in the village of Brymbo, and crossing the same highway, in the aforesaid township of Broughton into other ancient enclosed lands, and proceeding to another public highway, in the same last-mentioned township, and crossing that road at or near a certain public house in the same township of Broughton, called the Queen's Head, and continuing along the boundaries, between the last-mentioned townships, to another public highway, leading towards a place called Bryn Malley, and then crossing into the aforesaid township or Brymbo, at or near a certain cottage, in the township of Broughton aforesaid, in the occupation of John Capper, and proceeding partly in the said township of Brymbo, and partly in the said township of Broughton, unto a certain other public highway, leading from a place called the Freeth, to a certain other place, called The Frwd, and crossing that road in the said township of Brymbo, and proceeding by a certain cottage, in the same township of Brymbo, in the occupation of Thomas Mathias, and then following a public highway, in the same township of Brymbo, leading to the Frwd Colliery, near to a certain cottage, in the occupation of Margaret Evans, and there entering in a northwardly direction a certain field, in the same township of Brymbo, in the occupation of Edward Parry, and proceeding through that field unto and into the turnpike-road leading from Rosset-bridge, in the county of Denbigh, to Minera, in the same county, at or near a certain bridge, over the river Cae Geddog, called Pont-y-Plas-Maen; in which said Bill provision is intended to be made for levying tolls on the said roads, and also for altering the existing tolls authorized to be taken in and by the said recited Act.

And notice is hereby given, that, on or before the thirtieth day of November next, a map or plan, and section, describing the line or situation of the said turnpike-roads intended, and the lands in, through, or over which the same roads are intended, to pass, or to be widened, together with a book of reference, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such land, and also a duplicate thereof, and a copy of so much of the standing orders of the House of Lords, as is required, will be deposited at the offices of the Clerks of the Peace for the said counties of Denbigh and Flint; and also, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said map or plan, and section, as relates to each of the aforesaid parishes, together with a book of reference thereto, and a copy of so much of the standing orders of the House of Lords as aforesaid will, be deposited with the parish clerks of the said several parishes.

And notice is hereby further given, that, on or before the said thirty-first day of December next, duplicates of the said map or plan, and section, and book of reference thereto, will be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and in the Private Bill Office, in the House of Commons.

Dated this twenty-fourth day of October, 1840.

P. Humberston, Clerk.

Swansea and Loughor Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for a Bill for making and maintaining a railway, to commence at or near a certain place, called the Pottery Mill, in the parish of Saint John-Juxta-Swansea, in the county of Glamorgan, and to terminate by a junction with a branch of the Llandilo and Llanelly Railway, at or near Loughor-bridge, in the borough of Loughor, in the same county; together with several branches from and out of the said first mentioned railway (that is to say), one of such branches to commence at or near a farm house, called Travelle Mawr, and to terminate about half a mile beyond a cottage, called Gorse Vawr, on Mynidd Lliw; another branch to commence at or near a house called Ystrad-Isaf, and to terminate on Mynidd Bach-y-Glo; another branch also to commence near the aforesaid house of Ystrad-Isaf, and to terminate on Mynidd Carn Goch; another branch to commence at or near the Pottery Mill aforesaid, to terminate at or near the Morfa Copper Works, in the said parish of Saint John-Juxta-Swansea; another branch also to commence at or near the Pottery Mill aforesaid, and to terminate by a junction with the Oystermouth Railway or Tram-road, at or near the lower end of the Swansea Canal; also another branch from and out of the Oystermouth Railway or Tram-road, at or near to the Corporation public Quay, in the town of Swansea, to communicate with a certain dock or basin, to be made on the Burrows as hereinafter described; which said railway and branches, or some of them, will be made in, and pass from, through, or into the town and franchise of Swansea, the borough of Loughor, and the several parishes, townships, or extra parochial places of Swansea, Saint John-Juxta-Swansea, Llangefelach, Loughor, Llandilo-Talibout, and Lansanlet, or some of them, all in the said county of Glamorgan; with powers to make and maintain all such culverts, viaducts, tunnels, archways, embankments, fences, buildings, depôts, stations, warehouses, roads, inclined planes, engines, machinery, and other works, in the several parishes, townships, or extra parochial places aforesaid, or some of them, as may be deemed necessary or convenient for the purposes of the said railway, and branches respectively.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to apply for powers in the said Bill for making and maintaining a dock or basin at or near the Pottery Mill aforesaid, in the said parish of Saint John-Juxta-Swansea, and in the town and franchise of Swansea, within the parish of Swansea, or some of them, in the said county of Glamorgan; also one other dock or basin on a certain place, called the Burrows, in the said town and franchise of Swansea, within the parish of Swansea aforesaid, together with all necessary or convenient locks, quays, wharfs, gates, warehouses, roads, and approaches thereto, in the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial places aforesaid, or some of them.

And in the said Bill powers will be inserted to divert or alter all such turnpike roads, parish roads, and other highways, canals, navigations, and railways within the said parishes, townships, or extra parochial places aforesaid, as may be required to be diverted or altered, for the purposes of such works.

And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said proposed works, with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands, in or through which the same is proposed to be made, were deposited, for public inspection, on or before the first day of March last, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Glamorgan, at his office, at Cardiff, in the said county; and, on or before the first day of April last, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish, in or through which the said works, or any part of them, are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto; was deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to apply for power in the said Bill to deviate in the construction of the said proposed works, on either side of the lines thereof, laid down upon the said plans, to an extent not exceeding ten yards in any town, or on land covered with houses or buildings, and to an extent in all other places not exceeding one hundred yards: but the said power of deviation is not intended to be applied for, where the property situate within the said distances of ten yards and one hundred yards respectively, or either of them, shall not be numbered on the said plans, or if numbered on the said plans, shall not be contained or described in the said book of reference; nor is it intended to exceed, in any case, the limits denoted on the said plans, where a limit to such deviations shall be expressly denoted thereupon, or to extend into the lands of any person whose name shall not be mentioned in the said books of reference.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for powers to levy tolls, rates, and duties on or in respect of the said proposed works, and to incorporate a company for carrying the purposes aforesaid into execution.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended by the said Bill to alter, vary, amend, or repeal the several powers, provisions, tolls, rates, and duties contained and set forth in an Act, passed in the forty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a railway, or tram-road, from the town of Swansea, into the parish of Oystermouth, in the county of Glamorgan;" and also of an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a navigable canal, and a railway or tram-road, from the river Burry, at or near the village of Penclawdd, in the parish of Lanridian into the township or borough of Loughor, and divers branches therefrom, all in the county of Glamorgan;" and to take powers to enable the Oystermouth Railway or Tram-road Company, incorporated by the said first-mentioned Act, and the Penclawdd Canal and Tram-road Company, incorporated by the said last-mentioned Act, to demise, lease, or sell, and absolutely to make over to the company to be incorporated by the proposed Bill, the said respective tram-roads, and canals, or any part thereof respectively, and all the works, matters, and things connected therewith, and all the powers, rights, and property of or possessed by the said Oystermouth Railway or Tram-road Company, and the said Penclawdd Canal and Railway Companies, or any part thereof respectively; and also to enable the company to be incorporated by the proposed Bill, to accept and take such demise or lease, or to accept the transfer and assignment thereof, and to hold, exercise, and enjoy the said powers, rights, and property accordingly, with power to consolidate and amalgamate the said Oystermouth Railway, or Tram-road Company and the said Penclawdd Canal, and Tram-road Company, with the company to be incorporated by the said proposed Bill.

Bradford Waterworks.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for better supplying with water the town and neighbourhood of Bradford, within the several townships of Bradford, Horton, Bowling and Manningham, all in the parish of Bradford, in the west riding of the county of York, and for that purpose to incorporate a Company with powers to make and maintain a reservoir or reservoirs at or near to Hedge-side farm, in the townships of Allerton and Manningham, or one of them, in the said parish of Bradford, and a new channel or channels, watercourse or watercourses, within the said townships of Allerton and Manningham, or one of them, in the said parish of Bradford, from and out of the present stream or watercourse called or known as Chellow Dean Beck, which flows down Chellow Dean at a point above the said intended reservoir or reservoirs, thence to pass along or near to the side or sides of the said intended reservoir or reservoirs, and to join and communicate with the said present stream or watercourse below the same intended reservoir or reservoirs. And also to make and maintain a reservoir or reservoirs, at or near to Whetley-hill, in the said township of Manningham, and to make, lay, and maintain proper cuts, channels, conduits, aqueducts, drains, sluices, weirs, shafts, mains, pipes and other works and conveniences within the several parishes, townships and places of Thornton, Wilsden, Harden, Cullingworth, Cottingley, Bingley, Alleton, Heaton, Manningham, Horton, Bowling, and Bradford, or some of them, in the said west riding of the county of York, for supplying the said reservoirs with water, and for conveying and distributing the same to the town and neighbourhood of Bradford aforesaid.

And it is intended by the said Act to obtain powers for the purposes aforesaid, to take and use the waters of certain springs and streams called Many Wells, arising in Trooper or Many Wells Farm, in the township of Wilsden and parish of Bradford aforesaid, which springs or streams now flow into a certain stream or rivulet called Hewenden Beck, or Harden Beck, which supplies with water the several mills, engines, and other works, situated upon or near to the same stream or rivulet, and thence flows to and into the River Aire.

And it is further intended to empower the Company to be incorporated by the said intended Act to make and maintain a compensating reservoir or reservoirs, with all proper works and conveniences, upon or near to the said stream or rivulet called Hewenden Beck, or Harden Beck, in the townships of Thornton and Wilsden and parish of Bradford aforesaid, for the purpose of collecting, penning up, and impounding water for the use of the several mills, engines, and other works situated upon or near to the said last-mentioned stream or rivulet, between such reservoir or reservoirs and the river Aire, in lieu of the water to be taken and used for supplying the town and neighbourhood of Bradford aforesaid; and also to make and maintain a new channel or channels, watercourse or watercourses from and out of the said stream or rivulet called Hewenden Beck or Harden Beck, at a point above the last-mentioned intended reservoir or reservoirs, thence to pass along, or near to the side or sides of the same intended reservoir or reservoirs, and to join and communicate with the same Beck below such intended reservoir or reservoirs; which said last-mentioned reservoir or reservoirs, and new channel or channels, watercourse or watercourses, works and conveniences, are intended to be made within, or to pass from, through, or into the several townships of Thornton and Wilsden, in the parish of Bradford aforesaid.

And it is further intended to empower the said intended Company to levy rates, and to charge and take rents or sums of money for the supplying with water the town and neighbourhood of Bradford aforesaid.

And it is further intended by the said intended Act to enable the Company of Proprietors of Bradford Waterworks, incorporated by an Act passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for preserving the works made for supplying the town of Bradford, in the county of York, and part of the township of Horton, in the parish of Bradford aforesaid with water; for the more easy recovery of the rents for the said water, and to enable the proprietors thereof to borrow money for the improving such works ;" to sell and dispose of all or part of the waterworks, lands, and premises now belonging to, or vested in them, under such Act, to the Company intended to be incorporated by the said intended Act ; and to enable such last-mentioned Company to purchase and take such waterworks, lands, and premises.

And also to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the said Act, of the thirtieth year of the reign of King George the Third, and to alter or increase the water rents or rates, and charges thereby authorised to be taken or made ; and to vest all powers, rights, and privileges now held or enjoyed by the said Company of Proprietors of Bradford Waterworks, or so to be amended and enlarged as aforesaid in the said intended Company, or otherwise to repeal the said last-mentioned Act, and the power of levying water-rents, or rates and charges thereby authorised, and dissolve the said Company of Proprietors ; and to enable the said intended Company to hold and maintain the waterworks, lands, and premises so to be purchased by them as aforesaid, and to supply the town and neighbourhood of Bradford with water therefrom ; and to levy and take rates and charges in respect thereof, under the powers of the Act so intended to be applied for.

And it is further intended to enable the Company to be incorporated by the said intended Act, to make and maintain a reservoir or reservoirs in the townships of North Bierley and Horton, in the parish of Bradford aforesaid, near to or upon the line of the present conduit belonging to the said Company of Proprietors of Bradford Waterworks.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the situation and levels of the intended reservoirs, watercourses, and other works connected therewith, and the lands to be taken, or which it is proposed to obtain a power of taking for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the west riding of the county of York, at his office in Wakefield, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant ; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each parish in which such reservoirs, watercourses and other works connected therewith are proposed to be made, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the parish clerk of each such parish, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, namely, with the parish clerk of Bingley, at his place of abode in Bingley, and with the parish clerk of Bradford, at his place of abode in Bradford.

George Robert Mossman, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a turnpike-road, with all necessary and proper bridges, culverts, drains, sluices, and other works and conveniences, to commence by a jun-tion with the Saint Leonard's and Sedlescomb road, at or near Cripp's Corner, in the parish of Ewhurst, in the county of Sussex, and to terminate at or near Tubb's Lake, in the parish of Hawkhurst, in the county of Kent ; which said road is intended to be made in, or to pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places following, or some of them, that is to say, Ewhurst, Bodiam, and Salehurst, in the said county of Sussex, Sandhurst, and Hawkhurst, in the said county of Kent.

And also that it is intended to apply for powers in the said Bill, to place under the care and management of the trustees to be thereby appointed the present turnpike-road leading from Highgate, in the said parish of Hawkhurst, to a certain place called Cooper's Corner, in the parish of Salehurst aforesaid, and for that purpose to alter, amend, or repeal so much of an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and widening the road from Flimwell Vent, in the county of Sussex, through Highgate, in the county of Kent, and the parishes of Sandhurst, Newenden, and Northiam, to Taylor's Corner, in the parish of Rye, in the county of Sussex, and from Highgate aforesaid to Cooper's Corner, in the county of Sussex, and also a piece of road communicating with the said road, called Whitebread-lane, in the said county," as may be necessary for that purpose ; and in the said Bill powers will be contained to levy tolls and rates upon, or in respect of, the said intended turnpike-roads, and to alter the tolls and rates now authorised to be taken upon the said road from Highgate to Cooper's Corner aforesaid, under and by virtue of the said Act of the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth ; and in the said Bill powers will also be contained for diverting from its present course the present turnpike-road leading from Rye to Vinehall, or for erecting an arch, and passing under the same at or near Cripp's Corner aforesaid, and for altering so far as may be necessary, with reference thereto, the provisions of an Act passed in the second and third year of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and widening the road from the turnpike-road at Vinehall to Cripp's Corner, and from thence to Staple Cross, and from Cripp's Corner to Taylor's Corner, in the county of Sussex, and a piece of road communicating therewith."

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said intended roads, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Sussex, at his office at Lewes, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Kent, at his office at Maidstone, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant ; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each parish from, in, through, or into which the proposed turnpike-roads are intended to be made and to pass, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his place of abode, on or before the 31st day of December next.

Dated this fourth day of November 1840.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter and enlarge the provisions of an Act, passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of Small Debts within the parishes of Kingsnorton and Northfield, in the county of Worcester;" and to extend the provisions of the said Act, and the jurisdiction of the court thereby established, to the several parishes and places of Bromsgrove, Stoke-Prior, Tardebigg, Redditch, Alvechurch, Beoley, Belbroughton, Upton-Warren, Hanbury, Feckenham, Coston-Hacket, and Chaddesley-Corbet, in the county of Worcester, and that other part of the said parish of Tardebigg, in the county of Warwick and the parish of Ipsley, also in the county of Warwick.—Dated the sixth day of November 1840.

Thomas Hanson Peile, Solicitor for the said Bill.

R. B. Mosse, Parliamentary Agent.

High and Low Harrogate Improvements.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to repeal, alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of two several Acts of Parliament, one passed in the tenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing such of the open parts of the district called the Forest of Knaresborough, in the county of York as lie within the eleven constaberies thereof, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" and the other passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for reviving certain powers granted by an Act made in the tenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing such of the open parts of the district called the Forest of Knaresborough, in the county of York, as lie within the eleven constaberies thereof, and for other purposes therein mentioned, and by an Act of the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, for amending the said former Act, and for making the said two Acts more effectual;" so far as the same relate to the wells or springs of medicinal or mineral waters, commonly called Harrowgate Spaws, and the stinted pasture, stray, or two hundred acres, respectively situate in the several townships of Bilton-with-Harrowgate, and Pannal, in the said forest of Knaresborough; and to obtain further and other powers and provisions instead thereof, for better protecting the said wells and springs of medicinal or mineral waters, and securing them from being destroyed, polluted, injured, or affected, and controlling the government, superintendence, usage, and management thereof; also for draining, levelling, planting, and otherwise improving the said stray or two hundred acres, and preventing and removing encroachments and nuisances thereon; and for more effectually securing the rights of the proprietors or owners of pasture gates, stray gates, or cattle gates, and of the visitors resorting to High and Low Harrogate, for the benefit of the said medicinal or mineral waters, and all other persons having occasion to use the same.

And notice is also hereby given, that it is intended to apply for power in the said Act, for paving, lighting (by gas or otherwise), watching, watering, draining, cleansing, regulating, repairing, widening, and otherwise improving the streets, roads, lanes, and other public passages and places, for establishing one or more public markets, and for removing or preventing nuisances, within such part of the several townships of Bilton-with-Harrowgate, Pannal, Knaresborough, and Scriven-with-Tentergate, as are usually known or distinguished as High Harrowgate, and Low Harrowgate, and parts adjacent thereto respectively; and that it is intended to take power by the said Act to raise money for all or any of the aforesaid purposes, by levying a rate or rates, assessment or assessments, upon the owners and occupiers of tenements and hereditaments in High Harrowgate, and Low Harrowgate aforesaid, and parts adjacent thereto; or by borrowing money upon security of the said rates, or by some other means to be provided by the said Act; and so far as respects the improvements of the said stray, or two hundred acres, by increasing the number of pasture gates, stray gates, or cattle gates, and selling or disposing thereof; or allotting the same amongst the present owners thereof, or by some other means to be provided by the said Act.

And that the said stray, or two hundred acres, and the district or places called High Harrowgate, and Low Harrowgate, and parts adjacent thereto, intended to be included within the said Act, are situate within the several townships of Knaresborough, Scriven-with-Tentergate, Bilton-with-Harrowgate, and Pannal, or some of them; and in the several parishes of Knaresborough, and Pannal, in the west-riding of the county of York.
