TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1840.

Foreign Office, November 30, 1840.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a copy, has been received at this Office, addressed to Viscount Palmerston, G.C.B., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, by Colonel Sir Charles Felix Smith, C.B. commanding the forces in Syria:

St. Jean d'Acre, November 5, 1840.

MY LORD,

ON the 29th ultimo, it was finally determined between Sir Robert Stopford and myself, that the siege of Acre should be undertaken. I accordingly detached Omar Bey for the purpose of advancing from Sidon, with two thousand Turks upon Tyre, and thence to occupy the Pass of the White Mountain to the northward of this place; and on the 31st the Admiral made sail from Beyrout Roads, having previously embarked in the squadron three thousand men, under the immediate command of the Pacha Selim, and small detachments of royal artillery and sappers, under Major Higgins, of the former corps, and Lieutenant Aldrich, royal engineers.

Omar Bey reached the position assigned to him at the same hour on the 2d instant that the fleet appeared off Acre.

Owing to light winds, the ships did not get into action till two P.M. on the 3d, when an animated fire commenced, and was maintained, without intermission, until darkness closed the operations of the day. About three hours later, the governor, with a portion of the garrison, quitted the town, which was taken possession of by the allied troops at day-light the following morning. The moral influence, on the cause in which we are engaged, that will result from its surrender, is incalculable.

During the bombardment, the principal magazine and the whole arsenal blew up. By the explosion, two entire regiments, formed in position on the ramparts, were annihilated, and every living creature, within the area of sixty thousand square yards, ceased to exist; the loss of life being variously computed from twelve hundred to two thousand persons. Those who may have been inclined to doubt the fighting qualities of the Egyptian troops, might acquire a lesson from the example of their endurance, if they could but contemplate the devastation and scene of horror by which this once formidable fortress is enshrouded.

To the Royal Navy, I should be guilty of great injustice were I to attempt to record services that will be so much more ably detailed by their gallant and respected Commander in Chief. Whilst the early departure of the dispatch vessel for Malta, and the labour that has devolved on me within the walls, alike deprive me of the means of transmitting returns of ordnance, ammunition, treasure, &c., that have fallen into the hands of the captors, and of giving your Lordship an approximation, even to the amount of prisoners (over three thousand), as many are still coming in, and others are dragged in numbers from their places of refuge and concealment.

To Her Majesty's Ambassador at Constantinople I have reported the measures I have adopted for the temporary administration of the Pachaic of Acre, pending the pleasure of the Sultan.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) C. F. SMITH, Colonel,
Commanding the Forces in Syria.

The Viscount Palmerston, G.C.B.
&c. &c. &c.

Admiralty, November 30, 1840.

COMMODORE R. F. Stopford, of Her Majesty's steam vessel Phoenix, arrived at this office yesterday, with dispatches from Admiral the Honourable Sir Robert Stopford, G.C.B. of which the following are copies or extracts.

Princess Charlotte, Beyrout,
October 31, 1840.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge receipt of their Lordships orders, of the 5th instant, No. 322, with the letter, therein referred to, from Viscount Palmerston, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to make, under certain circumstances therein stated, an attack upon the fortress of St. Jean d'Acree, upon which I was previously deliberating, and preparing arrangements for ensuring, as much as possible, its success. And I have now to acquaint you, for their Lordships' information, that, having embarked three thousand Turkish troops and supernumerary marines in the different ships of the squadron, as per margin,* I shall proceed on that service the moment wind and weather will permit, with the Austrian squadron, under Rear-Admiral Bandiera, and the Turkish flag-ship, Rear-Admiral Walker, who had already proceeded himself, with a flag of truce, to summon the place, but was not received.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) ROBT. STOPFORD,
Admiral.

R. More O'Ferrall, Esq.
&c. &c. &c.

SIR,

YOU will be pleased to acquaint the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty that the town and fortress of Acree were taken possession of by the allied forces under my command this morning, in the name of the Sultan.

The circumstances which led to this result occurred on the 3d, when a heavy cannonade from the ships and vessels, beginning at two P.M. and ending at five, completely demolished the town, and materially damaged the fortifications, inducing the Egyptians to evacuate the place in the night. A tremendous explosion of a large magazine of powder took place about four P.M. on the 3d.

The attacks were made upon the west lines, and the south face of the works, the former composed of the following ships, viz. Princess Charlotte, Powerful, Bellerophon, Revenge, Thunderer, and Pique, under the immediate command of Commodore Napier (as I thought it advisable to accompany Colonel Sir Charles F. Smith in the Phoenix steamer, to be ready to take advantage of any breach that might be made in either of the two sea forces of the walls of the place for an immediate assault.) The south face being a more contracted anchorage, was occupied by the Edinburgh, Benbow, Castor, Carysfort, Talbot, Wasp, and Hazard, the destruction caused by the fire of the ships on both sides sufficiently proves its rapidity and precision.

Rear Admiral Baron de Bandiera, in the Austrian frigate Medea, and the Guerriere, under the command of His Imperial Highness the Archduke Frederick, with the Arabian Corvette Lipsia, rendered much assistance. Rear Admiral Walker Bey, in the * Princess Charlotte, Powerful, Bellerophon, Revenge, Thunderer, Edinburgh, Benbow, Castor, Carysfort, Gorgon, Vesuvius, Stromboli, Phoenix.—Turkish Admiral, 2933 troops.

Sultan's ship Mookuddimay-i-hive, of 74 guns, took up a most favourable position opposed to the south face, and did good service.

The steamers Gorgon, Vesuvius, Phoenix and Stromboli fired shot and shells into the town with much precision, and it is generally supposed that shells from the Gorgon occasioned the destruction of the powder magazine.

A flag of truce having been offered by the Turkish Admiral and rejected a short time before, I did not think it necessary or becoming that the summons should be repeated, particularly as hostilities had already commenced, and the ships and steamers had been fired upon as they approached the walls.

I have not been able to ascertain the number of troops in the town of Acree at the commencement of our fire; they have been estimated at four thousand five hundred, besides a body of cavalry outside the town of eight hundred: many lives were lost by the explosion of the magazine: seven hundred Egyptians and two officers of rank came in this morning with their arms and surrendered themselves as prisoners.

To Colonel Sir Charles Smith devolves the task of putting the town and fortifications into a posture of defence, and I am happy to find that his health enables him to perform this duty with his usual intelligence.

A great quantity of arms and ammunition were found at Acree, and the fortifications were fast getting into a state of preparation against attack.

I am much indebted to Captain Edward Boxer, of the Pique, and to Captain Codrington of the Talbot, for the excellent surveys which they made of the shoals round Acree, which enabled the ships to go in without risk of getting ashore.

I return a list of the killed and wounded in the Allied squadron, but the damages to the masts and rigging can be made good without the ships being sent off the station.

The success of this enterprise so important in its results, has called for my acknowledgments in general orders to the officers and men of the combined squadrons, whose united exertions had so much contributed to its attainment.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) ROBERT STOPFORD,
Admiral;
