

Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in Her Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that from and after the fifteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports, respectively, therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the port of San Fernando, in the island of Trinidad; and that, from and after the said fifteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said port of San Fernando, in the island of Trinidad, as fully and effectually as if such port had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of February 1841.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for better defining the powers of justices within the Metropolitan Police District," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to constitute, within the Metropolitan Police District, so many police court divisions as to Her Majesty should seem fit, and to define the extent thereof, and; from time to time, to alter the number and extent of such police court divisions, and to assign a division to each of the police courts already established, and to establish a police court for each of the other divisions; and that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, if she should think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that a police magistrate or magistrates should attend regularly at any police court or courts thereafter to be established, either daily or on such days and times as Her Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, should order.

Her Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the parishes of Fulham and Kensington (including so much of Brompton as has not been assigned by any Order in Council to the police court called "Queen-Square Police Court," and such part of the parish of Saint Margaret, Westminster, as adjoins the hamlet of Hammersmith, and also that portion of the parish of Chelsea, commonly called Kensall-green, situate to the north of the said parish of Kensington), the hamlet of Hammersmith, and the parishes of Acton and Chiswick, in the county of Middlesex, shall henceforth be constituted a police court division, and that a police court shall be established for such division to be holden at Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, until the erection of a police court-house at Hammersmith, in the same county; and that immediately upon the completion of such court-house, at Hammersmith, the said police court shall thenceforth be holden therein, at Hammersmith aforesaid.

And Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased further to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the parishes of Wandsworth, Putney, Battersea, Tooting, Merton, Wimbledon, Roehampton, Barnes, and Clapham, together with so much of the parish of Streatham as comprises Upper Tooting and Balham-hill, in the county of Surrey, shall from henceforth be constituted a police court division; and that a police court shall be established for such division, to be holden at Wandsworth, in the county of Surrey.

And Her Majesty is further pleased, with the advice aforesaid, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the magistrates, who shall hereafter be appointed for the said divisions, shall attend daily at such respective courts, excepting Sundays, Christmas-day, Good Friday, or any day appointed for a public fast or thanksgiving; and that one of the magistrates, to be appointed as aforesaid, shall attend at the said Kensington Police Court, until the erection of a police court-house as aforesaid, and after the completion thereof at the said Hammersmith Police Court, from ten of the clock in the morning until one of the clock in the afternoon;
