WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled " An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," and of another Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled " An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of two several Acts, namely, " An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, " with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues,

" so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, " revenues, and patronage," and " An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical " Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme :

" Whereas, under the provisions of the first recited Act, we prepared, and, on the twenty-second day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty, laid before your Majesty in Council a scheme, whereby we recommended and proposed that John Bishop of Lincoln, or his successors bishops of Lincoln, should be authorised and empowered to purchase a certain estate, therein specified, and to provide part of the moneys required for the purchase thereof, and for putting the premises thereon in proper repair and condition as an episcopal residence for himself, and his successors bishops of Lincoln, and for paying the costs, charges, and expences in the said Order also specified, by sale of certain estates belonging to the see of Lincoln :

" And whereas certain moneys have been so raised as aforesaid, and the said estate has been so purchased, and a plan for the repair and alteration of the said premises has been approved by us, and the said repairs and alterations are now in progress ; but it has been made to appear to us that such sales as aforesaid cannot be made with advantage to the interests of the said see of Lincoln to a sufficient extent to provide the whole amount required for the purposes of the said scheme and Order, and that further moneys will, therefore, be required, not exceeding in the whole the sum of five thousand pounds :

" We, therefore, recommend and propose, that out of such moneys as shall, from time to time, be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively for the purposes of the same Act, there shall be paid by us to such persons, at such times and in such manner as we shall deem expedient, such sum or sums of money, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of five thousand pounds, as may, from time to time, be necessary for fully completing all the purposes of the said scheme and Order :

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the said see of Lincoln, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

“ into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme :

“ Whereas, under the provisions of the first recited Act, we prepared, and, on the eleventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, laid before your Majesty in Council, a scheme, whereby we recommended and proposed that, out of such moneys as should, from time to time, be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively for the purposes of the said Act, there should be paid by us to such persons, at such times, and in such manner as we should deem expedient, such sum or sums of money, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of ten thousand pounds, towards erecting and completing, upon the site therein mentioned, an episcopal residence for the bishops of Ripon, to be by them enjoyed in right of the see of Ripon for ever :

“ And whereas the said residence has been erected, and is now nearly completed, according to a plan approved by us ; but it has been made to appear to us that the same cannot be entirely completed and put in a proper condition as a fit episcopal residence, without a further outlay, not exceeding in the whole the sum of two thousand pounds :

“ We, therefore, recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the like moneys, to such persons, at such times and in such manner as we shall deem expedient, such further sum or sums of money, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of two thousand pounds, as may, from time to time, be necessary for fully completing the said residence, and placing the same in fit and proper condition as a permanent episcopal residence for the see of Ripon :

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the said see of Ripon, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.”

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 1st day of April 1841.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled, “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,” have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme :

“ Whereas the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Rochester have duly prepared and submitted to us a plan for the disposal of one of the residence-houses, within the precincts of the said cathedral church, which plan has been duly approved by the Visitor of the said church, and is in the words and figures following, that is to say :

“ Whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,” it was enacted, that, so soon as conveniently might be, measures should be taken by the deans and chapters of the several cathedral and collegiate churches for the disposal of such residence houses then under their controul, and houses attached to any dignity, office, or prebend, in the precincts of the respective cathedral and collegiate churches as might no longer be required, in such way as they should deem fit, according to plans to be, from time to time, prepared by the respective chapters, and, when approved by the visitors, submitted to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and confirmed by the authority in the said Act provided; and whereas in the cathedral church of Rochester the house of residence heretofore assigned to the holder of the first canonry, being vacated by the suspension of such canonry, has been duly assigned, by an act of chapter, to the holder of the second canonry, and the house of residence heretofore assigned to the holder of such second canonry is consequently no longer required, and is so situated as to make it expedient that the same should be taken down, with a view to the improvement of the precincts of the said cathedral church, we, the Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church of Rochester, therefore, propose that the said last-mentioned house shall be taken down, so soon as we may be able to effect such improvement as aforesaid; and this plan, prepared by us, and duly approved by the Lord Bishop of Rochester, as our Visitor, we hereby humbly submit the same to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in order that it may be confirmed according to the provisions of the said recited Act; in witness whereof we have hereunto set our chapter seal, this third day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one.

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council, that the said plan should be confirmed and ratified.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Rochester.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for the assignment of a district to Trinity Chapel, at Barking Side, in the parish of Great Ilford, in the county of Essex, under the provisions of the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3, cap. 134:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of February 1841, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided; and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division;" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said hereinbefore recited Act, or the said Act now in recital, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which might thereafter be built, or acquired under the powers of the said former Act, or the said Act now in recital; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such Curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such Curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapel shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, by any grant or bounty under the provisions of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, in the words following, viz.

" Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes ;" and continued by an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled " An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes ;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the 1st year of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's commission for building new churches ;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Great Ilford, in the county of Essex and diocese of London, contained a population of 4,235 persons :

" That besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to 851 persons, there is a new chapel, recently erected (partly by a grant in aid thereof from your Majesty's said Commissioners) in the said parish, called Trinity Chapel, which affords accommodation to 472 persons, including 314 free seats, appropriated to the use of the poor :

" That the said chapel has been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein :

" Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the said chapel called Trinity Chapel, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," and that such district should be named " Trinity District, Barking Side," with boundaries as follows :

" At its southern extremity it abuts upon the River Roden, at Wanstead-bridge, commonly called Red-bridge, and then proceeds in an easterly direction, bounded by the road leading from Wanstead to Ilford, by Stone-hall, to the gate at the entrance to Valentines, about one mile and one furlong, where it turns towards the north, bounded by the road leading from Valentines to Hainhault-forest, for about four and a half furlongs, until you come to the end of Cock-lease-lane, where it turns in an easterly direction, bounded by the road called Cock-lease-lane, for about five furlongs, until you come to Ley-street, which it crosses, and proceeds in an easterly direction, bounded by the road called Oak's-lane, for about five and a half furlongs, until it comes to the road leading from Stump's-cross to Alboro'-hatch, which it crosses, and proceeds in an easterly direction through certain fields, belonging to Newbury's Farm, in the occupation of Mr. George Mitchell, bounded on the south by a fence enclosing the Twelve Acre Arable Field ; and then, proceeding in an easterly direction, across the Six

Acre Meadow, by the fence dividing the Long Mead, to the brook, about two furlongs ; it then turns towards the north, and runs along the Long Mead, bounded on the east by the brook that runs towards Seven Kings'-lane, till you come to Hainhault-forest, near Little Heath, about five furlongs ; it then turns towards the west, bounded by the fence skirting part of Hainhault-forest, to Alboro'-hatch-gate, about four furlongs ; it then turns towards the north, and runs, in a straight line, through a part of the forest, bounded on the east by another part of the forest, and at the extremity by the Lawn Farm, about seven and a half furlongs ; it then proceeds towards the north, bounded on the east by the division of the parish of Great Ilford and Dagenham ; it then turns towards the west, and is bounded by the division of the parish of Great Ilford and Chigwell ; it then turns towards the south, bounded by the division of the parish of Great Ilford, Woodford, and Wanstead, until it comes to Wanstead-bridge, commonly called Red-bridge, as the same is more particularly delineated, in the map hereunto annexed, and therein coloured yellow :

" That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel, and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by, and belong to, the Minister of the said chapel :
